Campus Weekly

Leadership Letter

From the Chancellor

Hope you had a good week in celebrating with our students for Homecoming. Perhaps you had the opportunity to welcome back some of our alums. On Friday night, we celebrated and inducted alums into our Hall of Fame for athletics and honored those who had amazing careers and lifetime achievement.

Our Athletic Hall of Fame inductees were:

- Tom Andrades, Information Technology, 2000
- Jessica Forsline, Animal Science, 2002
- Christie Chappell Kopietz, Business Management, 2006
- Gary Warren, head men's hockey coach from 2001-2009 and assistant athletic director for facilities and operations in 2009.

Outstanding Alumni:

- Paul Carrier Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management 1987, 1997
- Victoria Ramirez, Business Management, 2002
- Perry Schermerhorn, Aviation, 1979; Applied Studies, 2017

Abbey Award (Young Alumni):

- Justin McMechan, Agronomy, 2009

Their complete bios and accomplishments can be found here.

Please make plans to attend the University of Minnesota Crookston Professional Development Day on Friday, October 25 from 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. in Bede Ballroom.

The Keynote speaker for the day will be Fran Sepler, President of Sepler & Associates, an HR consultant dedicated to helping organizations understand the ways in which employees thrive and excel in high quality work environments. Her presentation is titled "Creating and Maintaining a Respectful Workplace."

Following Fran Sepler, will be University of Minnesota Twin Cities colleagues, Patti Franklin - HR Chief of Staff, Dave Golden - Director of Public Health, and Sara Veblen-Mortenson - Public Health Project Manager. These 3 will present "Prevention of Sexual Misconduct in the Workplace - A Public Health Approach," and then will lead a review of University of Minnesota Crookston student data on their health and behaviors.

In case you missed my email about internal communications last week, here are my comments:

Thank you with your patience as we are trying to determine the most effective ways to communicate internally. As you are aware, we did away with the unofficial list last year when our students were telling us they never opened anything. Their mailboxes were inundated with more than 6,000 messages last year.

We instituted a more invigorated weekly update with the hope you would use that to determine what was going on. We've also discovered you can subscribe and have events you want to know about sent to your phone and email. To learn how to do that—use the tutorial found here:

Tutorial

This will also be available on our website. It provides you guidance.

We tried to leave the Faculty Staff official list alone for a while, but then noticed that people were sending out messages that should have been in the Campus Weekly update. So as some of you know, we restricted who could use the official list. We've heard from some of you that isn't working either. So, we will reinstate the Faculty Staff official list email option for everyone.

Please, use it appropriately, and try to include your information in the Campus Weekly for faculty and staff and/or the student e-newsletter. Read the Campus Weekly and subscribe to the events you want to learn more about.

Before we instituted all of these changes, Elizabeth and Team did an analysis of what other universities were doing. We instituted their best practices, but of course, we always are willing to change to meet our needs. We are a changing, flexible and growing organization. When things aren't working, we can make the changes we need to.

Sincerely,

Chancellor Mary

If you click the Google icon, this will pop up:

The screenshot shows a Google Calendar event creation interface. At the top, the event title is 'Homecoming Bonfire' with a 'Save' button. Below the title, the date and time are set to 'Sep 27, 2019, 9:00pm to 11:00pm' on 'Sep 27, 2019' in the 'Time zone'. There is a checkbox for 'All day' and a dropdown for 'Does not repeat'. The interface is split into two columns: 'Event Details' and 'Guests'. Under 'Event Details', there are sections for 'Parking Lot 0', 'Add conferencing', 'Notification' (set to 10 minutes), 'Add notification' (with a dropdown for 'Zach Garfinkel'), and 'Busy' (set to 'Default visibility'). Under 'Guests', there is an 'Add guests' field and a 'Guests can:' section with checkboxes for 'Modify event', 'Invite others' (checked), and 'See guest list' (checked). At the bottom, there is a rich text editor with a toolbar and a preview of the event description: 'STS hosts their annual homecoming bonfire. Get ready for the big game on Saturday by joining your friends and classmates for this annual event.'

From here, click save and the event is on your Google calendar!

Training Program for Gender Equity and Access

The Gender and Sexuality Center for Queer and Trans Life at UMN-TC is looking for passionate professionals to serve as inaugural facilitators in anticipation of the implementation of the draft Gender Equity and Access Policy in Fall 2019. This draft policy incorporates four main components: name, gender identity, and pronouns; programs, activities, and facilities; data collection; and data privacy.

This Facilitator Training Program for Gender Equity and Access aims to provide campus staff and faculty with the content and skills to facilitate knowledge-building in your respective, department, unit, or college. More detailed information can be found on the facilitator application.

If interested in this opportunity to serve as facilitator, please apply through the application link below. Applications will be accepted until October 11, 2019.

Application: <http://bit.ly/FTPGEA>

From the Business Office

The Business Office will be closed on Wednesday, October 16 due to an all-day training event.

We apologize for any inconvenience.

From Information Technology

Due October 17 - Teaching Innovation Grant applications

Proposals for grants up to $1,000 from TeachingSupport@UMN are due October 17. The grants are intended to support innovative teaching and learning at the University of Minnesota. Innovation is broadly defined and encompasses innovation in all forms, including pedagogy, content, accessibility for students with disabilities, and technology.

The DUO "Remember Me" service is a time-saving feature to allow a device to remember you for seven (7) days. It should only be used with a device you own, or that is assigned only to you. Never use the feature on public or shared devices. The Remember Me service is available to all system campus users and is set to remember devices for a maximum of seven (7) days at all system campuses. Please contact the UMC Computer Help Desk if you have questions.

Hispanic Heritage Month

"Cinco de Mayo, also known as La Batalla de Puebla (Battle of Puebla) celebrates the victory of the Mexican forces over the French in the Mexican state of Puebla. It is not Mexican Independence Day, Mexican Independence day is on September 16."

Crookston Community

"The Importance of the 2020 Census" Lunch and Learn

Minnesota Council of Nonprofits will host a lunch and learn entitled "The Importance of the 2020 Census" at Tri-Valley Opportunity Council, Inc. in Crookston (102 N. Broadway) on Thursday, October 10 from 12 – 1 p.m.

The objectives of the lunch and learn are to understand the role of the Decennial Census in the geographic distribution of funds, to discuss the development of internal strategies within your organization that can develop a culture of civic participation, to learn about the census timeline, to learn about census updates, and to brainstorm census outreach efforts. There will also be a discussion and information shared about MCN census grants of up to $5,000 to support mobilization and education efforts.

Speaker Bio: Michelle Chang is the policy and equity coordinator at MCN. Her primary focus is building power around Census 2020 in partnership with MCN's many nonprofit members. She also works internally to ensure that policies and procedures center around ending disparities in power, money, access, and more.

If you have any questions about the lunch and learn, please contact Ashley Charwood, Northwest Minnesota regional coordinator, at acharwood@minnesotanonprofits.org or 218-407-5202.
