"A YEAR IN ICELAND"

Professor Kemp Malone, of the English Department, will lecture in the Little Theater on Monday afternoon, August 11, at four, on the above topic. The substance of the talk is an account of personal experiences and impressions which Professor Malone gained during a year of residence in Iceland. The lecture will be open to the public.

FIRST-HAND INFORMATION ON RUSSIA

On Tuesday there will be the first of a series of lectures by Doctor Pitirin Sorokin, on present conditions in Russia. Doctor Sorokin, who is a visiting lecturer in Sociology for the Summer Session, has had such an intimate connection with Russian education and politics, both before and after the revolution, that his account will be both authentic and convincing. Before the war he was chairman of the department of sociology in the University of Petrograd, a member of the International Institute of Sociology, and the author of many books on Law, Sociology, and Psychology. During the revolution he was personal secretary to Kerensky, was a member of the Executive Committee of the All-Peasant Soviet, and of the Russian Constitutional Convention.

The topic of Tuesday's lecture will be "The State of the Population and Economic Situation in Russia." Subsequently other phases will be discussed. The lectures will be in the Little Theater, at four o'clock, and will be open to the public.

MOTION PICTURES THIS WEEK

Tonight—Tuesday

The picture to be shown tonight is Louis N. Parker's great drama "Disraeli," with George Arliss in the title role, which he created. The first stage performance was given in Montreal in 1911, and Mr. Arliss has kept it in repertory ever since. After repeated requests the screen version was made and the picture has had the same success as the stage version. Every Summer student who has not seen this picture should make an effort to enjoy this opportunity

Thursday

The offering for Thursday is a special one, a compliment to the members of the second summer term,—Douglas Fairbanks in his notable success, "The Three Musketeers." Owing to the probable demand from regularly enrolled students, admission will be on presentation of receipted fee statements.

WEDNESDAY'S RECITAL NOTEWORTHY

The program of the recital on Wednesday afternoon shows it to be one of the most notable offerings of the Summer Session. The two sonatas, for the relatively unfamiliar instrument, the viola, and piano, are both beautiful and interesting works and will be finely performed. The vocal portion of the program will be a connected series, songs from Tennyson's "Maud," and of literary as well as musical interest.

VISIT THE TRIBUNE OFFICE SATURDAY

An opportunity to see behind the scenes of a metropolitan newspaper is afforded in the excursion for Saturday afternoon. At three o'clock the party will leave the Old Library and go by street car to the Tribune office on Fourth St. South, where competent guides will conduct it thru the plant.

TENNIS NOTICE

All persons who wish to use the University tennis courts must have in their possession WHITE tennis privilege cards. These cards may be secured from the office of the Registrar free of charge by faculty members and students attending the second term of the Summer Session.

W. R. Smith,
Director, Intramural Athletics.

LECTURES ON ADULT EDUCATION

Series to Be Given by Dr. Albert Mansbridge,
English Authority

The attention of both students and faculty is called to the lectures to be given on Thursday and Friday, August 7 and 8, on "The Romance and Adventure of Adult Education," by Dr. Albert Mansbridge. The subject is one that interests many who are not directly engaged in teaching, but who have appreciated the effect of extension teaching since the days when Huxley and other great British scientists turned their attention to the popular audience.

Dr. Mansbridge is a leader in adult education in England, being the founder and chairman of several of the leading organizations, a member of numerous committees and commissions entrusted with administration, a governor of Selwyn College, Cambridge, and of St. Hilda's College, Oxford, an author and publicist of international fame. He has come to this country especially to participate in a symposium on Popular Education at Chatauqua Institution, Chatauqua, N. Y., and thru the agencies of that institution is appearing at a few of the larger universities conducting summer sessions. He is in the country only three weeks, and Minnesota is fortunate in securing these two days.

LIBRARY NOTICES

Following the practice of previous years, the University Library will be open from 7:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the second session of the Summer School, except on Saturdays, when it will be open from 7:45 a.m. to 12 noon. Students and faculty who wish to use books overnight or when the Library is closed, can make arrangements at the lending desks.

Most of the departmental libraries will be closed during the second session of the Summer School. The main Library will be in process of moving and some inconvenience is inevitable. This will be made as light as possible, and notices of the removal of definite collections or portions of the Library will be announced in the Official Daily Bulletin.

"Reserve books" are now available on the first floor of the New Library Building. Other books in the 300's (Education, Economics, Sociology, etc.) will be available for a few days longer in the lower reading-room of the Old Library. When it becomes necessary to close this room, service will be given in the main reading-room of the Old Library.

The periodical collection is in process of removal to the new building. Questions regarding the location of any volume or set will be answered in the Reference department.

The lower reading room in the old library is now being dismantled. Anyone wishing to use books which are shelved there should make inquiry at the desk in the main reading room on the second floor.

F. K. Walter,
University Librarian.

NOTICE TO SENIORS IN ALL COLLEGES

All students who expect to complete the work for any degree at the close of the second Summer Session should call at Window 10, Registrar's office, Library Building, and fill out a diploma slip not later than Wednesday, August 13. This applies to candidates for advanced and professional degrees as well as those who expect to receive the baccalaureate degree. Seniors in Agriculture, Forestry, and Home Economics should call at the Registrar's office, University Farm
