

Huskers Out to Break Gopher Jinx

"Granted that Minnesota holds a margin in the long series played with Nebraska, and also that we have not beaten Minnesota since 1939, but sooner or later the odds will even up, and we hope that this is the year."

And that is the word of A. J. (Lew) Lewandowski, Cornhusker mentor, who pits his undermanned, under-aged and inexperienced eleven against Minnesota today.

Minnesota has won 19 of the 25 contests between the two schools in the history of the competition that began in 1900 and has run quite steadily since. The Nebraskans have taken five and one tilt was a tie.

Only last year were the Cornhuskers really sandbagged. In 1942, the Gophers won by 15-2 and eked out a 9-0 victory in '41. It was 13-7 for the Maroons in 1940 and 6-0 for the Cornhuskers in 1939, who also triumphed, 14-9, in 1937 and held Minnesota to a late 7-0 squeak the year before.

In other words, the Gophers seldom have walked over Nebraska, a school which has a mark of nine Big Six conference championships in the last 16 years.

Today, Lewandowski puts a faster and probably better balanced eleven on the field. His contingent will be heavier than the Gophers in the line, with an average weight of 193 pounds. Furthermore, the attack, paced by the pitching and running of Billy Betz and substitute Jack Selzer may give the top heavy favorites some trouble. Especially the pitching.

FRANK HAZARD
May be just that

Only two linemen came back from last year's Cornhusker team, in fact, only four lettermen in all reported. Main bulwarks, the two "veterans" today are Lyle Kops, tackle, and Frank Hazard, who may prove to be just that at the right guard position.

Ad Lewandowski took over head coaching duties last year and kept an undersized aggregation well off the bottom of the Big Six standings. Lewandowski, who is acting director of athletics and head basketball coach as well as football mentor, came to Nebraska in 1937. He was a letter winner at the Husker school in 1927-1929 in three sports and is one of the most popular midwest coaches. Jerry Adam, line coach, is an ex-Cornhusker guard and also is head wrestling coach. Art Stark, Nebraska backfield coach, did not make the trip.

The Nebraska coaching staff is free at least from one worry in the Cornhusker opening game today, and that is the injury bug. Ken

Meet the 1944 Minnesota Mentors

THOUGHTS

While Not Shaving

By Rod McQuary

We have among us, about every time this year, dynamic little tribute to the calm and accurate announcers, but at these jug-happy warriors whose flamboyant corn has driven many a listener to seek refuge in the bobby-hatch.

"Yessir, yessir, how do you do, ladies and gentlemen. How do you do! This is Ted Liverlip, spiking to you from the top of Meringue stadium in Los Angeles, bringing you the play-by-play account of the thirteenth annual Lemon bowl contest between Stanford and California. And what a panorama this game will be. I'm sure that I spik for my associate, Randy Quoik, when I say that this game is going to have plenty of color, yessir, plenty of color, as in unfolds before our eyes. And what a day for a game! There's a slight breeze playing over the tops of the many palms on the vari-colored caps worn by the Stanford band members, and the golden uniforms of the . . .

"But here come the California Bears out on the field. While we're checking the lineup, we'll switch the mike down to the field to pick up some of that band music. (Dead silence.) Well, folks, here we are back in the booth. And I'll check the lineup for this panorama. And what a pano—

"Whoops! There's the kickoff, and while the Indians are running the ball back from the five, here's a word from our sponsor. (Plug plug plug plug.)

"Yessir, folks, Randy will give you a recap on what has happened during the half. Right now, California has the ball and Flatswitch is trying the end. He slips and falls! Both grid giants are holding up under this slam-bang, scrappy . . .

"Sorry, folks, the game is being held up by a mascot who is running onto the field from one of the exits. Evidently they're putting on the dog. Ha ha ha ha. Don't you think that's rich, Randy? Randy thinks it's rich, folks.

"And at the half, ladies and gentlemen, we have Ben Hascomb, former guard at California and also a Mootchual Broadcasting company stockholder. Ben, how d'ya' like the game?

"Daw, it's a real tough game, Ted, a real tough game. Just the kind I like to see."

"Thanks, Ben. And now, folks, we have Harry Patterson, also from Mootchual, up here to say a few words."

