Minnesota Crookston Baseball Doubleheader for Thursday Against Bemidji State Cancelled; Four Non-Conference Games Against BSU Slated for Saturday and Sunday

CROOKSTON, Minn. – The University of Minnesota Crookston baseball games slated for Thurs., April 12 against Bemidji State University at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. have been cancelled due to overnight snow in the Red River Valley. The Golden Eagles will now play four non-conference games against Bemidji State Sat., April 14 and Sun., April 15 at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. both days. The games will all be played at UMC Baseball Field in Cookston, Minn. All four games will be seven-inning tilts.

The games have to be non-conference games as the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) rules state that a mid-week doubleheader originally slated for Wednesday (as this series was), can only be made up either on Tuesday or Thursday.

The Golden Eagles are schedule to return to NSIC action Wed., April 18 at St. Cloud State University at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m.
