Zorongo Flamenco Dance Theatre will present "Echoes of Spain"

By Itollegs on Wednesday, October 1, 2014

Zorongo Flamenco Dance Theatre will present "Echoes of Spain", a concert full of vibrant traditional flamenco dance, guitar and singing, and featuring an ensemble of critically, masterful performers. The performance will take place on Saturday, October 11 at the University of Minnesota Crookston. The performance, at 7:30 p.m., will take place in Kiehle Auditorium. Attendance is $5 for adults and $3 for students. U of M Crookston students and children under 10 are admitted at no charge.

Inspired by the "Avante Garde" revolution in Paris in the early 1900's in which the glamour and fire of Spanish dance ignited the art scene, this performance will present songs, music and dances that echo the past while bringing forth contemporary spirit and virtuosity. Artistic Director, Susana di Palma directs master gypsy guitarist Chuscales, powerful flamenco singer Vicente Griego and dancers Jesus Munoz, Deborah Elias and Colette Illarde in an evening concert that you will not forget.

The performance is sponsored by the Music Department at the U of M Crookston and any questions may be directed to Associate Professor George French at 218-281-8266.

This activity is made possible in part by a grant provided by the Minnesota State Arts Board, through an appropriation by the Minnesota State Legislature from the Minnesota arts and cultural heritage fund with money from the vote of the people of Minnesota on November 4, 2008.

Today the University of Minnesota Crookston delivers 29 bachelor's degree programs, 20 minors, and 36 concentrations on campus--as well as 13 degrees online--in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,800 undergraduates from more than 20 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
