DULUTH--UMD winter quarter registration for new students and former students not currently in attendance is scheduled Friday morning, Dec. 29 in Kirby Ballroom.

Currently enrolled students who failed to complete advisement Nov. 13-17 also will be able to register Dec. 29.

New applicants who have filed credentials with the Office of Admissions and Records will receive admission certificates indicating times for entrance testing, orientation and registration.

New freshmen applicants who have not previously taken the American College Test may do so at 8 <sup>A.</sup>p.m. Thursday, Dec. 28 in Room 200, Science auditorium. Other required entrance examinations will be given to freshmen and transfer students the afternoon of Dec. 28.

Students who plan to attend UMD during the winter quarter but have not yet filed applications and credentials are asked to do so immediately.

Former students who plan to return to UMD are requested to notify the Office of Admissions and Records so that registration permits may be mailed to them.
