By Rae French on Wednesday, November 8, 2006 CROOKSTON, MN (November 8, 2006) – Get your passport, dance the night away Latin style and learn about student study abroad and travel opportunities during International Education Week Nov. 12 to 17, 2006, at the University of Minnesota, Crookston. All events are free and open to the public.

Events on tap for the week include:

Sun., Nov. 12 – Filipino Violin and Piano Concert, 8 p.m., Kiehle Auditorium

Violinist Joe Ortiguera and Pianist José D. Uriarte will perform traditional Filipino music.

Mon., Nov. 13 – Paper Mache Art Workshop, 6 to 9 p.m., Northern Lights Lounge, Student Center

Make international paper mache art that will be displayed at the Latin Night Dance on Wednesday and at the "Holiday's Around the World" event in December. This is a great opportunity to be creative. Paper mache instructions will be given out at 6 p.m.

Tues., Nov. 14 – Explore Study Abroad Possibilities, 7 to 9 p.m., Northern Lights Lounge, Student Center

Stop by and listen to presentations from students who have studied overseas. Also there will be a special presentation on the campus program to Norway. Free mochas available for all participants.

Wed., Nov. 15 – Passport Processing, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Northern Lights Lounge, Student Center

The Passport Center will be on campus to help process passport applications. Individuals must bring the following items: completed passport application that can be picked up on site; certified birth certificate; $10 for photos; $30 check made payable to "Polk County Recorder; and $67 check made payable to the "US Department of State."

Wed., Nov. 15 – Latin Dance Night, 7 to 10 p.m., Bede Ballroom, Student Center

Learn to dance Latin style with lessons running from 7 to 8 p.m.

Thurs., Nov. 16 – International Game Night, 7 to 9 p.m., Northern Lights Lounge, Student Center

Games, games and more games. Come and join students from around the globe and learn some new and exciting ways to be entertained.
