DEAN SHENEHON DISCUSSES THE JUDICIAL ENGINEER

Engineers' Society Hears Addresses and Holds Business Session—
"Get-Together Nov. 17."

"Engineers and the Law," was the subject of the address given by Dean Shenehon before the Engineers' Society yesterday noon. "There are three usual conceptions of the Engineers," said the Dean, "those of him as surveyor, drawer of plans, and builder. There is another conception of the Engineer, however, which I term the 'judicial Engineer.'"

It was on the judicial engineer that the dean based his talk, drawing largely on personal experience.

After the dean's address there was a short business session at which it was decided to continue to hold the meetings of the Society at noon, this being the most convenient time since there are no classes in the Engineering College at this hour.

Lester Knapp, of the program committee, announced an informal "get together" to be held at the "Y," Friday, the 17th. A musical program and small feed will be given. All members of the Engineers' Society are urged to be present.

The president announced the following committees: Program, Lester H. Knapp, C. H. Benham, E. C. Crane, C. A. Pardee, M. E. Souther, W. A. South, A. T. Dinsmoor; auditing, Horn, Hoveden, L. Purves; membership, B. Peterson, Mikesh, Thurmas.

There were nearly one hundred men present at this meeting.

CHORUS TO PRODUCE OPERA

De Koven's "Robin Hood" Will Appear Next Spring—Prof. Scott Is Optimistic.

The University mixed chorus has decided to put on De Koven's "Robin Hood" next spring. This is one of De Koven's best light operas. It is in three acts and has ten leading parts, six for men and four for women, with very prominent chorus parts.

Mr. Carlyle Scott, the director, said at rehearsal yesterday, "Of course to put on this opera will mean a lot of work, but there is no reason, with the voices we have, why we cannot play it to perfection. We will have to work all winter, but we ought to have it in shape by the first of May."

BIB AND TUCKER SPREAD

The first Bib and Tucker spread was given Wednesday night in Shevlin. The decorations, place cards and napkins were all of childish design. The "stunt" of the evening was the clever little farce, "The Modern and Medieval Ballad of Mary Jane," presented, in pantomime, by three upper class girls. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. About one hundred and twenty freshman girls were present.

According to statistics compiled by the Yale News, there are only nineteen colleges in the country which issue daily papers.

STUDENTS' WORK COMMITTEE CAN'T REACH CAST OF OPERA

All Men Who Tried Out Are Eligible—First Rehearsals Held Yesterday In Armory.

"The question of eligibility will not hinder the production of the 'Girl in the Moon' as it did last year. All the men who have tried out, and they include the best voices in college, are beyond the reach of the Student's Work Committee," says Manager Tom Crocker. The first rehearsal was held last night in the Armory and the chorus worked on the two favorite songs, "I Want to be a College Hero," and "Those Beautiful German Songs."

So keen has been the competition for the leading roles that the coaches have not yet decided how to cast them. However, it is expected that they will make their decisions soon in order that the routine of rehearsing can commence without delay.

DAIRY COURSE TO OPEN

Twentieth Session of the Winter Dairy School Will Open On November 13th.

About one hundred students from all parts of the state are expected to take advantage of the annual winter session of the Dairy school which will open November 13th in connection with the Agricultural college of the University. Instructors in the training dairy and inspectors from the State Dairy and Food departments will examine creameries and report on their condition with a view of bettering them in a sanitary way.

The winter session of the dairy school has become an important factor in the work of the Agricultural College and Professor Haecker, head of the department of animal husbandry, said yesterday that practically all of the two thousand butter and cheese makers of the state have received training from the school, which has already held twenty sessions, with an average attendance of one hundred students.

Professor Haecker will have charge of the dairy school and he will be ably assisted by James Sorenson, manager of the state dairy at Albert Lea, and H. L. Russel of the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment station. The course of study is divided into seven sections, including lectures, practical work in butter and cheese manufacture and even going into the practical work of factory bookkeeping.

CRACK SQUAD WILL GIVE AN INFORMAL PARTY

The first Crack Squad informal of the year will be given in the Armory Wednesday evening, November 22. The members of the squad have sent out invitations to many of their college friends. Between the numbers of the dance the squad will give short drill exhibitions which they have been practicing faithfully since college opened. Mrs. E. L. Butts will chaperone the party.

SMITH IS SECRETARY OF JUNIOR BALL ASSOCIATION

Other Offices Are Filled By Candidates Without Opposition—Balloting Light.

