MEN TO RECEIVE "M'S" IN CHAPEL

PRESIDENT NORTHROP WILL PRESENT LETTERS.

Today for the first time M's will be presented in chapel, instead of at annual banquet.—Chapel will be crowded.

As the Annual Banquet of the team is so uncertain it has been decided to have the M's presented in chapel this morning.

President Northrop will lead chapel and will make appropriate remarks to the team.

The giving of the M's will be the occasion of great interest and excitement on the part of the student body.

The following men receive their M's for the first time:

Oech, Schucknecht, Bandelin, Kjelland, Larkin, Sanborn, Weisel and Safford.

The other men to receive their honor letters are:

Capt. Current, Marshall, Vita, Brush, Ittner, Burgan, Cutting, Smith and Kraemer.

BIG DEMAND FOR HOLIDAY NUMBER

CHRISTMAS DAILY INTERESTS EVERYONE.

Whip angers some and pleases others. In general, Christmas number is commended—"A few of Our Friends receives Praise."

The Christmas Dailies are just about sold. Of the 1500 copies printed 100 went to exchanges, and 100 to advertisers. The subscribers for the Daily have not all taken their copies yet, while non-subscribers thronged round the table nearly all the morning, buying copies as fast as three men could hand them out.

All about the Library students could be seen eagerly scanning the columns of the Whip to see if they had broken into print. Every fusser of renown about school wore an anxious look until the heart-rending search was ended, and only resumed the smile that

GIRLS PREPARE FOR HARD GAMES

GAME WITH SOUTH HIGH FIRST IMPORTANT ONE

Class tournament postponed till later in February—Girls will continue practice during holidays—Schedule not yet completed.

Girls of the basketball team are hard at work now and will continue regular practice through the holidays in preparation for several hard games.

The first of these is the game with South High, which will probably take place Jan. 19. Sylvia Frank is the coach for the South High team and this team is in very good condition, so the game promises to be a very interesting one.

Directly after vacation, before the South High game, a practice game with Drummond Hall, will take place but the exact date has not yet been decided upon.

BOARD OF CONTROL ELECTS MANAGER

REED RE-ELECTED ATHLETIC MANAGER.

Leach re-elected basketball coach.—Nothing definite on baseball.—Annual election of Board officers early in January. President, secretary and department representatives to be elected.

At a special meeting of the Athletic Board of Control Monday evening Frank Reed was elected to his third year as Athletic Manager. There were no opponents for the office.

Hugh Leach was re-elected as basketball coach, and the matter of a baseball coach discussed. The name of "Spike" Anderson, an old Minnesota third baseman of exceptional ability, was proposed, but no final action was taken.

The 17 M's won this year were authorized and will be presented in chapel today.

The annual Board of Control election will come off the second or third week in January. A president, secretary and representatives from the Academic, Medic and Law departments will be elected.

President Strathern will issue formal notice in due time.

500 MORE XMAS DAILIES TO BE PLACED ON SALE THIS MORNING.

YALE MUSICIANS TO GIVE CONCERT

The Yale Glee, Mandolin, and Banjo Clubs come to the Auditorium next Tuesday evening, Dec. 26, giving good opportunity for comparison between the eastern and western clubs of the same nature.

It has been some time since the Yale Club has been here. Their trips are taken yearly during the holidays and each year they, and the alumni of "Old Eli," have a grand time.

The Clubs, instead of singing classical music, give selections which bring back the days of the "Old Boys" to them again.

Every member of the Club is a gifted singer. The large number of men in Yale University who are talented gives the leaders a great choice with which they can obtain the best possible quality of material for their organization.

Beside the Glee and Mandolin Club there is also a Banjo Club. This is a feature that is not known in the west. It is, perhaps, on account of the banjo being used much more in the southern states than it is in the west.

The club consists of a little over fifty men. It is quite an undertaking to tour the United States with so many men. Still, when one considers the great number of alumni all thru the country it is easy to see the great success with which they meet.

"JONES OF ROCK'S" LECTURE IS POSTPONED.

"Jones of Rock" was to speak in chapel last night on "A Century of Jeffersonian Principles," but has been called away and will not lecture until after the holidays.

The date has not been definitely decided upon, but will be announced in the Daily after Christmas.

went come off when he found his name absent from the stinging jests.

Student opinion generally concedes the fact that this number is the best that has yet appeared. The only objection seems to be to the write-up of the football men.

Murray Davenport and others think that such jests were unkind and undeserved. The football men, however, refuse to see it that way, and think the affair a huge joke.

John Schucknecht, upon reading the description of himself, had to lean up against the Library door because of his laughter.

Fred Burgan, who was with him, made a wild dash for "Mike" Paine, paid his fifteen cents and wore a grin that would do credit to a youngster opening his Xmas stocking.

