

In the Know Update

The "In the Know" team is working on a podcast episode that is sensitive in nature. For that reason, we're taking a little bit more time to tell it accurately and respectfully. Stay tuned.

Megan Palmer

MEGAN PALMER: Hey, y'all. Happy Thursday. The "In the Know" team is currently working on a story that is sensitive in nature, and we want to make sure we do it right. For that reason, we need a bit more time to report and will not be publishing an episode today. Please check back next week for our next episode. Thank you, and take care.