Officers for the Junior Ball Association were elected yesterday. Waldorf Ganssle, president; David West, vice president, and John Jenswold, treasurer, were elected without any opposition. Lee Smith won over Herbert Turnquist for secretary by a large majority.

In spite of the fact that all junior men were allowed to vote this year, the ballot was much lighter than in previous years, because of the absence of competition, except for the office of secretary. The Junior Ball will be held earlier this year than it has been in past years, and President Ganssle says, "The Junior Ball, this year, will be one which will long endure in the annals of University society as the greatest social function ever held at this institution."

Y. W. ISSUES TOPIC CARDS

Subjects of Weekly Meeting Are Announced—Dr. Wilde Praises the Series.

Today every University girl will find in her postoffice box a topic card of the Y. W. C. A. in the form of a book mark. The topics are the subjects for the weekly meetings, which come at 12 o'clock Thursdays. They are grouped under four large divisions, viz.: Christianity Applied, Religion and Higher Education, Christian Fundamentals, and Foreign Missions.

After seeing the list, Dr. Wilde said: "The series are well planned, including, as it does, talks on both the outer and inner aspects of religion. The sections which I should call especial attention to are those on Religion and Higher Education, and Christian Fundamentals; not that the others lack importance, but that the main need today is a clear understanding of the nature of the religious life itself, rather than of its external activities. Simple, direct talks on the realities of religious experience ought to be of great value. I am very glad to see such a series given."

Prof. Swenson gave the first talk in the Religion and Higher Education series, yesterday.

Strong speakers have been secured and it is the aim of the association to make every meeting of practical help to the University girl. Caroline Everts is chairman of the committee which has planned the program.

ARTISTS' LEAGUE EXHIBIT

The Minneapolis Artists' League Exhibition opens this evening at the Public Library Building and will last until Nov. 26th. Miss Clopath, head of the University Art Department, is a member of the society and exhibits four pictures, "The Bridge," "Mosque on the Bosphorus," "The Mill Pond," "The Old Mill."

Massachusetts "Tech" has abolished hazing after a two years' fight.

SCHAPER SCORES CHARTER BEFORE CITY COMMISSION

Judge Daniel Fish Calls Dr. Schaper's Address Scholarly, Convincing and Forceful.

Dr. W. A. Schaper, in an address before the first meeting of the Minneapolis Charter Commission held Monday evening at the Court House, scored special acts charters and explained and upheld the home rule charters. He explained that the special act charters failed because they prevented publicity, promoted "log rolling" in the legislature, and would give the Hennepin delegation the powers of a charter commission. "Besides," said Dr. Schaper, "the special act charter has failed for one hundred and twenty-seven years, which ought to be enough to prove its inefficiency." The Minneapolis charter is a special act charter, hence, Dr. Schaper's remarks created a great deal of interest.

The audience and commission received Dr. Schaper's talk most enthusiastically. Judge Daniel Fish, city attorney of Minneapolis, commented upon Dr. Schaper's article as a "scholarly, convincing and forceful piece of work, which should be in the hands of every citizen." Therefore, Judge Fish moved "that the article be published in the newspapers of the city so that every citizen might have access to a copy." The motion, however, was laid on the table because of the strong probability that the newspapers would publish it voluntarily and if they did not, the commission decided to have it published in pamphlet form.

EXTRA WORK FOR FRESHMEN

"Murderers of the King's English" Are Enrolling In Y. M. C. A. Rhetoric Courses.

Following a precedent, first established last year, the Rhetoric department has ordered certain of the "Trash" to take at least three hours a week outside of school. The purpose of this radical procedure is to make up for deficiencies which have cropped out in the six weeks' process of "the survival of the fittest."

The aforementioned "murderers of the King's English," from 10 to 60 in number, are to be seen daily "beating it" over to the Y. M. C. A. building to enroll in the course given there. This course is conducted by Miss Etta Lenhart, a graduate of Minnesota, and now an assistant in the Rhetoric department. A nominal fee is charged for this and all make-up courses given by the Y. M. C. A.

JUNIOR CHEMISTS ELECT.

