BOTANISTS MAKE GREAT PROGRESS

Last Summer's Expedition to Vancouver A Success—Extensive Original Research

The most successful expedition since the establishment of the Biological and geological station at Vancouver, B. C., was that of last year.

More advanced students made the trip, more original research was done; greater results followed.

Four experienced teachers from Minnesota had charge of the work and about thirty students received instruction. The student body was made up mainly of college and high school instructors and advanced students of biology and geology. They came from all the western states and from the Canadian provinces to partake of this instruction which our professors were there to give. This fact speaks volumes for the efficiency of Minnesota's instructors in science and is further evidence of the fact that they are second to none in the country.

Prof. Conway McMillan of the department of botany was in charge of all the work and personally directed the botanical work. He was assisted by Miss Tilden and Mr. Butters, two more of the very able staff of his department.

Prof. Hall had charge of the work in geology and reports much progress in the line of research, supplying himself with some interesting specimens for the work of his classes.

The two biological sciences of botany and zoology, and the science of geology were those pursued by the classes. The botanists paid particular attention to the study of sea-weeds and brought back a large number of specimens of these as well as of other plants for the use of the University classes this year.

The explorers were gone six weeks, and returned feeling physical recuperation as well as mental growth.

BOARD OF CONTROL MEETS.

The Board of Control voted yesterday to insure the grand stand against fire and to take out a burglar insurance policy for the training quarters.

It was decided to allow the management to change the place of holding the Wisconsin game on Thanksgiving day from Madison to Milwaukee if the Badgers so desired.

O'BRIEN AND DAVIES BACK.

The foot-ball squad did their stunts on the campus yesterday afternoon. After going through some preliminary work the boys lined up for a scrimmage.

Davies, the star back of last year was in the line-up, as also was Henry O'Brien the speedy St. Paul boy.

Strathern played an exceptional game last night.

Gleason also played like a veteran. The first team did not show up well at first but they braced up considerably in the last few minutes of play.

Mr. Edw. McGovern, Law, '05, is enrolled at Leland, Stanford of California this year.

MOST MAGNIFICENT ATHLETIC FIELD IN THE WEST DEDICATED NEXT SATURDAY

Occasion of the Annual Game with St. Paul and Minneapolis High Schools—Many Noted Speakers

Greater Northrop Field will be dedicated next Saturday,

September nineteenth will mark an epoch in the athletic history of Minnesota for on that day the best and largest Athletic play ground in the West will be thrown open for inspection.

For the first time a Minnesota team will battle for the Maroon and Gold on the new gridiron which is destined to be the scene of some of the greatest athletic contests in the country. The fondest dreams of Minnesota adherents has at last become a reality in Greater Northrop Field.

The dedicatory exercises will be in keeping with the importance of the event. Prominent men from all over the West will be present. Invitations have been sent to the state officials,—the members of the state legislature, the members of the Board of Regents and the Board of Control, to the heads of the different departments in the fixed at twenty cents, reserved seats fifty cents and the first foot ball game of the season should be witnessed by thousands of people.

With the greatest athletic field in the west, the property of Minnesota, with an enthusiastic backing of the Alumni and townspeople, with a competent coach and a likely squad, one thing there is without which the season cannot be successful. That thing is student support and the time is Sept. 19th.

There has never been better harmony among players and coaches, the spirit as shown in practice is of the kind that wins, there has been no shirking on the part of the men.

An opportunity will be given on Saturday for the college to show the men that their work is appreciated and there should be such a demand for tickets as has only been before the championship games of the former years.

CYRUS NORTHROP.

President of the University of Minnesota, in whose honor the field was named.

University and prominent football enthusiasts of the twin cities.

Western athletics will be represented by coaches and managers of the western teams.

Ex-State Senator Fred B. Snyder is in charge of the dedicatory exercises which will precede the first football game of the season, the University playing one half each with the team of the Minneapolis and St. Paul Central High schools.

Among the speakers who have accepted invitations to address the gathering are President Northrop, Governor Van Sant and Mayor Haynes.

Admission to the grounds for the ceremonies of the afternoon has been Greater Northrop Field has not been the result of the work of one year.

The history of the evolution of the field is interesting and the beginning dates back as far as 1897. In the spring of that year the feeling that an athletic field was absolutely necessary evidenced itself in the laying out of a gridiron south of the Armory. The ground was levelled and marked out. Chairs around the sidelines furnished the only accommodations for the spectators.

In the spring of '98 a diamond of clay and gravel improved the field. At this time the football games of the season were played in the down town

UNDER CLASSMEN'S PRIZE DEBATES

Sophomores and Freshmen Will Not be Idle this Coming Year

As stated last spring in the Daily the contests for places on the Sophomore-Freshman and Inter-Sophomore debating teams will soon take place.

Each class will have a "free for all" debate. The freshmen, the third week in September and the Sophomores the fourth week. From these, twelve men from each class will be pitted against each other three and three; that is, two Freshmen teams and two Sophomore teams. These debates will all take place in October and a prize given to each member of the winning team.

Each of the six Freshmen who win, will receive a handsome set of Shakespeare's works and the Sophomores a set of George Elliot's.

From these contests, three Freshmen and three Sophomores will be chosen who will contest in the second week of January for the Peavey prizes and the supremacy of the Freshman or Sophomore classes in debate.

The Peavey prizes are $25 to each member of the winning team.

In the first week of November, there will be another Sophomore "free-for-all" from which will be chosen six men who are to constitute the Inter-Sophomore teams to contest for the Dunwoody prizes of $25 each.

The question for debate in all of these for places on the team will be that of the popular election of Senators.

CANE RUSH!

It is rumored that the preliminary or informal cane rush will take place next Tuesday. Upper classmen seem determined to find out what the new class is made of.

