CROOKSTON, Minn. (DATE, Feb. 21, 2007) – The University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) Choir and Band will present a free concert Tuesday, Feb. 27, at 8 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium on the Crookston campus. The one-hour performance will feature selections from the Broadway musical Les Miserables and other favorites. Portions of the show will be under the direction of student conductors Joe Field, Thief River Falls, Minn.; Deb Halstad, Fertile, Minn.; and Gareth McNichol-Briggs, Crookston, Minn. Refreshments will be served and everyone is invited to attend.

Free-will donations will be accepted to support the Choir's spring-break cruise to the Bahamas, during which it will perform aboard the Carnival Cruise Lines ship "Celebration." The spring-break trip kicks off March 8 and will also include performances at various Minnesota high schools.

The University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) delivers more than 24 different undergraduate degree programs and 50 concentrations, including online degrees, in agriculture; arts, humanities and social sciences; business; math, science and technology; and natural resources. UMC is dedicated to helping students and the region aim higher, reach further and dream big dreams. To learn more, visit www.UMCrookston.edu.
