CAMPUS PLEDGES $2,474 TO Y.M.C.A. IN ANNUAL DRIVE

Team Headed By Welland Again Secures Highest Amount Of Day's Solicitation

ORGANIZATION PRESIDENT EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

Clean-up Campaign Is Planned In Effort to Raise Quota Of University

Reports from the third day of the Y.M.C.A. financial drive again placed Division IV, captained by John Welland, in the lead with a total of $119 in subscriptions. Subscriptions reported at the luncheon yesterday noon raised the grand total of the campaign to $247.45.

Although the city-wide campaign will continue throughout the week, the work on the Minnesota campus will be continued by the faculty workers and student team captains only. A campaign similar to the clean-up campaign conducted after the Stadium drive will be conducted over the following week, in an attempt to raise the University quota.

Much of the faculty work is still left undone, and the faculty solicitors will carry on their work as before until the whole faculty body has been canvassed. Y.M.C.A. workers and team captains will continue their canvassing under a process of elimination.

"The Y.M.C.A. sincerely appreciated the activity of the student and faculty workers' enthusiasm in donating their time to the drive. We know that such action required placing some other activities on the shelf for the period of the drive. Financial drives in themselves are not the most pleasant activities that one can be associated with on our campus and the loyal support of the workers will not soon be forgotten. Most important of all; the drive has discovered to us many new friends, and a realization that the Y.M.C.A. has many boosters about the campus who really live apart from active 'Y' service," Nell Norton, student president of the University Y.M.C.A., said in summing up the campaign results.

Faculty teams $143 In Day Division reports, turned in at the luncheon yesterday, are as follows: Division I, $97.75; Division II, $77.00; Division III, $37.50; Division IV, $119.00; and Division V, $117.50. From a total of 27 subscriptions the faculty solicitors announced a total of $163. In the faculty division there are approximately 200 members who were not canvassed during the active drive but will be called upon during the rest of this week.

ART DEPARTMENT TO CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

First Class of Students Under Miss Raymond Graduated Six Years Ago

The sixth birthday of the department of art education of the University of Minnesota will be celebrated by presenting the head and founder of the department, Miss Ruth Raymond, with a sabbatical leave of absence. In 1918, Miss Raymond brought the equipment and students of the Handicraft Guild School of Normal Art to the University campus, and founded the department of art education in the Mechanic Arts building. At the end of the first year the department was moved to its present site on the fourth floor of Folwell Hall.

Longer Course Introduced "The old Handicraft school gave students a certificate for art teaching at the end of two years," Miss Raymond said. "When it moved to the University campus, it was combined with academic work and made into a four year course.

"From the very beginning, we have had a graduating class each year," she stated. "Only seven students were in the first graduating class. There were 25 in the class of 1922."

Miss Raymond will spend her free year in taking graduate work at the University of California, and in studying the work which is being done in art schools and universities on the western coast. She will return to Minnesota in January 1925.

Miss Douglas Fills Vacancy During Miss Raymond's absence, the faculty number will be made up by the addition of Miss Agnes Jean Douglas, who is on leave of absence from the Stevens Point Teacher's College, Wisconsin. Miss Douglas has a wide experience in art, besides acting as supervisor of art in the public schools of Illinois.

Cosmopolitans Meet Today Mrs. Ariel MacNaughton Dingwall, will speak this noon, at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Cosmopolitan Club, on "The Cosmopolitan Aspect of the Drama."

Two Players in Paint and Patches Production, 'The Wonder Hat', One of Three, Tonight

Have the roles of Harlequin and Punchinello, respectively, in "The Wonder Hat," one of the Paint and Patches plays, which were received enthusiastically last night by a large audience in the Music Auditorium. These one-act plays will be presented again tonight for the last time.

Smokestacks May Hem in 'U' If City Zoning Bill Passes

Ordinance Would Open District to Factories; Coffman Urges Acquisition of Land South of Washington, Along River, to Franklin Avenue Bridge

The smokestacks of industrial plants and fuming factories and shops of all kinds will soon hem in the campus if the ordinance now being drawn up by the zoning commission of the city of Minneapolis is passed by the City Council.

