Fall Music Concert Sunday, November 23, 2014, at U of M Crookston; Concert begins at 2 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium

By Itollefs on Thursday, November 13, 2014 Enjoy the beautiful sounds of talented student, faculty, staff, and community musicians during the fall music concert at the University of Minnesota Crookston. The concert featuring the UMC Jazz Band, the UMC Choir, and the Crookston Community Band, will take place on Sunday, November 23, 2014, at 2 p.m. in the Kiehle Auditorium. There is no admission charge, but a freewill offering will be taken to support music programs on the Crookston campus.

The Crookston Community Band and UMC Jazz Band are under the direction of TJ Chapman, a lecturer at the U of M Crookston, and the UMC Choir is directed by Associate Professor George French.

Today the University of Minnesota Crookston delivers 29 bachelor's degree programs, 20 minors, and 36 concentrations on campus--as well as 13 degrees online--in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,800 undergraduates from more than 20 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