"Daw, it's a real tough game, Ted, a real, etc."

"And now down to the field to pick up a cheer from the Stanford section. (Dead silence.) Apparently there isn't going to be a cheer, ladies and gentlemen, but what a panorama this is, what a panorama!"

"Yessir, folks, the game is rapidly drawing to a close, and what a tussle—it has been. Don't you think it's been a tussle, Randy? Randy thinks it's been a tussle, ladies and gentlemen. Now, the sponsor with a brief message. (Plug plug plug plug.)

"There's the gun, folks, marking the end of the game. Those spectators are enthusing over the grid battle. Yessir, they certainly are enthusing."

"And so, as the sun slips softly to the west, closing the day for these two gallant clubs, this is Ted Liverlip and Randy Quoik signing off after one of the best Lemon bowl classics. What a panorama!"

By the way, what's the score?

Folk Arts Group Holds Weekend Conference

Culminating the work done by a general committee, the Folk Arts Foundation of America, Inc., is participating in a weekend conference which started Friday at the Center for Continuation Study. The conference ends today.

Today's program consists of lectures on "The Housing of Artifacts," "Folk Museum Programs" and the general meeting of the corporation. Attendance at the Minnesota-Nebraska football game will complete the program.

The purpose of this organization, according to Dr. J. B. Christianson, chairman of the general committee, is to contribute to the better understanding between many racial religious and national groups which make up America's diverse cultures.

The conference was sponsored by the University of Minnesota and the Foundation. The program was arranged to help increase the knowledge and practice of the Folk Arts in America.

An exhibit for the conference was arranged by the University Press including books, posters and photographs.

Conferees represented Carleton college, Russell Sage foundation, Wayne university, St. Olaf college, University of Indiana, Minnesota Historical society, International Center in Detroit, College of St. Benedict, Swedish International bureau and the University of Minnesota.

Administrative Notices OPENING CONVOCATION The first convocation of the year will be held Thursday, October 5, in Northrop Memorial Auditorium at 11:30 a.m. Speaker: President Walter C. Coffey. Topic: "The University—1889, and Now." James S. Lombard, Director of Concerts and Lectures.

FACULTY AND OPENING CONVOCATION It is my sincere hope that members of the faculty will participate in the Opening Convocation on Thursday, October 5. This function is to welcome freshmen and other new students to the University and general participation is urged. On that date all classes will be dismissed at 11:10 a. m. (10:55 a. m. on the Farm campus). Sophomores, junior, seniors, and graduate students will proceed without formation to the auditorium and take seats in the rear and side sections of the main floor and in the balcony. The center main floor is reserved for new students.

Faculties in academic dress will assemble at 11:15 a.m. in front of the library and proceed to places on the stage. New students will assemble promptly at 11:10 on the Museum quadrangle (between Folwell Hall and the Center for Continuation Study) where they will form a column of fours and then march to their places on the main floor of the auditorium.

In case of rain, all will make their way individually to their seats in the auditorium. W. C. Coffey, President.

UNIVERSITY SENATE The first meeting of the University Senate for the year 1944-45 will be held at 4:30 p.m., Thursday, October 19, 1944, in the Auditorium of Murphy Hall. Committee reports and other items to be included in the docket should be sent to the Office of Admissions and Records before Wednesday noon, October 19th.

T. E. Pettengill, Clerk of Senate.

General Notices LIBRARY NOTICE Beginning October 2, the Library hours, until further notice, will be as follows: Monday to Friday 8 A.M. to 10 P.M. Saturdays 8 A.M. to 6 P.M. W. McDiarmid, University Librarian.

RED CROSS SURGICAL DRESSINGS Evening Group The Red Cross work rooms in Coffman Memorial Union will be open for the making of surgical dressings every Tuesday evening from 6 to 9 P.M., beginning September 26. All who would like to work during these hours are cordially invited to join the group. Doroliese H. Wardwell, Supervisor.

VOCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES IN PRISON SERVICE The attention of interested faculty advisors and students is called to the fact that the Federal Bureau of Prisons has been attempting to improve the calibre of the federal penal and correctional institutions under its jurisdiction. It has recently conducted a rather extensive survey of the offerings to be found in the curricula of the colleges and universities of the United States and currently available for the professional training of prison personnel.