The ordinance would throw open the section of the city south of Washington avenue and east of Oak street to the erection of light manufacturing plants. This would include all industrial plants with the exception of slaughter houses, blast furnaces, and similar nuisances.

Alumni Hear of Plan The acquisition of land around the University as far down as the Franklin avenue bridge was urged by President L. D. Coffman in a speech delivered Homecoming day before a group of alumni. President Coffman characterized this measure as extreme, but highly desirable in view of the future.

The purchase of land in the affected district has long been considered by University officials in order to guard against the erection of industrial plants in the vicinity of the campus since it has not been considered feasible to bring about the removal of those already existing on the north and east.

Homes of Students Affected Although no action has yet been taken, recent developments such as the construction of the new stadium and the building fund have brought about serious consideration of the plan.

Many students as well as faculty members and their families at present have their homes in the district which is planned to throw open to light industrial plants, and it is expected that the plan will meet with opposition from this quarter.

Owre's Talk Feature Of Dent's Banquet

The committee in charge of the all-dent banquet which is to be given Tuesday, December 11, in the Minnesota Union, are making final arrangements for it.

One of the interesting features of the evening will be the stunt put on by the Dental Hygienists. Dean Owre will speak on Japan, and lantern slides will be shown with it. R. Lemke with his seven piece orchestra, composed of members of the School of Dentistry, will play during the dinner.

Ninety-nine Frosh Medics Make Record

Here is a wee bit of news that may either prove interesting to students in other colleges or may work as an incentive to double the efforts they have hitherto put forth. Of the 100 students in this year's sophomore medic class 17 secured a grade of B or over while in their freshman year and of the hundred students selected to take freshman medicine only one was dropped on account of poor work.

PLAYGOERS MAY HEAR WALKER'S PREMIER ARTISTS

Famous Portmanteau Actors to Appear at Metropolitan in St. Paul, Dec. 15

APPEARED 825 TIMES IN INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

Three Performances to Be Given in the Afternoon and Two in Evening

Stuart Walker's Portmanteau Players will be at the Metropolitan in St. Paul Saturday Dec. 15, giving Twin City playgoers an opportunity to see the performance of a number of plays by the same company that gave a presentation of "The Book of Job" last year.

A matinee and evening performance will be given of three plays in the afternoon, and two plays and two interludes in the evening.

Walker's Own Play Included "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil," "Sir David Wears a Crown" and their sequel "The King's Great Aunt" by Stuart Walker himself constitute the special matinee, advertised for "children from seven to seventy."

The most notable play of the performance is "The Gods of the Mountain" by Lord Dunsany, an ironic comedy; the Chicago Daily Journal speaks of "The Gods of the Mountain" as being "a noble work, a weird, grim, picturesque, vivid, and thrilling ironic comedy," of which "the performance readily makes known the superb quality of the play."

Gave 109 Plays in Indianapolis On the same evening, "Nevertheless" and "The Very Naked Boy," two interludes and "The Lady of the Weeping Willow Tree," a Japanese fantasy all by Mr. Walker, will be offered.

The Stuart Walker company has given 825 performances in the past six years in Indianapolis; 109 plays of which 13 had their premier performance with Mr. Walker's company. A number of these have become New York and road successes, including "Seventeen" and "Walden Street."

SILVERMAN CHOSEN ARABS ART DIRECTOR

Club Quartette Will Sing For American Institute Of Electrical Engineers

Laodore Silverman, senior architect, was elected art director of the Arab dramatic club at their meeting Wednesday evening. Mr. Silverman designed a large part of the scenery for the "Blue God," the Arabs production last spring.

Glanville Smith, senior architect, who has written this year's play, entitled "Riquiqui," read its second act next spring. The production is a three act comedy, and will be staged next spring.

