Crookston as a College Town Open Forum, Tuesday, November 17

By Elizabeth Tollefson on Thursday, November 5, 2015

"Crookston as a College Town," an open forum for the campus and community, will be held on Tuesday, November 17, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in Bede Ballroom, Sargeant Student Center. Everyone is welcome and no parking permits will be necessary.

All interested members of the campus and local community, including U of M Crookston students, are invited to take part and share their thoughts as the group discusses what services and characteristics make Crookston a college town, and what it might offer or improve in order to appeal to and attract students.

The event will be hosted by Enactus and the Crookston Campus-Community Connection (C4) and light hors d'oeuvres will be served.

The University of Minnesota Crookston now delivers 34 bachelor's degree programs, 22 minors, and 39 areas of emphasis on campus as well as 14 degree programs entirely online. These degrees are offered in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,800 undergraduates from more than 20 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
