Women's Coordinating Committee

STOP BY the Women's Display Case (112 Social Science) and meet our mothers!

The Women's Coordinating Committee will be sponsoring the last of three foreign films on the lives of women on May 12th and May 15th at 7:30 PM in Boh Hall 90... "Life of O-Haru" is a vast and intricate canvas of feudal Japan, a world which brutally links women with property, and one where a woman must always play her assigned role--courtesan, breeder, working woman, bourgeois wife, fugitive, common prostitute. Admission is free and open to the public.

In honor of the first graduates of the Women's Studies Program, you are cordially invited to join us in celebration on Wednesday, May 12th in 112 Social Science from 1:00 - 2:30 PM.

Women (faculty, staff, and students) who are interested in being on the core for Women's Coordinating Committee, please contact Alice Guckin (726-8728 or 134 Library).

Kate Millett invites you to spend the summer at her farm living in a woman's community. Applications for apprenticeships now being accepted.