The Arab quartette, composed of Lyle Borst, first bass; Ralph Montgomery, first tenor; Donald Swift, second bass, and David Kopp, second tenor, accepted at this meeting an offer to sing at the meeting of the student section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, to be held in the Minnesota Union, at 6:00 p.m., Wednesday evening.

Women Healthier Than Men Shown By 1923 Figures

Women are healthier than men at the University of Minnesota, figures show. In 1923, the hospital in connection with the dispensary cared for 1024 men and only 414 women. The same figures also show an increase in the general health.

Der Deutsche Verein Initiates 13 Members

Der Deutsche Verein, German club at the University, initiated 13 students and faculty members at its meeting Wednesday night. Those who took the oath of membership in the shadows, after having amused the old members with innumerable funny stunts, are: Louise Niemi, Marie Rybak, Selma Gryse, Kathryn Keddak, Augusta Topping, Gina Wangensten, Winifred Relehm, Cecilia Feyersband, Erna Behrens, Fritz Lehenholdt, George Borgen, William Hartfield, and Everett Heuer. Old and new members, after the initiation ceremony, joined in the singing of several German songs. Refreshments were then served.

Basketball, Hockey Books on Sale Now

Basketball ticket books which will include admission to all hockey games to be played in the new rink are now on sale at the Bursar's office. These ticket books will give the students a real chance to save money on all the games scheduled this winter. There will be home games in basketball at $1.00 apiece and seven hockey games at 50c apiece which will total $14.50 if one is to pay the admission to each game. By purchasing a book for $4.00 the student can save himself over $10.

Aggie Pop Contest Has Klerk's Klub Stunt for Tonight

Interpretation of Fantasy to Be Given By Athenian Literary Society

"Why Men Need Home Economics" Will Be Presented By Phi U Omicron

The K. K. K. will participate in the Aggie Pop contest to be held at the University Farm campus tonight. The Kappa Klerk's Klub, who with their stunt "Night in Toyland," won first prize in the contest last year, will endeavor to capture the cup again this year with their stunt, "K. K. K. Revue." The nature of their stunt has not been disclosed, but it is expected that they will have a skit equally, if not more clever than the one of last year.

Many Features Planned This stunt is only one of the features which will be presented at the Aggie Pop contest, it has been disclosed. Among the other features which has attracted much attention is the interpretation of "Blossom Time," a musical offering which appeared in a Minneapolis theater recently, and which has appeared in many of the leading theaters throughout the country, entitled "Musical Fantasy," featuring Enrico Caruso, Jenny Lind, and John McCormick, will be presented by the Athenian Literary Society.

The male element on the farm campus is wondering what the Phi U Omicron people instigate when they raise the question, "Why Men Need Home Economics," the title of the skit which they will present. Do they mean that men should take this training to be of value in the home? It is expected that they will depict some of the average man's knowledge of the gentle art of domestic science.

Education to Be Discussed Soap box orators will comment on the value of higher education in the small town postoffice in the stunt to be presented by the Block and Bridge club, which bears the title of "The $40 Mail."

Miss Norma Gerber, accompanied by Miss Florence Wych will render a Skater's Dance.

The Pops 'N' Pans will present a dancing and musical skit titled, "La Petite Comedie Musicale."

Professor H. E. Curtis, of the division of public speaking and rhetoric, will present a stunt in which members of the faculty will appear. He has refused to divulge the nature of it.

Proceeds to Pay Trip Expenses. Abe Pepsinsky will direct the All-U orchestra which will furnish the music for the occasion.

The contest will be held in the Auditorium of the Administration building at 8 p. m. tonight. The proceeds received will be used to pay the expenses of delegates to the Geneva conference next June.

Hirschfelder Returns From Extensive Trip

After an absence of five months, Dr. A. D. Hirschfelder director of the department of pharmacology, School of Medicine, is back in his chair conducting his classes. He traveled through various parts of the United States and visited the medical schools at the University of California, Stanford, Yale, Cornell, and Johns Hopkins and also served on a committee of the National Medical Research Council at Washington.