At a meeting of the junior chemists yesterday, the following officers were elected: President, Victor Ingve; vice president, Herbert Kom; secretary, Henry Peterson; treasurer, R. H. Miller. A committee composed of Broderick, Neitz and O'Connell was appointed to prepare the chemists feature page of the Gopher. It was decided to hold a banquet at some date in the near future.

selves to enforce their agreement on the few dissenters. It would be folly to attempt the step of introducing the system unless the student body is willing to take the responsibility in the matter and stand together. It would be a great step in advance of our present state if we could all trust each other, if we could each throw off the silly sanction with which we are wont to cover our dishonest practices and get rid of the false pride we might feel in the matter of enforcing the measures on the recalcitrant members of the university community.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MRS PANKHURST TO SPEAK.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the leader of the English suffragettes will speak at the Minneapolis Auditorium next Saturday, November 11. Mrs. Pankhurst is on her second American-Canadian lecture tour, and her lectures relate to the suffrage movement in England. The subject of her address for Saturday evening has not yet been announced.

MISS BUTLER WILL LECTURE ON WILD FLOWERS OF STATE

Miss Butler will give two Botany lectures in the Botany lecture room of Pillsbury Hall at 3 o'clock Tuesday and Friday. Having charge of the wild flower garden at Glenwood Park, she will base her talk upon the wild flowers of Minnesota, aided by lantern slides. All the students of the five high schools of the city have been requested to be present.

MINNESOTA SECTION OF CHEMICAL SOCIETY

The next meeting of the section will be held in the Chemical Laboratory of the University of Minnesota, Friday evening, November 17, 1911, at 8 P. M. This is the Annual Meeting, at which officers are to be elected. Program: "A Reaction of Alkyl Iodides on Some Phenol Silver Salts"—W. H. Hunter. "Modern Methods of Color Photography." (Illustrated by lantern slides.)—A. H. Nietz. All who are interested are invited.

NICHOLSON AND CRAIG GO ON HUNTING TRIP

After a strenuous fall spent in looking over the marks of freshmen and warning members of the sophomore, junior and senior classes, Mr. Nicholson, accompanied Mr. Craig on a search for "feathered boys." Last Friday Mr. Nicholson and Mr. Craig went to Luverne, and taking a machine, started out into the country, but the luck of the day was of the time coaxing the car. Nevertheless, Saturday repaid them, for as a result of their good marksmanship, they brought down forty ducks.

SIX HUNDRED INVITATIONS OUT FOR SUNLIGHT DANCE

All those who intend to go to the Sunlight Dance will receive green and white bows at Shevlin upon presentation of their receipts for dues. There are six hundred invitations out and the two most popular men will be there. Today will be the last opportunity to obtain these bows which will serve as admission to the dance, and only those who have paid their Woman's League dues are expected to go. Middy blouses will be the dress for the occasion.

AGGIE FRESHMEN INITIATED

Forty-five Aggie freshmen were initiated Wednesday evening. Professor Bull presided as toastmaster at the banquet given in their honor later in the evening. Representatives from each class responded to various toasts. The affair closed with an address by Dean Woods.

A chair of spiritualism has been founded at Stanford. Mr. Thomas Welton Stanford, of Melbourne, Australia, has endowed this professorship by a $50,000 gift.

Freshmen at Wisconsin are required to run to their classes with their hats in their hands.

Varsity Athletics

REGULARS GIVEN LONG SCRIMMAGE PRACTICE

Four Teams Given Workout On Northrop Field—No Evidence of Going Stale.

Another long period of scrimmage was given the Varsity yesterday afternoon, four teams being in action during the major part of the session. Johnny McGovern and Lyle Johnson withdrew to the baseball diamond in the rear of the north stand, where a hot battle was staged between the reserves and the much-depleted freshmen eleven. This is the second day of scrimmage for the reserves this week and it is evident that Dr. Williams plans on replacing some of his first team stars before the Badger contest is over.

All the talk about the team on the verge of going stale has been laughed at by the coaches and they expect every one of the regulars to be even better than they were in the Chicago contest when they leave for the invasion of Cardinal territory.

Three things are assured: There will be a strong team at Randall field to show Wisconsin supporters the afternoon of the 18th; there will be a Minnesota band that will overshadow all other musicians in evidence; and there will be more than 200 students. How many more is, as yet, a matter on conjecture, but efforts are being made to interest every available Maroon and Gold rooster.

The railroads have refused to consider the granting of any more privileges than the $1.50 reduction on the berths, so that it remains with the student body to invent other methods of frauding or persuading the kings of finance.

Coach Richards is a dangerous man and knows a lot about the game, so that the hardest kind of a fight may be looked for. The little town of Madison will be jammed to the doors with enthusiastic Cardinal alumni and a large delegation of loyal Minnesota rooters will be on hand to cheer their team.
