VII. Commencement Address

John E. "Jack" Coons

John E. "Jack" Coons, a 1950 UMD graduate, is a recognized national leader in the area of equalized funding in K-12 education. Coons graduated in 1953 from Northwestern University Law School. From 1953 to 1955, he was a trial attorney for the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals at the Pentagon (Army). In 1955, he returned to Northwestern University, where he was a professor of law for 12 years. From 1967 until his retirement in 1994, Coons was a professor of law at the University of California, Berkeley. A distinguished scholar, lawyer and author, Jack has published numerous books and articles addressing school choice and has served as a national consultant to leading education associations and institutions. His books include: Freedom & Responsibility in Broadcasting, Making School Choice Work for All Families, and By Nature Equal: The Anatomy of a Western Insight (with P.M. Brennan), which was recently published. His areas of expertise include: law and society, law and education, children and the law. He has served as a national consultant to such organizations as the National Education Association, Office of Economic Opportunity, Ford Foundation, Carnegie Corporation of New York, Institute for Contemporary Studies, National Crime Commission and the N.A.A.C.P. Legal Defense Fund. Coons and his wife, Marylyn, live in Berkeley.

VIII. Presentation of the Degree of Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa

Chancellor Kathryn A. Martin to John E. "Jack" Coons

The honorary degree is the highest award conferred by the University of Minnesota, recognizing individuals who have achieved acknowledged eminence in cultural affairs, in public service, or in a field of knowledge and scholarship.

IX. Presentation of the Degree of Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa

Chancellor Kathryn A. Martin to Beverly Goldfine

Beverly Goldfine is an active community leader and dedicated volunteer in service to the arts, education, and an advocate to those less fortunate. She is a founder of the Duluth-Superior Community Foundation, which has grown to more than $20 million. Her commitment to providing low-income housing in Duluth led to a national award from President Ford. As a long-term Advisory Board member of the UMD Tweed Museum of Art, she served on the board for the planning and addition of the Sax Sculpture Conservatory. Today, her legacy to the students lives on in the UMD Beverly and Erwin Goldfine Scholarship for Academic Excellence. Since the endowed scholarship was established in 1987, more than 100 students have received substantial financial support.

X. Presentation of the Degree of Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa

Chancellor Kathryn A. Martin to Erwin Goldfine

Erwin Goldfine is a Duluth business leader who served as a member of the University of Minnesota Board of Regents from 1975 to 1987. A strong university advocate, he supported UMD's cause throughout his career and helped establish the UMD School of Medicine. He also served several years as a trustee of the University of Minnesota Foundation and received the Distinguished Service Award from the University of Minnesota Waseca, South Central Education Association, in 1986. A native Duluthian and life-long entrepreneur, he served as president of Manley Management Company and vice president of Manley Investment Company. Goldfine Hall, a residence hall on the UMD campus, was named in his honor in 1989. Today, his legacy to the students lives on in the UMD Beverly and Erwin Goldfine Scholarship for Academic Excellence. Since the endowed scholarship was established in 1987, more than 100 students have received substantial financial support.

XI. Recognition of Faculty Awards

Vice Chancellor Vincent R. Magnuson

Albert Tezla Teacher/Scholar Award

Thomas F. Hedin, professor of Art, School of Fine Arts

The Albert Tezla Teacher/Scholar award is given annually to a faculty member of the College of Liberal Arts or the School of Fine Arts in recognition of an exceptional and effective manner of teaching that emphasizes the worth of research and the impact that scholarly activity has on the development of attitudes and values. Professor Thomas Hedin is a very prodigious and consistently excellent researcher in the Department of Art, School of Fine Arts, who is currently examining plans of the gardens at Versailles to reconstruct the allegorical significance of the gardens from an entirely new perspective.

John Tate Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Advising

M. Reza-ul (Raj) Karim, professor of Biology, College of Science and Engineering

The John Tate Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Advising, a University of Minnesota System award, serves to recognize and reward high quality academic advising, and calls attention to the contribution that academic advising makes to helping students formulate and achieve intellectual, career, and personal goals. Professor Raj Karim, one of four winners this year, has an extraordinary ability to detect and cultivate potential in his advisees. He serves as a mentor, invites students to participate in research, encourages students to excel, and makes students feel welcome in his office, laboratory, and classroom.

University of Minnesota Duluth Outstanding Faculty Adviser Awards

Robert Franz, associate professor of Sociology/Anthropology,
College of Liberal Arts

Kang James, associate professor of Mathematics and Statistics,
College of Science and Engineering

John Keener, associate professor of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation,
College of Education and Human Service Professions

John Newstrom, professor of Management Studies,
School of Business and Economics

Stanley Wold, professor of Music,
School of Fine Arts

Newly established this year, the Outstanding Faculty Adviser Award is given to five faculty members who have demonstrated outstanding service to their students.