Dr. Hirschfelder was in the east both at the arrival and departure of Dr. Pirquet and says that authorities there were not at all surprised that Dr. Pirquet left so soon after his arrival, as that was the tendency of the European men who were called here at the expense of American Universities.

Ben Will Speak at Luncheon Dr. J. W. Bean will speak at the all-presbyterian luncheon to be given in the Minnesota Union today at 12:30.

Robert Quay, Zella Harris, and Mary McKinney are in charge of the arrangements. The program will consist of music, readings, and speeches.

QUINTET'S STRENGTH TESTED; MEETS NOTRE DAME TONIGHT

Contest Marks Official Opening Of Season; Visitors to Play Here Monday Also

TWO VETERANS, PESEK AND OLSON, IN LINEUP

Noted Football Athletes Are On South Bend Team; 14 Men Make Gopher Trip

By Mike Fadell Minnesota's untried basketball team will be put to its first test tonight when the Notre Dame quintet will invade the Gopher stronghold at the Armory tonight. This practice game will mark the official opening of the 1924 basketball season, and with the quality of the Maroon and Gold terrors an unknown one.

The Gophers will play the visitors Monday night in the second game of the series. Notre Dame comes here with a full string of men who served on the football team, and with the same team which it had last year when the Irish turned back the Iowa five, joint conference champions, for a victory. Coach Koegan, former St. Thomas coach, is handling the coaching reigns of the South Bend aggregation, and has assembled a strong team together. Don Miller and Elmer Layden, football men who were placed on many all-American teams picked this fall, and who have a good chance of making Walter Camp's star eleven, will play leading roles in tonight's game.

Lineup Change Predicted Dr. Cooke has announced his probable lineup, but this will be frequently changed during the game to try out the new material. Cy Pesek and Cy Olson are two veterans who will open the clash with the South Bend lads. Both are experienced and are expected to show a good brand of ball tonight. Racey is the forward flash from St. Paul who is making a strong bid for considerable basketball in high school and served his time on the Frodo squad last year. His appearance in a Maroon and Gold uniform will boost the Gopher scoring machine for his deadly eye has counted from the field many times in scrimmage. Gilen will be running mate to Racey in the opening lineup against Notre Dame, and will make his debut on the Minnesota team.

Probable lineup: Racey — F — Crowe Gilen — F — Enright Pesek — C — Miller Dunder — G — Kizer Olson — G — Mayle (C)

DEBATERS WIN TWO BIG TEN VICTORIES

Negative Team Triumphs Over Illinois, While the Affirmative Wins Here

Winning by a unanimous decision, Minnesota's negative debate team triumphed over the University of Illinois at Urbana last Thursday night, thus equalling the team which won over Iowa.

The Minnesota debaters supported the negative of the question, "Resolved, that the United States should join the World Court as proposed by the late President Harding."

All other debates in the Conference of which Minnesota is a member were decided for the affirmative. The affirmative Minnesota team, in winning from the University of Iowa, gives the University of Minnesota the distinction of a double victory.

The men composing the team which debated at Illinois are Cedric Jamieson, Carl E. Anderson, and Walter Lundberg.

The arguments of the Minnesota debaters, according to Professor R. M. Rarig, centered about the fact that the Court bases its decisions on the principle of adjudication, whereas the need of the world is not adjudication, but legislation, through the medium of some power yet to be formed.

The scope of the Court's jurisdiction was also attacked by the University of Minnesota debaters, since, they claimed, the Court could not operate effectively with the power granted it.

Minnesota Co-ed Has Been Elected Tau Sigma Delta

Dorothy Brink of St. Paul, senior Architect, has the honor of being the first Minnesota woman ever elected to Tau Sigma Delta, National honorary architectural fraternity. Other members of this year's class who were chosen are Glanville Smith and Edwin Kraft.

Miss Brink is a student of high standing, and has the distinction of not only being the first Minnesota woman in the fraternity, but also one of a very few in the United States.