On the basis of this survey, the Bureau makes tentative recommendations relative to desirable courses of study to be followed in preparation for positions in the following six fields of prison service: 1. Prison Administration 2. Classification and Parole 3. Education and Training Services 4. Agricultural Management 5. Mechanical and Engineering Services 6. Dietetics and Culinary Management.

By far the greatest number of employment opportunities for college men and women will be found in the two fields, "Prison Administration" and "Classification and Parole". All employment in the federal service, including the prison service, is under control of the United States Civil Service Commission. The courses of study suggested by the Prison Bureau are designed to help qualify in a more satisfactory manner those interested in placement to this field of work.

Students who may be interested in this type of work as a possible career are urged to consult the following for further details: George B. Vold, Professor of Sociology, Jones Hall 105; Lloyd M. Short, Director Public Administration Training Center, Room 13, University Library.

Admissions, Registration, etc. NOTICE TO FACULTY AND EMPLOYEES Cards for the new Address Book has been sent to all department offices where they may be secured by members of the staff. These should be filled out and turned in at the Office of Admissions and Records before noon, Tuesday, October 3. Unless the cards are received at that time, for information cannot be included in the address book.

Any members of the administrative, instructional, clerical, service enterprise or physical plant staff who has not filled out and mailed the director card should do so at once. If a card cannot be secured, the following memoranda may be sent to this office: 1. Name in full. 2. College and Department. 3. Position or rank. 4. Office on the Campus (building and room number). 5. Minneapolis or St. Paul address. 6. Zone number. 7. Telephone number. 8. Married or single. 9. New or old appointment.

This office assumes no responsibility for information submitted over the telephone.

STUDENT SECTION Cards will be found in all post office boxes this morning. Kindly fill these out and drop in boxes in post office provided for this purpose. Please print cards as plainly as possible to insure having your name appear correctly in the address book. All cards must be turned in by noon, Saturday, October 7.

Students registered in the College of Agriculture, Forestry and Home Economics will find their cards in their post office boxes at the Farm. These should be turned in at the Farm Post Office.

Old War Horse Old Tom, a cavalry mount who served with the Marines in Cuba during the Spanish-American war, was retired and lived to the ripe old age of 41 years, three months and ten days.

NOTICE TO ALL DEPARTMENTS Please report any change in office numbers to the Office of Admissions and Records. This information must be received before noon, Tuesday, October 3 to be included in the alphabetical list by departments section of the address book.

NOTICE TO ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL FRATERNITIES, SORORITIES AND RECOGNIZED CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS. Provisions will be made in the Address Book for including the following information provided it is turned in to the Dean of Students before noon, October 3. No information will be included unless the group in question turn in the following:

For academic fraternities and sororities the name of the organization, the address, and the telephone number. For professional fraternities and sororities—the name of the organization, the college or department that the fraternity represents, the address and telephone number of the house, or (if there is not a house, the president or secretary of the organization).

For campus organizations—the name and telephone number of the secretary or president, or the organization house, any instructor or advisor.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS Each student is individually responsible for assuring himself that the proper fees for the quarter have been paid by the time specified. The only evidence of payment is the fee receipt on which the Bursar's office has stamped the fee receipt number, the amount paid, and the date of payment.

If fees were paid by mail, this fee receipt will be found in the student's post office box. No student will receive credit for work in a course until his fees have been paid. Delayed payment involves an additional fee amounting to $2.00 through the third day of classes; on the fourth day the fee is $2.50 and then increases $5.00 per day to a maximum of $5.

Each student should retain his fee receipt for presentation at the request of the NOTICE TO INSTRUCTORS Attention of instructors is called to the regulation of the Board of Regents which prohibits the admission of "habitual visitors" to classes. Regular registered auditors may be admitted with the approval of the instructor and the Dean of the School or College concerned. Auditors are required to pay the same fees as students registered for credit.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO GRADUATE STUDENTS AND TO TEACHERS IN SERVICE The regular schedule of late fees as provided for undergraduate students has been approved to apply to graduate students and to teachers in service who delay registration or payment of fees beyond the close of the graduate school registration period.

