Survey

UMN Crookston has partnered with Ruffalo Noel Levitz to administer the Priorities Survey for Online Students. Watch your email for a link to the survey; the message will be from Sue Erickson, Director of Institutional Effectiveness. All those completing the survey will be entered into a drawing for one of five $50 bookstore gift certificates. The input will be used to strengthen UMN Crookston's online offerings.

Native American Heritage Month

Key Definition of Native Americans

Native American All Native peoples of the United States and its trust territories (i.e., American Indians, Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians, Chamorros, and American Samoans), as well as persons from Canadian First Nations and Indigenous communities in Mexico and Central and South America who are US residents.

Facebook Group for Online Students

Are you an online student looking to connect with other online students? If so, we have a facebook group that you can join! Two of our very own students, Riley Ellison and Derek Sorenson, took the initiative to reach out to staff about creating a virtual space to help you build a sense of community at the University of Minnesota Crookston. You can find the Facebook group by searching for "University of Minnesota Crookston Online Students". If you have questions you can reach out to Lamesha Brown, Ph.D. at brownlc@crk.umn.edu.

Student Feature

A child with strawberry blonde hair bordering on red strides up to a horse called Charging Yankee, but despite the name the horse is tame in this moment allowing the young man to approach him in a pasture and hop right on his back and just ride around together along the Illinois prairie.

For Minnesota Crookston junior wide receiver Kyler Banks growing up around horses and knowing their cadences and their ticks have become second nature. This particular horse was a special one, one that Kyler's Father Josh and Grandfather Craig had long-since convinced Kyler was born on the same day as he was. So that bond was forged at an early age.
