MAIN MEMORIAL PETITION READY FOR SIGNATURES

Liberal Association Gets Out Petition to Preserve Part of Old Main—Will Bear Name of Every Student

The following is the text of the petition drawn up by the committee appointed by the University Liberal Association to prepare, circulate and present to the regents a petition for the preservation of a corner of the "Old Main" walls as a memorial:

"To the Honorable Board of Regents of the University:

"On Sept. 25, 1904, the Main Building of the University was destroyed by fire. The demolition of this structure means the loss to the state of the original and, for many years, the only building on the campus. Out of it have gone a large number of Minnesota graduates; around it gather the college memories, not only of those to whom the University means the Main Building, but also of every class from the foundation of the institution to the present day.

"A considerable portion of the ruined masonry remains standing. Friends of the University, having considered the matter with some care, propose that, when the time comes for the removal of the ruins, an angle of these walls be preserved as a monument. Such a monument, covered with woodbine, at its base seats constructed of the old building-stones, would not only serve greatly to beautify the campus, but would also supply a unique and most fitting memorial of the early and struggling years of the University.

"Therefore, we the undersigned, faculty, students and alumni of the University of Minnesota, do respectfully petition the Board of Regents to preserve from demolition such an angle of the older walls for a permanent, dignified and significant memorial of the Old Main Building."

Printed copies of this petition will be ready for circulation in a few days.

PLAY TWO GAMES WITH NEBRASKA

Basketball Arranged with Cornhuskers—Practice Game with Holcomb Wednesday

Two games of basketball with Nebraska to be played Friday evening, Jan. 13, and Saturday afternoon, Jan. 14, have been added to the home schedule.

These, together with the game with Iowa in the Armory Friday night will make things interesting for the basket ball fans and will no doubt bring out a large crowd.

Little is known about either of the teams, but the Varsity quint is prepared for a hard contest with both of the visitors.

Coach Deering has brought the team into fine form for the opening games of the schedule, and the lineup for the Iowa game will be as follows: McRae and Varco, forwards; Tuck, center, and Helon Leach and Kiefer, guards.

Play Holcomb.

A practice game will be played in the Armory Wednesday evening with a team from Holcomb college, which will be of interest in getting a line up on the team for the coming game with Iowa.

A game with Chicago University has been added to the schedule and will be played on the trip, February 22, in Chicago.

Manager Reed is negotiating for a number of other games, and the schedule will soon be completed.

Elizabeth McLaughlin, '04, who is teaching in the St. Cloud High School, visited friends here last week

GYMNASTICS DAY.

Interest Lacking in Gym Work—No team Work.

Interest in special gym work at the Armory has suffered considerably this winter. Although there is an abundant year. Although there is an abundance of promising material at hand and instructors ready to give their time and knowledge to the training of the athletes in order to meet the representatives of other colleges, yet there is no evidence of team work at the gym.

Last year a full squad was out in earnest training for the intercollegiate meet. Our men went east and altho they did not carry off the highest honors, yet their work was highly commended and was very encouraging to the instructors. The University circus proceeds furnished the necessary means to send the team east. This year there is to be no circus and hence it seems no means for sending our men to the intercollegiate meet at Chicago in March. With the place of meeting so near, it is especially to be regretted that we cannot send out our men this year. A number of men are training daily, but interest is lacking, as there is nothing definite to which the men may look forward.

MINNESOTA VS. COLUMBIA.

"Strongheart" Greeted by University Audience Saturday Night.

Robert Edeson in "Strongheart" played before an enthusiastic University audience, Saturday night at the Metropolitan, and the result was a very good imitation of football night.

The lively college play was thoroly appreciated by the audience, especially in the "University dress circle," and "Ski-U-Mah," from the gallery helped along the football scene and added a touch of realism to the act.

ALUMNAE DEFEAT CENTRAL QUINT

Girls' Basketball Game Results in Score of 30 to 10 in Favor of Grads

Saturday evening the alumnae of Central High at the University defeated the Central High team by a score of 30 to 10.

It was apparent from the start that the University girls would be the winners, altho only one of the players was of the regular Varsity team.