Since the establishment of Beta chapter of Tau Sigma Delta at Minnesota in 1917, members have been chosen from the upper sixth of the junior class each spring, and from the senior class in the fall. Pupils are judged on grades received in all work, and especially architectural design.

Advertising Artist to Speak Miss Agnes Rooney of Crawford, Rooney and Solerlund, a Minneapolis advertising firm, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Business Women's Club to be held Wednesday evening, December 12, at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house. She will talk on "The possibilities for women in the Advertising Field." A special invitation is extended to all pre-business girls.

Thulapian Fraternity Chester Stone is in charge of the Thulapian pledge party to be given for the active members at the house Dec. 8.

CHEMISTRY LECTURE PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Series Offered By Professional, Honorary Fraternities, to Begin Dec. 12

Dr. C. A. Mann, assistant professor of Chemistry, will lecture on "Chemical Problems in Mining and Engineering" Wednesday December 12, at 8 p.m., in the Chemistry auditorium. This is the first of a series of lectures offered by Phi Lambda Upsilon and Iota Sigma Phi, national honorary chemical societies, and Alpha Chi Sigma, national professional fraternity.

On Wednesday, January 9, Dr. Ruth O'Brien of Ames will lecture on "Chemistry of Textiles," February 30, Dr. J. J. Williams will talk on "Chlorophyll, the Chemist and the World's Energy"; Dr. F. H. MacDougall will talk Tuesday, April 8, on "Modern Theories of Structure of the Atom"; and Dr. R. A. Gortner will talk on "Some Problems of Biochemistry" on May 6.

The lectures are for the purpose of acquainting students specializing in chemistry with some of the branches of the sciences, and of interesting other students in the application of chemistry to their particular fields of work.

GO EAST FOR YOUR CULTURE

While not in any way wishing to appear hateful, The Minnesota Daily cannot but chuckle to itself over the stir caused in the east by the action of Yale students after the Harvard game, recently.

In the dignified, staid, cultured, satisfied, complacent east, where refinement makes the western men appear crude in the eyes of many, and where pretty manners so often are accepted in preference to sincerity and honesty, a scene such as the west has never known took place last month.

Witness the editorial published in the Yale News: "Complete wreckage of Harvard's football furniture seemed somewhat drastic, though the wonder was that after the lean years, the sons of Eli did not attempt to remove the stadium itself. If Harvard wins in New Haven, one may expect to find hawkers bartering pieces of the bowl after the game."

"For the destruction of the goal posts there was some excuse. For the subsequent conduct of some university men there was none. To drag down the Harvard colors from the Union and other places was excessively bad mannered. For such rudeness was wretched sportsmanship on the part of a few, apologies are due to a university which played, as it always plays, hard and cleanly against heavy odds, and then took defeat splendidly."

"A blot on an afternoon otherwise distinguished for friendliness, sportsmanship and fair play is a highly unpleasant thing."

So, men of Minnesota and of the west, let us turn once more to our farms and our mines, our forests and our brusk western city business ways, glad that we are of Minnesota and of the west, and proud that what the more subtle refinements may be lacking in us is more than made up by a sense of our responsibilities and a determination that we shall not shirk them.

OUR NEW CAPTAIN

As the first football rises from the field of Minnesota's new Stadium in 1924 and sails far into the ranks of the opposing team, it will be Ted Cox who, as captain, will lead the Gopher battlers toward the foe.

Ted Cox has been chosen Minnesota's new football captain. Elected under a system of balloting which makes him the honest choice of his team-mates, he begins his regime very auspiciously; there is a spirit of harmony and co-operation at the very start which is a good harbinger of many victories to come.

Ted Cox, the students of the University of Minnesota congratulate you. They will co-operate with you and support you in your efforts to develop a championship team. They believe that you will overcome the obstacles of the future with the same perseverance and courage that you displayed in the football games of 1923 when, in spite of injuries and misfortune, you became one of the best tackles of the conference. They hope that you will give your best to Minnesota, that you will begin early to plan for next fall.

And in the fall of 1924, Captain Cox, as you gaze up from the yard-lines into the thousands of students cheering in the Stadium stands, you can rest assured that all are with you and for you! —H. O. O.