Registration and payment of fees for the graduate school and for teachers in service will close at the end of the second week of the quarter which, for fall 1944, will be Saturday, October 14. The fee for the privilege of late registration or late payment of fees will be $2 on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, October 16, 17 and 18. On October 19 the late fee will be $2.50 and then increases 50 cents for each additional day of delay to a maximum of $5.

Leona Nelson, Acting Recorder.

U.S. Education System Made War Progress Possible—Thye

"America's great progress in the last three years has been made possible largely because our youth has been given the best education available in the world," said Gov. Edward J. Thye at the first Forum meeting of the year yesterday.

Speaking before an audience of students, servicemen and faculty, Governor Thye listed several post-war problems which must be solved by educated men and women.

He cited, particularly, the need for a process which will enable Minnesota's iron mines to utilize low grade ore. Experts say that the supply of high-grade ore, the only kind now used in industry, will be exhausted in a few years, and Minnesota will be robbed of a large portion of its industry and business.

"The research laboratory is the frontier of tomorrow," Governor Thye stated, urging a scientific solution of the problem. "It is in this way that students can best further the progress of this nation."

When asked about the merits of a liberal arts education, the governor said that, in his opinion, training in any subject helps make an intelligent citizen who can help think through the problems which face the state and nation.

Agricultural production, another of Minnesota's important industries, was also discussed by Governor Thye yesterday. "A substitute for curtailment of crops, practiced during the depression, must be also found."

"The United States must be in full production to pay even the current interest on its natural debt, therefore, we cannot permit curtailment of production in agriculture or any industry," he said.

In conclusion, Governor Thye outlined the state's efforts to provide full employment after the war. The immediate problem is to assist business and industry when war contracts are cancelled. Programs of highway construction and public works are now being carefully worked out by planning committees in St. Paul.

"This state has set aside 74 million dollars to be used in construction programs in the three years following the war," he said.

Men must not feel that they are being doled out a living. Rather, they must feel that they are accomplishing something worthwhile in the service of their country," he said, emphasizing the need for permanent job possibilities.

Coordinator's Institute To Open Here Monday

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday a coordinator's institute will be held in the Center for Continuation Study.

The coordinators who will attend this institute deal essentially with the problems of young workers who spend one-half of their time in school and the other half in employment. It is the purpose of this institute to strengthen the work of these coordinators by presenting them with information gained by persons with broader backgrounds.

There will be 11 periods which will include formal presentations and discussion periods. Notes will be taken for use in connection with high school classwork.

At 9 a.m. Monday an orientation session will be held. A discussion of current state employment regulations will start at 1 p.m.; and, starting at 2:30 p.m., the federal regulations will be presented.

Starting at 9 a.m. Tuesday, employer and employee relationships are to be discussed by Harry E. Leonard, assistant business manager of the electrical workers union, and Ray Hibbs, personnel director of the North Star Woolen Mills company. Beginning at 1 p.m., a period will be devoted to the topic of informing youth about insurance, banking and investments.

At 9 a.m. Wednesday morning the problem of informing youth about the various types of taxes and purchasing are to be presented by government employees who are working in the various offices of taxation. Nutrition, health and safety for young workers will be discussed at 1 p.m. and the last discussion at 2:30 will concern the relationship of tests and data to young workers.

Sorority Rush Meeting Today in Union Ballroom

Sorority rushing will begin with a compulsory meeting for all rushees at 1 p.m. today in the Union ballroom. Rushees will be given identification badges and will receive instructions on rushing rules and rushing procedure.

Rushees will be divided into alphabetical groups to attend the open house teas on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The Saturday and Monday teas will be from 5 to 8 p.m. and the Sunday tea will be from 2 to 5 p.m.

Pianissimo! Symphony Opens Season

Pianists will be in the majority on the list of guest artists appearing with the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra this year. In the course of the season, Twin Cities audiences will also hear three violinists and two singers.

The first artist of the season, Witold Malcuzyński, was the last pupil of Paderewski and will play the second piano concerto in F minor by Chopin.

Among other pianists who will appear with the symphony this year are Robert Casadesu, Rudolf Serkin and Artur Schnabel. When William Kapell makes his local debut in January, he will present the first Minneapolis performance of a new piano concerto by Khachaturian, an outstanding contemporary composer.

