Jazz Band Honors Veterans during November Concerts

By Elizabeth Tollefson on Friday, October 30, 2015

Jazz up fall with the help of the University of Minnesota Crookston Jazz Band and two performances at the VFW, 121 N Main St, Crookston, Minn., featuring music from the 1920's, 30's and 40's. The concerts will take place on Friday, November 13 from 9 p.m. to midnight and Saturday, November 14 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. The concert is open to all and membership in the VFW is not necessary to attend.

The concert, which will include several patriotic numbers, will honor veterans and their admission is covered by their service to our country. While there is no specific cover charge for the concert, donations will be accepted to help offset the cost by the Jazz Band to attend a jazz festival. Dancing to the music is also encouraged.

The University of Minnesota Crookston now delivers 34 bachelor's degree programs, 22 minors, and 39 areas of emphasis on campus as well as 14 degree programs entirely online. These degrees are offered in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,800 undergraduates from more than 20 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