CO-OPERATION

Co-operation is a magnificent thing. No superlatives can do justice to the boons it has brought to suffering human-kind. It has aided the fruit-grower to market his apples and pears, it has helped the farmer to churn more cheaply the milk of his herd of cattle, and it has placed presidents in the chair in the White House.

The only place where co-operation does not work out so well is in those secret student conclaves held in various gathering places upon the campuses of our universities. Here it is that students compare their answers to various scholastic problems, where copies are made and distributed of the most learned student's work, and where the ignoramus has the genius help him with his perplexities. Here it is that the unreliable and uncertain student loses all his self-confidence and initiative, where he habitually begins to depend upon others to do his lessons.

That students can derive any genuine satisfaction from credit received unfairly should be inconceivable. The object of a university education is to foster individualism instead of dependence. The student who depends upon others to solve his problems will walk upon mental crutches for the remainder of his life. He never will be masterful, powerful; he will stumble in the pitfalls of the future.

One can hurdle the bars of college examinations with the help of his class-mates, but, in the race of life, he will find little to sustain him if all his professional training is based upon the labors of others.

Theater Reviews

At the State
A colorful spectacle of the 16th Century interspersed by a delicately charming romance, "Ashes of Vengeance," brings America's premiere cinema actress, Norma Talmadge, to the State theater for the week starting Saturday.

The story opens at a court ball held on St. Bartolomew's eve by the designing Catherine de Medici, to disarm suspicion. She manages that evening to secure the signature of her weak son, Charles the IX, to a proclamation decreeing the massacre of the Huguenots. Rupert de Vriese and his hereditary enemy engage in a duel in which de Vriese is victorious.

Conway Tearle plays opposite Miss Talmadge as Rupert de Vriese, while Wallace Beery is seen as Duc de Tours. Others in the cast are Courtenay Foote, Claire McDowell, Betty Francisco, Josephine Crowell, James Cooley, Andre de Beranger, Boyd Erwin, Winter Hall, William Clifford, Murdoch MacQuarrie, Jeanne Carpenter, and Howard Truesdell.

"The Rose," a dance and song fantasy; the State Concert Orchestra under the direction of William Warville Nelson, are features of the bill.

At the Garrick

J. Warren Kerrigan and Anna Q. Nilsson are featured in "Thundering Dawn," the melodramatic cinema offering at the Garrick theater for the week starting Saturday.

The plot of the picture deals with a white man, invading the tropical lands of myriad charms, falling to the depths of degradation, but finally winning back his place among his fellows through the power of love.

Tom Sanschi, Charles Clary, Winter Hall, Richard Kean, Edward Burns, Winifred Bryson, Anna Mae Wong, and Georgia Woodthorpe, also have important parts in the production.

At the Strand

The cinema interpretation of George Cohan's stage success, "The Meanest Man in the World," brings the popular star, Bert Lytell, to the Strand theater for the week starting Saturday.

As Richard Clark, a young attorney who has progressed but little in his profession on account of his sympathetic nature towards his fellow-men, Mr. Lytell has a role which is altogether becoming to his style of comedy interpretation.

Blanche Sweet is seen as the heroine, while Bryant Washburn, Marion Aye, Helen Lynch, Forrest Robinson, Victor Potol, Ward Crane, William Conklin and Frances Raymond are seen in support. A humorous comedy of rural life; a vocal soloist and Bob Brose and his Strand Band, are features of the program.

At the Pantages

Six acts of vaudeville, three of which are classed as feature acts, and a motion picture program, featured by the Lincoln J. Carter melodramatic masterpiece, "The Eleventh Hour," comprises the bill for Pantages theater during the week.

Herbert Beeson, "The Aerial Dancing Marvel," featured with the Ringling Brothers circus, leads the bill.

The J. Francis Haney Revue, featuring Miss Helen Stewart and introducing the "Four Johnnies," is the second of the three headline acts. "A Stage Door Episode" is the title of the revue.