Upon the whole the comment is very favorable and can be expressed in the words of Louis Collins, who said:

"I haven't read the whole thing thru, but it's certainly good, and is the best the Daily ever got out."

CLUB WILL NOT TAKE HOLIDAY TRIP.

Although the Dramatic Club has been planning for some time to present "Nance Oldfield" and "Cricket on the Hearth" in several of the smaller towns throughout the state during the holidays, it has now been definitely decided that this cannot be done.

It has been exceptionally difficult to secure the desired dates in desired places this year, and for many other reasons the Club has decided to give up this plan altogether.

A meeting of the club will be held today to decide this matter and to hear the financial report of the play presented last week.

The team will make a trip in February, taking in Grand Forks, if possible.

Plans are largely uncertain and a complete schedule is impossible as yet on account of the delay caused by the men's basketball schedule.

The annual class tournament has been postponed until later in February.

SENIORS IN CHAPEL.

In caps and gowns they will make their first appearance.

This morning in chapel the Seniors,—the men as well as the girls,—will appear for the first time in caps and gowns. They will meet in the registrar's office and march in a body to chapel.

President Northrop will lead the chapel exercises and at the request of President Sinclair will address a few remarks to the Seniors.

The first nine rows of seats in the middle section will be reserved for the class.

This new venture in the history of Senior classes is universally commended on the ground that "Anything, no matter how trivial, that tends toward increasing class spirit and unity should be fostered. This bringing together of the whole class for a short fifteen minutes is therefore a good thing.

This custom is a picturesque one and will probably become an annual one.

Bonnie Blakeley, formerly of '07, has returned for a short visit in St. Paul.

SENIOR AUTHORS DISCUSS PLAY

The Senior Class Play is being rapidly completed. The committee reports as follows:

"The plot, situations, and specialties are all outlined, and the dialogue of the first act is well developed."

James Watts said: "Although we have this year departed from some of the time-honored customs of former class plays, we have done so because dramatic interest has changed. Until recently there has been a general insanity in theatrical circles because of an all-consuming desire for musical comedy, but the tide of interest is swinging again toward full-fledged drama, dealing with local and spicy situations. However, we hope to make as wide an appeal as possible, and so we have decided upon having a complete drama with a strong plot, but also, to have many songs and specialties, connecting them to the main plot as nearly as possible, so that the dramatic interest will not be weakened.

"We must remember that we are to have a University audience, and so there will be no attempt at horse-play or primitive humor, and while there will be an abundance of humor, there will also be some respect shown for the perspicacity of the audience."

Hattie Van Bergen said: "We are trying to write something that will go, and at the same time have a play that has dignity. The theme chosen is essentially serious, as all themes of any importance are, but this is simply to give a large effect, and there will be plenty of action, snappy dialogue and humor from beginning to end."

Lucille Way said: "With a class play it is necessary to introduce so many specialties to give local color (Continued on page 4.)"

The Sophomores have made known their intention of holding a meeting
the first week after the holidays to arrange for the election of their Gopher Board.

This brings to mind the rumors to the effect that there may be no Gopher Board in the Sophomore class, that it may be advisable to publish the Gopher in the Senior year, thus bringing the Gopher election into the Junior year.

There are two sides to this question
but apparently there are more arguments in favor of it than against it.

The Sophomore class does not know itself, cannot pick out its literary lights with half the accuracy that a Junior class can. As a consequence, many people get onto Gopher Boards
when they lack the literary, artistic or executive ability the position demands and others who are fitted for these positions have not had time to show what they can do. A year affords a great deal of opportunity for better acquaintance.

Secondly, a much more interesting Gopher could be gotten out. One more year of college life makes a great difference in the ability of the verifier the cartoonist and the man with the business head.

Also by the time the Senior year is reached the class knows much more of the characteristics of individuals and these could be portrayed more accurately. A review of what each student has done would be made for four years instead of three.

A most important point is the fact that much more loyal support will be given by a Senior class than by a third-year class to its publication.

Of course the great objection to this idea is that it would make too much work for the Seniors who already have their class play and commencement and various other things to attend to.

One student has suggested that to avoid this double amount of work, the class play be given always in the Junior year, leaving the Senior year for the Gopher. This suggestion is radical but it is worth consideration.

NOTICE.

matic Club at 1:30 today in Dr. Mc-

SNEAK THIEVES AT WORK

Depredations around the University have not entirely ceased, as was evidenced at the Alpha Kappa Kappa house.

While Earl Loomis and Current, two members of the fraternity, were engaged in the rear part of the house, a sneak-thief entered the front door and calmly carried away two valuable fur-lined overcoats belonging to these men.

Great efforts will be made to arrest the thief and it is probable that he will soon be apprehended, as the last sneak-thief was.

A second theft occurred yesterday,
a five dollar bill being stolen from one of the girls' lockers.
