VESPER SERVICE

Will be Held in Chapel at 3:30 Sunday—Mrs. Maud Ulmer Jones Will Sing

The Vesper Service, which was postponed from last Sunday until next, will be all the better for the delay, as the committee has had more time to perfect the arrangements. They are able to announce Mrs. Maud Ulmer Jones as the soloist, which fact alone will guarantee a delightful hour. The University chorus, under the direction of Mr. Norrington, will furnish several numbers, and it is expected that Mr. Crosby Hopps, who delighted a University audience last year, will again be heard in one or two solos. The DAILY will soon publish a full program of the service. The students and faculty and the public generally will be invited.

DENTS WIN

The Dents defeated the Engineers yesterday in a close game. The score of 6 to 4 shows that the Dents didn't enjoy a walk-away. Great commendation is due to Chief Osceola and his braves for their pluck. Even though the Engineers have been playing a losing game during the entire season, they have met every opponent and given them a good clean game of ball. They did not pull out of the series when they found that they could not win the championship over the inter-department teams, but pluckily played out their schedule. They have the satisfaction of knowing that even though they lost they have the admiration of their opponents for their pluck and the respect of all for their gentlemanly conduct.

Before the game an affair took place which should if possible be avoided. Through some previous arrangement two high school teams were on the ground playing a game and refused to leave when it was time to begin the Dent-Engineer game. Now, as these department games have been on the schedule for some time and are between teams of University students, they should have the first rights to the ground. It is not in place to criticise, but the suggestion is made that the management be more careful as to the disposition of the grounds, so as to avoid all trouble in the future.

PHILOLOGICAL SOCIETY

Meeting Monday evening with Prof. and Mrs. Pike.

Dr. Victor Nilsson read a paper on "August Strindberg, the Swedish Prometheus;" and Prof. Liberman presented one on "Symmetry and its Symbolism in Dante." The society passed a motion of thanks to Prof. and Mrs. Pike for their pleasant entertainment this year. Officers were elected for next year: Dr. J. E. Granrud, president; Prof. Schlenker, vice-president; Mrs. Frances B. Potter, secretary; Prof. Klæbær, treasurer; Mr. C. A. Savage, member of executive committee.

THE HERMEAN BANQUET

The Hermean Literary Society closed its work for the year Monday evening at its second annual banquet, held at the Guaranty Loan restaurant. Covers were laid for 35. Prominent alumni were present. Informal toasts were responded to, Homer Reed, the president, acting as toastmaster.

Prof. J. C. Hutchinson, a charter member of the society when it was organized in 1872, gave an interesting talk upon the old days when the society was a "co-ed." organization. Evidently from the professor's remarks, he was exceedingly attentive to the fair "co-ed." in his student days, riverside promenades being the order of the day then as now.

Prof. West in his usual pleasing manner related anecdotes of the old society, recalling among other things the mock impeachment of John Goodnow, who was then a member of the society.

Dr. Hoag followed with interesting remarks upon the work of the society in the years 1878-1882, when the meetings were held in the room now used by Prof. Leavenworth. At that time the Delta Sigma was the only other society in the University.

E. P. Sanford spoke of the "co-ed." describing the same as a most important department of the University because of the valuable instruction given on the subject of river-bank promenading.

Chas. Schunert spoke upon the subject of "The Society Re-organized in 1898."

Greetings were received from F. Alex. Stewart, now serving in the capacity of vice-consul at the U. S. Consulate in Nagasaki, Japan.

Maxwell McConnell and C. E. Austin were elected as debaters to be the society representatives in the Federal Society. Max Buell was elected orator.

IOWA RECORDS

Iowa expects to win from Minnesota Friday in the dual meet. At the home meet in Iowa City Saturday some excellent records were made, for home records were broken and one state record equalled. The 120-yard hurdle was made in 17 seconds, the 220-yard hurdle in 27 1-5, the mile run in 4:52 1-5, and in the shot put Warner made a record of 38 feet 10 inches. There has been a feeling that the Hawkeyes would not prove very difficult since Drake University defeated them two weeks ago, but Drake made many of their points by taking second and third places in events in which Iowa won first. As first place only counts in the meet Friday it will give Iowa a much better chance. The Minnesota team is training hard and the meet promises to be a close and exciting contest.

