By Elizabeth Tollefson on Wednesday, July 1, 2015

Terri Heggie (in photo) has been named as the new program coordinator for the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP). She assists with the day to day operation of RSVP programs, such as Bone Builders, Groceries to Go, Handyman, Wellness Way, etc. As the new program coordinator she also is responsible for volunteer enrollments, trainings, and community presentations, as well as regular office administration.

Tammy Frohlich, who served as the program coordinator for one and half years, is pleased to welcome Heggie to her new role. "Terri's former experience with volunteers, community engagement, and seniors makes her a perfect fit for RSVP," Frohlich says. "She has adapted perfectly and brings fresh ideas to enhance the programming."

The RSVP program covers the counties of Polk, Red Lake, Kittson, Pennington, Norman, Marshall and Roseau counties in Minnesota. RSVP is housed in Owen Hall 251 at the University of Minnesota Crookston.

The program strives to address critical community needs through innovative volunteer opportunities for persons ages 55 and over that enrich the lives of the volunteers and the communities they live in.

The University of Minnesota Crookston now delivers 33 bachelor's degree programs, 22 minors, and 36 concentrations on campus as well as 14 degree programs entirely online. These degrees are offered in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,800 undergraduates from more than 20 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
