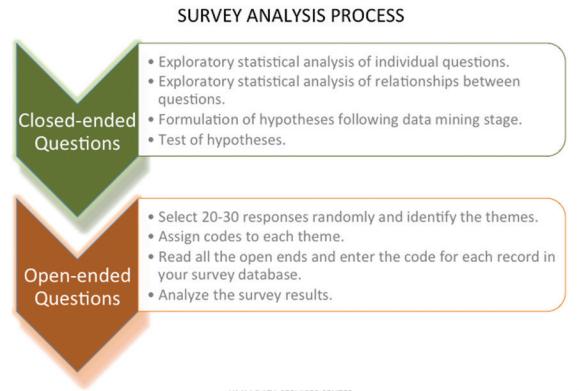
Exploring Intercultural Competency

Sample of Primary Goals

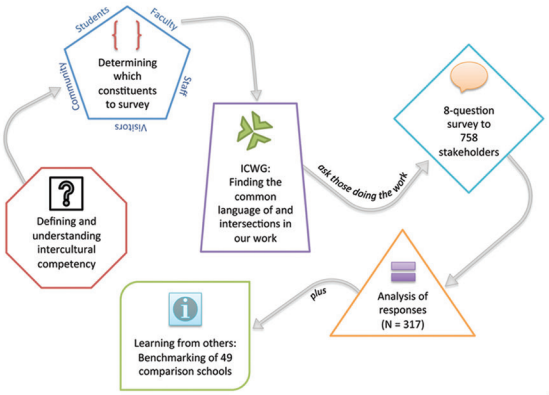
- Help begin the conversation on how to frame the language related to diversity, equity/inclusion, international perspectives, and public/community engagement (A.K.A. "the work") for the Intercultural Competency Work Group.
- Identify best practices related to "the work."
- Identify intersections that may exist in "the work."

How do you frame interculturalism?

Survey Results



Process & Methods



Sample of Preliminary Recommendations

- Access and visibility of resources and network support need to be improved.
- Initiatives related to "the work" should be tied to the University's strategic plan.
- Identify a steering committee and a working committee.

2011-12 Project Team:

MAROON 5

President's Emerging Leaders Program

University of Minnesota

Thank you to our sponsors:

- Office of Public Engagement
- Office of Equity & Diversity
- International Programs, Global Programs and Strategy Alliance

Special thanks to University of Minnesota Morris Data Services Center.