Jazz Band and the Community Band, both under the direction of TJ Chapman. The concerts are free and everyone is invited to attend.

The Jazz Band Concert will take place on Saturday, April 25 at 7:30 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium. The concert will feature guest artist Ted Chapman, a rock and blues guitarist from Hagerstown, Maryland. The audience will enjoy a cross section of music including swing, blues, rock, and funk. It will also feature several U of M Crookston students and members of the Crookston community.

On Sunday, April 26, the Community Band will perform a western-themed concert at 1 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium. The concert will feature Rossini's William Tell Overture, Copland's Hoedown from "Rodeo," and selections from Rogers and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma" as well as others.

The University of Minnesota Crookston now delivers 31 bachelor's degree programs, 22 minors, and 36 concentrations on campus as well as 14 degree programs entirely online. These degrees are offered in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,800 undergraduates from more than 20 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
