UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA CROOKSTON

October 8, 2019

Highlights

Point of Pride

It's Sugar Beet Harvest Time: In 1815, Napoleon encouraged research on sugar beets as a source of sugar. By 1918, a few Minnesota farmers in the Red River Valley were growing sugar beets, and growing interest in them led to the building of a processing plant in East Grand Forks, Minnesota in 1926. The Crookston plant was built in 1954 and is one of the area's largest employers.

Faculty Feature

Faculty Feature: Rachel Lundbohm, Business Department Assistant Professor

Tips for on-campus: Take advantage of all of the resources available to you through UMN Crookston and the UMN System. Utilize the writing center, get a tutor when you are struggling, consider a study abroad experience, etc. These are all things I regret not doing (or doing more of) as an undergraduate student.

Favorite Song: One of my favorite songs is "No Such Thing As A Broken Heart" by Old Dominion. In that song there is a line that says "Chase after the dream don't chase after the money." I love this line because it reminds me to do what you love every day and that is how I feel about my job!

Fun anecdote/story My 5 year old son picks out the theme for our Halloween costumes each year. Last year we were Rescue Bots (kids cartoon characters). This year we are going as Avengers. Apparently, I get to be Black Widow...bring on the black spandex and red hair...lol!

Banned Books Week Competition

Students can participate in a display case contest for banned books week here.

Guess the "profane" word that has been censored out of each book title in the Library display. There are 15 titles, each with a one-word correct answer. Some words will be repeated.

Those with correct (or mostly correct) answer forms will be entered in a drawing to win a UMC sweatshirt (stop by the library display case to see it for yourself). Choose your answers wisely - you can only enter the contest once.

Good %#@&ing luck!