Members of both classes must be ready to uphold class honors. Free arnica and bandages will be provided.

SOPHOMORES NOT IGNORED.

Anent yesterday's report Major Morgan says:

"The report that, on account of the crowding in the Military department probably the Sophomores would be excused next year from drilling, was a foolish mistake. The success of the military department depends upon the requirement of the two years' drill. There is room enough for all four classes."

FALL TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

On account of the poor condition of the courts very little practice has taken place as yet, but work is now being done and the experts expect to begin the preliminaries next week. Several of the old time champions have been in training during the summer and express themselves as being in fine fettle.

It is desirable that all who intend to compete should join the Tennis Association at once.

Names may be left in P. O. Box 934.

Mrs. J. W. Williams and Miss Helen Williams of Marshall, visited friends at the University this week.

NOTICE TO OLD SUBSCRIBERS

Unless ordered discontinued, the Daily will be sent to all subscribers of last year, and the management will consider your intentions in good faith.

UNIVERSITY CLUB.

It was yesterday rumored that plans are again under way for the erection of a University club house near the campus.

It will be remembered that this building was originally intended to serve as a home for transient University men, a sort of haven for old grads who could meet there and tell over old tales of their college lives.

It is to be hoped that this is not a mere rumor. Clubs of this kind are maintained near other important universities. In more than one large city Harvard Clubs and Yale Clubs gather together alumni of those schools who would never become acquainted in any other way.

Surely then in a city as large as Minneapolis, and immediately surrounding the University, a club of this kind would prove a convenience of the greatest popularity. We wish the project all success.

CHAPEL MUSIC.

It will be nearly two weeks before the chapel music will materialize as a leading factor this year.

Until then, a verse or so of some hymn will be the only music offered.

Prof. Oberhoffer is expected back from Europe in a short time to assume charge of the music department.

While it is premature to announce any definite plan, it is stated by those in touch with the department that an hour a week, as last year, at least may be taken up by some concerts.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. devotional meeting was led yesterday by Miss Potter. She spoke of the ideal type of womanhood to which all should attain. The meeting was a very helpful one and a large number of girls were present.

The reception for the new girls which was to have taken place this afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. rooms will be postponed one week on account of the Banda Rossa concerts.

LAW ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Freshmen law class will be called at 9:30 instead of 9 o'clock from this date on to accommodate interviews for freshmen only from 9: to 9:30 a. m.

The Junior class will be called at 10:30, their period of interviews with the faculty being directly after the class.

BOARD OF CONTROL AND FACULTY CLASH

Owing to the alleged dilatory practices of the State Board of Control the supplies for many of the laboratories have not arrived and the work in these departments may be seriously handicapped.

About a month ago the various professors in charge of laboratories made out their requisitions for supplies and sent them to the board. Here they had to be all looked over and if the amount seemed too large they were sent back for correction. After more red tape they were turned over to the purchasing agent who secured bids on the goods.

As a consequence, the supplies are not on hand at the beginning of the school year.

It is also claimed in this connection that the supplies furnished by the board are not up to the standard as they are bought on bids and many times inferior goods are furnished.

The board of control denies that they are to blame and claim that the faculty were too late in sending in their requisitions. And there you are.

park back of the West Hotel. The rate for the rent of the park became so exorbitant that it was finally realized that an enclosed gridiron on or near the University campus was an absolute necessity.

The finances of the athletic treasury in the fall of '99 was not in such condition as to warrant the construction of a fence and the students' demand finally found expression in the erection of a board fence around the field put up by the students themselves. The task was stupendous but the enduring kind and the fence was completed with little hired labor.

On November 10, '99, Northrop Field was formally dedicated in a game with Northwestern University. Minnesota was defeated by a score of 11 to 5 but notwithstanding, the field had a god influence for in 1900 Minnesota stood at the head of Western colleges with a championship team.

Northrop Field as it appears today is not recognizable as the Northrop Field of the last three years. It is more than twice as large, more land having been acquired by the authorities last year. It is surrounded by a nine foot brick wall which is to be capped with sandstone, above which there will be iron work, two feet high. A quarter mile track surrounds the sod gridiron and in front of the south grandstand is a straightaway stretch of 220 yards. This south grandstand is an immense structure, over forty rows high with accommodations for 8,000 people.

In Northrop Field the University has property conservatively valued at $60,000.

OUR SCHOOL HAD NO JOYS FOR THIS MAN

One young man who expected to attend the engineering department this fall has decided to forgoe the pleasure.

His name is Frank Keston and he comes from a small town in Fillmore county. He arrived here about a week ago and started to hunt for a room. About this time he received a letter from some friends at Kewasset, Minn., stating that his nephew had died in Norway and left him a fortune of $165,000.

Mr. Keston did not prolong his search for an abode, but took the first available train for New York.

He said to a Daily reporter before he left that he wished he could stay and attend our great school, but in view of the fact that he had some cash coming he thought it might be well to avail himself of it.

Good bye Frank. Come again. The whole Daily staff would quit for half of that.

CASTALIANS HUSTLING.

Begin season with lively programme. Prospects are promising.

Enthusiasm was the key note of the first meeting of the Castalian literary society which was held last night.

All of the old members were out and manifested their intentions of doing good, conscientious work for the ensuing year.

Speeches were made, committees appointed and plans made for a grand celebration to take place next Thursday at the Y. M. C. A. building at 8 pm.

There will be an installation of the officers who were elected at the close of the last year and an inaugural address by the president. A humorous program has been provided for, to be followed by a banquet.

Several good men whom the Castalians have in prospect have been invited. Likewise, all Freshmen who wish to join a literary society and think they have any talent along literary or debating lines will be welcomed. They are invited to come and get acquainted with the members and a good time for all is insured.

Church Notice.