Fritz Kreisler will present two concerts, both with the orchestra, on November 10 and 11. Jascha Heifetz, who is scheduled for a program here in January, will also appear as guest artist with the orchestra in its annual program at the Chicago Civic opera house two days later. Nathan Milstein, long popular with Twin Cities audiences, will be heard in concert in March.

Dusolini Giannini, soprano, and Ezio Pinza, basso, will give programs with the symphony in November and March respectively.

In December, Dimitri Mitropoulos, conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony, will direct the Boston Symphony orchestra for two weeks and the Rochester Philharmonic for one week. During his absence, two guest conductors, Antal Dorati and Arthur Fiedler, will conduct the Minneapolis Symphony.

Season tickets are on sale daily at the Symphony ticket office, the downtown ticket office in the Northwestern Bank building and the Field-Schlick ticket office in St. Paul. Prices range from $18 to $43.20 including tax.

Music Listening Hour

The first Music listening hour of the year will take place from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Terrace room of the Union.

At these listening hours, which will be held every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, students may request the records they wish to hear.

Joanadelle Johnson, graduate student, will have charge and will give the commentary on the records.

Packed Schedule Of Events Ahead For WAA Board

The WAA board has planned a full schedule of events for the coming year. Ninth hour each day has been set for activity hour, and the swimming pool in Norris gym will be open each day at that hour.

Volleyball teams will be formed by sororities and independents, WAA officials stated. The independents include the co-ops, the dormitories, general hospital and the physical education majors. Winners of each group will play a final championship game.

Badminton and field hockey will also be started this quarter, it was announced.

Tryouts for Pegasus, the riding group, Orchesis and Junior Orchesis, modern dance clubs, and the Aquatic league will be held during the first two weeks of the quarter.

WAA membership cards will be on sale in the equipment room in Norris gym.

Saturday Lunch Club To Hear Gallagher, Gale

Congressman Richard P. Gale from the Fifth district and William J. Gallagher, Democratic nominee for congress from the third district will speak on "Campaign Issues" at a meeting of the Saturday Lunch club at 12:15 p.m. today.

The meeting will be held in the City room of Miller's cafeteria.

-Even though he has been kept out of the starting lineup because of a bad elbow, Ken Hollins, shown above, ace Husker fullback, will probably see plenty of action before today's Cornhusker-Minnesota contest is over. Hollins is one of the four 4-Fs and four returning vets on the Nebraska squad.

Smith Will Announce I-M Fall Slate Soon

The usual array of fall intramural sports will be soon forthcoming, according to an announcement made today by W. R. Smith, intramural director. The program will include both student and faculty bowling, touchball, and tennis and golf for students who want to participate in either of these sports.

A meeting of professional fraternity members will be called in the near future to determine the sports in which they may take part.

Student's Tickets Go Off Sale Tuesday

Sale of student activity tickets will close Tuesday. The tickets, priced at $8 and entitling the holder to attend all regularly scheduled intercollegiate contests during the 1944-5 school year, can be sold to regularly enrolled students only.

Lay Odds on Gophers Over Huskers

Local and national sports writers vociferously and unanimously elected the Gopher eleven the most likely winner when the Cornhusker and the Gopher teams once again engage in their annual battle for football supremacy. Here is what some of them say about today's game:

Starting with one of the local experts, Charles Johnson, sports editor of the Star-Journal, "...there is no reason why even signs of over-confidence in the Gophers should keep them from bowling over Nebraska today..."

Dick Cullum, sports editor of the Minneapolis Daily Times, cautiously gives up with this: "Normal improvements, nothing more, is what you may expect from your Gophers..."

today; but normal improvement should be enough."

Moving to the St. Paul guessers, Ronald McIntyre, of the St. Paul Dispatch, writes: "Minnesota rules almost a 2-1 favorite to defeat Nebraska's teen-age Cornhuskers... and Dr. Hauser's charges ought to win without much trouble..."

Glancing at guesses from a few of the national prognosticators, we find Orlo Robertson, Associated Press writer, saying: "On the basis of the Gophers' fine showing last week against Iowa Preflight we'll take Minnesota."

Darby Hicks, Denver's professional guesser, plunges with: "Your Gophers won't have any trouble with Nebraska today. They are sure to win..."