Elsie Clark, "The Okeh Phonograph Girl," who twice before was billed here, is the third featured act.

The Melford Trio of acrobatic stars will open the vaudeville program. Sam Howard and Lillian Norwood, well-known funsters, will present their comedy act, "Eather From Pittsburgh," in the second position on the bill. Howard Langford and Ina Frederick, offering their comedy skit, "Shopping," appear third on the bill, preceding the revue.

My Own Little Sister!

Are you having a perfectly hectic time deciding what to give Dad, Brother or The Man for Christmas? Really, my dear, it's awfully easy if you come to Powers.

To begin with, men are naturally such vain things that they always appreciate something becomingly wearable. One of those new wool mufflers at $3.95, ties that he will really want to wear, distinctive gloves, and loads of other necessities that fellows never have enough of. And he will love a lounging robe in which he can strut pompously about the house or wear in the depths of his easiest chair while reading your letter again.

Books are gifts which will endure. It's a good plan to choose them early enough to read them yourself and then give each man the book you know he will like the best.

How is he fixed for luggage? On the fourth floor at Powers you will find a host of appropriate things—from leather cases for his soft collars to wardrobe trunks for his whole outfit—at mighty, reasonable prices.

I could go on for hours telling you of all these things—but it would be better for you to come this afternoon and look at them yourself. You will have plenty of time before going to the show.

Remember, my dear, that I'm always pondering on how best to serve you.

Devotedly,

Your Own Big Sister

Winter Quarter Fees
1. Statements covering winter quarter fees have been mailed to all students now registered at the University. December 24th is the last date of payment without penalty. Payments received after that date must bear a postmark date prior to 12 o'clock midnight on December 24th to avoid penalty. The penalty for late payment is $2.00 to January 4th, and then increases at the rate of $1.00 per day. Students are cautioned against mail delays which may occur incident to holiday congestion, and are urged to remit fees far enough in advance of December 24th to avoid possible complication. Students who must write checks for money or make loans are especially urged to complete such arrangements within the time limit in order to avoid penalties.

2. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable to the University of Minnesota, and should be accompanied by all three copies of the fee statement. In remitting by mail, the Registrar's envelope received with the fee statement should be used.
3. Fee statements are written on the basis of the records as they appear in the Registrar's office now. Any contemplated modification of these records by petition or otherwise, cannot modify the amount of the fee statement until evidence or authorization is received by the Registrar. Students should, therefore, see that petitions allowing them to defer drill, physical education, etc., or waiting these or other requirements, or permitting substitutions, or affecting residence are filed with the Registrar before December 24th. If this is not done, amount of the fee statement should be paid to avoid penalty and a proper adjustment of fees will be made when the approved petitions are filed. The Registrar will not accept payments on fee statements showing alterations.
4. Examinations must be for the exact amount of the fee statement. The Registrar cannot accept checks, drafts or money orders for an amount in excess of the fee statement. Insufficient remittances will be returned to the student at his own risk. The student's registration will remain incomplete until his fees are paid in full.
5. Failure to receive a fee statement cannot be accepted as sufficient reason for late payment or non-payment of fees. Any student who does not receive a fee statement in his University office box within a reasonable time may secure a duplicate fee statement at the Registrar's office. Students who work late hours from the campus must inform the Registrar's office promptly of change of address.
6. Students taking "War Service" tuition, trainees of the U. S. Veterans Bureau and of the State Division of Re-Education, Foreign Government students, and beneficiaries of the scholarship funds of miscellaneous wartime agencies, must secure the written approval of the Assistant Registrar on their fee statements and present them to the Registrar within the above mentioned time limit in order to avoid penalty for late payment.
R. M. West, Registrar.

NOTICE OF WINTER QUARTER REGISTRATION

College of Science, Literature, and the Arts
The following notice has been sent to all freshmen by the Registrar:

But if it is not obvious what change should be made on your winter quarter blank, the Registrar will notify you to go to 104 Folwell Hall and make an appointment for change of your winter quarter registration.