The Badger and Michiganensian, the annuals of the Universities of Wisconsin and Michigan respectively, have appeared after the usual impatient waiting on the part of the students of this institution.

THE WILSON PRIZE STORY CONTEST

Last fall Mr. Wilson offered a prize of one hundred dollars to be divided among the writers of the four stories of highest merit contributed to the Minnesota Magazine. Under this stimulus 37 stories have been handed in and on the merit of the best ones the winners will be picked. The decision will be made this week, the judges being Dr. Burton, Mrs. Potter, and probably Mr. Flandreau, of St. Paul. Though the stories will thus be judged this week the announcement of the outcome of the contest will not be made until Commencement Day.

WOMAN'S LEAGUE

A business meeting of the Woman's League will be held in chapel Saturday, May 18th, at the close of the 4th hour, for the purpose of electing a vice-president in place of Maud Freeman, a secretary, in place of Ellen Lamoreaux, and of transacting such other business as may come up at the last business meeting of the year. All the members of the League should be present.

University Advertising

It is a practice with nearly every student-enterprise in the University to solicit advertising for some purpose or another. The consequence is that from the middle of August until the following June the business men of the Twin Cities—Minneapolis principally—are solicited continually for advertising. Many business firms find this such a constant source of trouble that they refuse to advertise at all. Others advertise, but do it grudgingly. Still others who are trying to satisfy all comers for this business, ruefully look at their "University Advertising" account at the end of the year and wonder—how many students there are in the University.

To be just to both the business firms and those student-enterprises which must depend upon advertising and which at the same time furnish an excellent medium for advertising, a great deal of the advertising should not be solicited. It is perfectly legitimate for publications like the DAILY, the Magazine and the Gopher to solicit business men for advertising because advertising in this way does pay, but such advertising programs for this and that thing is just as certain illegitimate advertising. To put the matter concretely, the DAILY is established and edited as the champion of all student-enterprises. It depends very largely for support upon advertising.

When an athletic event like a track meet, or a social affair like the Junior Ball or Senior promenade takes place, the DAILY works with the managers to make it a success.

The DAILY never fails to give generously its space to push such affairs. If one of those enterprises, in order to increase its profits a few dollars, then gets out a program nine-tenths of which is advertising, thus taking just about so much advertising from the DAILY, it is perfectly just and equitable to characterize such advertising as illegitimate. Illegitimate because it directly hurts its benefactor, makes business men look with disfavor upon University advertising in general, and by charging them a big price for space on a few hundred programs makes business firms feel they are imposed upon.

By all means those students who are entrusted with the management of various University enterprises should as a simple business proposition refrain from injuring their own publications by soliciting advertising that is illegitimate.

The Gopher Board

Few realize while they are hastily glancing through the pages of the Gopher the vast amount of work done by the members of the board, nor do they appreciate the efforts which have been put forth by the board to make the Junior Annual for the '02 class a production second to none of its kind.

From the time of their election the work of the members of the Board began. Plans for the work to be carried out necessarily demanded numerous conferences and meetings, and in the meantime each individual member was beginning his own work. Some of the editors even spent a good part of their summer vacation in writing. When the University year opened again in September their work began in earnest. The editors were at times nearly overwhelmed with contributions and in order to select the best of these they labored long and well. The artists, too, have been almost continuously at work with the vast amount of drawings which had to be completed.

Undoubtedly the greatest amount of work, however, was actually done by the editor-in-chief, the business managers and the managing editor, for upon them rested the responsibility of the production, both in a literary and financial way.

Remember, in conclusion that this Board, like those of the past, has served without any pay whatever, remember that the members have sacrificed valuable time and many alluring pleasures all for the highest success of the '02 Gopher, and then let your feeling of gratitude toward them be measured by the good work they have done, and the sacrifice they have made.

TRADE UNIONS

Rev. David Morgan, of St. Paul, delivered a very interesting lecture before the class in Modern Industrialism yesterday morning on "Trade Unions." Mr. Morgan was born and reared under the direct influence of the factory system while in its very worst condition, and hence he spoke with the intensity which comes only from long experience. Tomorrow Prof. M. W. Hayes of the Agricultural School, will speak on the question of the "Farmer and the Labor Question."