YE OLDE BARBER'S MUG
Now Resides at Union

The scissors-men of the Minnesota campus, long known as indisputable authorities on Minnesota football outcomes, have begun again their rivalry for the Little Gold Mug.

The Mug, prized and honored possession of the Union barber shop since the final game of last season, is presented to the campus barber shop with the closest predictions of scores as determined by the weekly Barbers' Poll, carried on by The Daily.

An annual affair, the presence of Minnesota's Little Gold Mug in a shop is the height of tonsorial success.

Nine shops and 18 barbers participated in this week's poll with scores running from a Minnesota victory of 35-7 to a 21-7 disaster for the Golden Horde.

Beside the picture above are the prospective predictions of the campus barbers on today's Minnesota-Nebraska game.

Beise Named Replacement For Dr. Piper

Sheldon Beise, navy physical training instructor, has been chosen to supervise physical education activities for army, navy and civilian students in the place of Dr. Ralph A. Piper who left the University to accept a commission in the army.

Dr. Piper left September 3 to enter the Physical Reconditioning branch under the office of the Surgeon General at Lexington, Va., where he will take training at Washington and Lee university.

"Mr. Beise," stated Lou Keller, acting director of physical education, "will take over the physical education activity program for army, navy and civilian students and will assist in advising the men who are majoring in physical education."

"Some of the classes in the theoretical study of physical education, of which Dr. Piper was a professor, will probably be discontinued this year because of lack of student interest," Keller added.

Beise

Dr. Piper came to the University of Minnesota 15 years ago from Kansas State, Manhattan, Kan., where he taught swimming and gymnastics. Last year he was supervisor of physical education for army, navy and civilian students, coached the gym team, and was vice-president of the National Safety Educational association.

Grid Managers Wanted

Student managers for the Gopher football team are urgently needed. All men students on campus interested should get in touch with Russ Christianson by reporting to him on Northrop practice field, behind Cooke hall, between 4 and 6 p.m. Monday through Friday.

University Notes 75th Anniversary

The University celebrates another birthday every fall, and this year's birthday is special—the school is 75 years old.

To celebrate the anniversary of one of the nation's largest educational institutions, WCCO broadcast a "Salute to Minnesota" on September 13. The radio script was written for the program by Phil Gelb, Arts unclassified. The broadcast was carried over the air waves just 35 hours and 40 minutes from the time that the first class met 75 years ago on the University campus in an old barn-like building.

The program was the dramatization of significant phases of the history of the University and comments by President Walter C. Coffey about the post-war plans of the school.

Strawn Will Play for Annual Freshman Dance

Bud Strawn and his orchestra will play for the annual Freshman dance from 9 p.m. to midnight today in the Union ballroom.

Intermission entertainment will be provided by a "jam" session given by several members of the band. Oleene Bolstad, Ag junior, is in charge of the dance committee.

Tickets are 74 cents if purchased in advance. The price is 85 cents at the door.

Huskers...

(Buzz) Hollins, fullback, has been on the sidelines in recent practices with a sore elbow, but will probably play today.

"None of the boys is laid up," Lewandowski said yesterday when his squad was warming up at Memorial Stadium. "We have just the usual assortment of lumps and bruises."

With the exception of right guard, Hazard, who is 22 years old, and 18-year-old Jack Dedrick, the starting linemen are all 17 years old. In the backfield, Betz and Junior Callopy are similar gridiron youngsters. And just two men on the starting eleven have been up against tough competition before.

But the Cornhuskers are intending to make a game of it.

I-M Referees Needed

The hurry call for intramural referees for touch football games went out today from W. R. Smith's I-M office, 203 Cooke hall. All men students on campus interested in refereeing games should see Smith in his office or reach him by telephone. The I-M schedule has not been set up yet, but when the teams are ready, a salary of $1 will be paid for each referee working a game.

Ski-U-Mah Out Monday; To Feature Pin-up Girl

Strictly freshman will be the first issue of Ski-U-Mah, scheduled to appear on the stands Monday.

This issue of Ski-U-Mah is packed with humor and new gags. A luscious pin-up girl will be the special feature for the servicemen on the campus.

Salesmen selling yearly subscriptions are covering the campus at the present time.