NEW RINK BEING CONSTRUCTED FOR MINNESOTA PUCK CHASERS

Plans Under Way For Flooding Of Parade Grounds; to be Ready For First Game

BLEACHERS BUILT TO SEAT 1,500 VISITORS

Outlook Bright For Successful Season; Four Letter Men Out For Practice

Outlook for a successful hockey season at Minnesota took a brighter aspect with the beginning of the construction of a new ice rink on the parade grounds on which all of the Maroon and Gold games will be played this season. The rink will be one of the best of its kind in the Big Ten and will do wonders toward boosting the sport on the campus.

The present plans call for a seating capacity of 1,500 spectators which can be accommodated when the new bleachers are completed. A decided advantage in the new bleachers will be the elevation of the seats which will eliminate the practice of standing around and braving the cold to watch a game of hockey. This in itself will be the feature attraction to the fans and should add a great deal of support to the Maroon and Gold pucking team.

The work of flooding the ground to insure a foundation of solid ice has already been started and when the real signs of cold weather come around a layer of smooth ice should be ready for Coach Iverson's proteges to play on. Iverson is laying heavy plans for the coming season and with four letter men back to form the bulwark of the Gopher sextet, is looking forward to a successful season.

Announcement has been made at the Kappa Alpha Theta house of the engagement of Marguerite Strange of Duluth and Lauren S. Tuttle, Sigma Chi, of Minneapolis.

Farcy Breaks World's Breast Stroke Record

Chicago, Dec. 7.—John Farcy, former Gopher swimming star who is now paddling under the colors of the Illinois Athletic Club, shattered his own world's record for the hundred yard breast stroke in the seventeenth annual Cook county interscholastic tank meet held in the Illinois Athletic Club pool here today. He clipped one second from his old mark of 1:10 3-5. Farcy was captain-elect of the Minnesota amateurs for the coming season, but decided to swim for the I.A.C. and is a possible contestant in the Olympic Meet next year.

Assistant Named For Tank Coach

M. M. Hersheth, member of the Olympic crew team which represented Norway at the 1912 Olympics and former swimming instructor at the Minneapolis Athletic club, was today appointed assistant to Coach Neils Therpe, of the Gopher swimming team. He succeeds Percy Glidden, who died recently.

Hersheth has a remarkable record as an all around athlete, being a star performer in many branches of sport. He has a record of 147 feet in the discus to his credit and is said to be able to negotiate the 100 yard dash in 10 flat.

He also has the reputation of a crew coach and may act as coach for a Minnesota rowing team if the Gopher athletic officials decide to start the sport here next spring.

METCALF TO START INDOOR TRACK SOON

Aspirants Will Have Chance At Early Practice; Meeting Is Called For Jan. 7

Indoor track will be instituted at the Armory now that cold winter has set in and the track aspirants are driven to work out inside. Coach T. N. Metcalf will handle the track work this winter, and will take charge of the spring training. Because of the lack of space and because of basketball practice, the actual practice for track will not be started until the spring quarter.

Some of the men who are interested are already working out at intervals so that they may be in good shape for the practice when it is officially opened, started at the opening of the fall quarter. At the present time Coach Metcalf plans to hold a meeting of all men who are interested in track in the Band room on Monday, January 7, whether they wish to take part in the sport during the winter quarter or during the spring quarter. The program as outlined by the Gopher coach, calls for all candidates, whether they are trying out for the varsity, freshman, or for intra-mural teams.

Announcements for the coming year in the line of dual meets and campus meets will be brought out at this meeting, together with the general plans for the year, starting with the All-Fresh meet on Saturday, February 16. "There will be a chance for every fellow who comes out," says

Coach Metcalf in commenting on the indoor track work. It is the indoor program which will whip the team into shape for the four dual track meets which are now on the Minnesota schedule, and the indoor and outdoor Big Ten meets. The Maroon and Gold track athletes will also take part in the Illinois and Drake relays and the National Intercollegiate meet held at Chicago late in the spring.