Robert Franz works with new and returning students, is a strong resource person, and an excellent advisor to sociology and criminology majors. Kang James is an active mentor of many students, establishes relationships with potential employers, and works with students from precollege through graduate school and alumni. John Keener, the principle adviser for undergraduate exercise science majors, is known for his ability to problem solve, and is innovative in his advisement practices, helping students strengthen their preparation for their career paths. John Newstrom is welcoming and knowledgeable, learns about students as individuals, and teaches them to participate in effective advising relationships. Stanley Wold is a very professional and caring adviser, has an excellent knowledge of the various departmental majors, and provides a model of commitment to his work and the music profession.

Sabra S. and Dennis L. Anderson Scholar/Teacher Award

Larry C. Thompson, professor of Chemistry, College of Science and Engineering
The Sabra S. and Dennis L. Anderson Scholar/Teacher Award is given to honor a College of Science and Engineering faculty member of scholarly distinction and teaching excellence who has encouraged undergraduates to undertake meaningful research projects. Professor Larry Thompson has been a pioneer in the scholar/teacher model, involving undergraduates in his scholarly research activities during his entire career at UMD. He has also helped define the international scholar model, collaborating with Brazilian chemists for 30 years. He has made significant contributions to the Department of Chemistry as teacher, scholar, and department head.

McKnight Land-Grant Professorship Award

Elise Ralph, assistant professor of Physics and Large Lakes Observatory, College of Science and Engineering

The major purpose of the McKnight Land-Grant Professorship program is to strengthen University of Minnesota faculty for the future, and is designed to advance the careers of junior faculty members. There is a growing awareness of the significance of large lake ecosystems. Assistant Professor Elise Ralph, one of seven award winners this year, is conducting research to explain the processes that govern the weather within large lakes and around the world. The Keweenaw current, a front in Lake Superior, is the focus of her study. This two-year award includes a research grant as well as an opportunity for a year's leave to pursue scholarly activity.

ACADEMIC COSTUMES

In the medieval city, it was common to see clothing similar to the clothing worn by commencement participants. The modern academic costume has evolved from the dress of the medieval guilds and the early religious orders.

Today, everyone with a college or university degree may wear the black academic gown. Seniors, who are candidates for degrees, receive their hoods during the graduation ceremony. At the University of Minnesota, the lining of the hood has a maroon chevron on a gold background to represent the University colors. A University faculty member who holds a degree from another college or university wears the colors of his/her own school.

Distinctions between sleeves indicate the type of degree held by the wearer. A long pointed sleeve indicates a Bachelor's degree, while a long, closed sleeve with a slit near the upper part of the arm designates a Master's degree. A round, open sleeve marks a Doctor's degree.

The velvet edging on hoods is the color which stands for the field of study of the gown's wearer. It may be white for Arts and Letters, gold-yellow for Science, maize for Home Economics, bright blue for Education. The edging for the Master of Business Administration hood is grey/brown; the Master of Liberal Studies is white, and the Master of Social Work is citron. Dark blue denotes Philosophy; purple, Law; green, Medicine; pink, Music. Commerce and Accounting is shown by copper edging, Engineering by orange, Fine Arts by brown, Physical Education by sage green, and Theology by scarlet.

A Doctor's robe also has velvet trimmings on the rest of the gown, including crossbars on the sleeve. The trimmings may either be black or may match the color of the hood edging. Candidates for degrees wearing medallions are honor students.

Academic caps, or mortar-boards, were named because they are like the top portion of the mortar-board used by a mason. At the University of Paris, teachers placed square, stiff caps on graduates to signify promotion. This type of headgear was adopted later by the masters at Oxford and worn on all occasions to demonstrate their independence. A clue as to why these Oxford faculty members chose the square mortar-board is given in this 1564 poem.

" 'Tis square like scholars and their books:

The rest are round, but this is square/To shew that they more stable are. "

The rules of many institutions permit the holder of a Doctor's degree to wear a gold tassel on the academic cap.

THE MACE

The mace, which is carried by the faculty member leading the academic procession, symbolizes leadership and authority. Use of a mace dates back to the 12th century when it was carried by kings' bodyguards. Even in more modern times, the mace has maintained some of its ancient function of keeping order. The doorkeeper of the House of Representatives has a mace for use in formal House activities.

The mace carried in UMD's commencement procession has a glass sphere topped by the North Star — a symbol of the state of Minnesota. It also has a seal of the University set in the handle.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thru' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thru the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

"HAIL! MINNESOTA"

Minnesota, Hail to thee!
Hail to thee, our College dear!

Thy light shall ever be
A beacon bright and clear;

Thy sons and daughters true
Will proclaim thee near and far;

They will guard thy fame
And adore thy name;

Thou shalt be their Northern Star.

Like the stream that bends to sea,
Like the pine that seeks the blue!

Minnesota, still for thee
Sons and daughters strong and true;

From thy woods and waters fair
From thy prairies waving far,

At thy call they throng
With their shout and song.

Hailing thee their Northern Star.
