U of M Crookston Earns Additional Accolades for Online Degree Programs

By Itollefs on Wednesday, November 26, 2014

The University of Minnesota Crookston recently earned additional recognition for the quality and affordability of a number of degree programs offered online.

U of M Crookston's online degree program in accounting was ranked among the 30 most affordable online accounting bachelor's degrees in the U.S. UMC's program came in at #19 on the list compiled by Accounting Degree Review. Only institutions with regional accreditation were considered. Accounting Degree Review is an independent online resource for current and prospective accounting and finance students that provides data-based rankings and critical reviews of the top traditional and online accounting and finance degree programs. The rankings may be viewed in their entirety at Another online resource, OnlineU.org, listed the U of M Crookston's online degree programs in accounting and health management among the 20 most affordable or "best value" online degrees in their respective categories for 2015. UMC's online program in accounting ranked #14, and its program in health management ranked #12 in the health care program listing. Both lists are available online at www.onlineu.org. OnlineU.org is operated by SR Education Group, a Kirkland, Washington-based education information company.

A third online resource, Computer Science Online, ranked the U of M Crookston among the top 20 best colleges for online computer science degrees for 2015, specifically citing UMC's information technology management major. This ranking is available at www.computerscienceonline.org/degree-programs. The organization operates www.ComputerScienceOnline.org, a website that offers search tools, salary data, and articles and guides for students considering careers working with computers, software, and technology.

A fourth online resource, TopManagementDegrees.com, listed the U of M Crookston among the 25 best schools for online bachelor's degrees in sports management. UMC came in at #6 on the list for its degree in sport and recreation management. TopManagementDegrees.com's business education rankings are designed to help prospective students make informed choices about online higher education opportunities.