The line-up was as follows:

Alumnae—Forwards: D. B. Resenstein, J. Bearns. Center; R. Harding; Guards: S. Frank, N. Stocking.

Central High—Forwards: C. Brown, R. Rosenstein ;Center: H. Truesdell; Guards: L. Brenner, E. Ueland.

The game itself was a clean one thruout, as the two fouls were caused by accidents.

Rowena Harding, captain of the alumnae team, in spite of a disabled finger, played a plucky game. M. Stocking, who is also trying for the Varsity team, made a good showing.

Of the fifteen baskets made by the alumni, Sylvia Frank shot seven, Dora B. Rosenstein, five, and Julia Bearnes, three. The star players on the Central team was Rhodessa Rosenstein, who made two baskets. The others on that team who won points were Wales, two baskets, and Brown, one.

SHAKOPEAN NOTICE.

The contest for the selection of the inter-society debating team will be held next Thursday, Jan. 12th. The meeting will begin promptly at 8 p. m.

CHALLENGE UNAUTHORIZED.

Freshman Class Has Not Yet Officially Cast Gauntlet.

Officers of the class of '08 wish it to be understood that the challenge to the Sophomore class recently printed in the Daily was unofficial, unauthorized and unsanctioned.

While the class fully intend to beard the second year men, it was decided to wait till the semester exams were over before anything was done.

Certain enthusiastic members, however, shoved the challenge into the columns of the Daily prematurely. These circumstances are understood by the president of the Sophomore class and nothing will be done until next semester by the promulgators of prospective class scraps.

MILITARY HOP.

Morgan's Myrmidons Disport Themselves After Drill Hour.

The first regular military hop of the year was held in the Armory Saturday after drill.

This custom, revived from last year, has become somewhat of an institution in Major Morgan's department. All cadets in uniform may participate in the dance this year.

UNIVERSITY LIBERAL ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the University Liberal Association was held Saturday evening in Dr. McClumpha's class room.

Miss Peck spoke on the subject, "Tendencies of the Modern Drama." Her address was one of considerable interest. Many were present.

WHO THEY ARE.

We publish in this issue the names, so far as we have been able to secure them, of all candidates for positions on the '07 Gopher board.

In addition to the names we have attempted to give some data which will indicate the experience and connections of the various candidates. So far as possible we have obtained these data from the candidates themselves.

This article is not published in the interest of any candidate or candidates, but solely for the information of our readers.

We will cheerfully correct in tomorrow's issue any errors and omissions which are brought to the attention of the editor of the day before four o'clock this afternoon.

THAT STAG CLUB.

That proposition of forming a Sophomore stag club is a good one. We hope it will meet with success.

For the men of the Sophomore class, or of any other class for that matter, to get together once in a while for a quiet little feed is an excellent idea. It not only means that they will have a good time but they also will become better acquainted, from which it naturally follows (especially in the case of the Sophomore class) that knowing each other better, they will like each other better. Which means there will be more class spirit and more college spirit. And we need never be afraid of having too much college spirit here.

If the men of '07 from their club, that bright genius who first suggested the idea will some day be considered a public benefactor.

SIGN IT.

Just a corner of crumbled masonry, vine-clad, and moss-grown off to one side of the campus—how is that for a memorial of Old Main some ten or fifteen years hence when you're a grad and you come back to look over old college scenes

Nothing could be simpler; nothing more beautiful.

No elaborate monument would give as artistic a touch to the campus, as that bit of a ruin around which there would cluster many fond, old associations. Nearly every college of any consequence has its traditions, some useless cherished old relics marking bygone days. Our campus is comparitively new, and as yet has acquired no traditions. It is time we were starting some.

The Liberal Association has taken up the matter of an Old Main Memorial and, we hope, will carry it to a successful completion. A petition to preserve a corner of the old building has been drawn up and will be presented to the regents.

That petition should be signed by every student at Minnesota.

Can you answer it?

"If three cats catch three mice in three minutes with all the cats working all the time how many rats will 100 kittens catch in one hour, provided a rat is twice as hard to catch as a mouse and two-thirds of the kittens stop half the time to eat the rats they have already caught?"—Ex.

FORCE MAKES FUN.

Tribune's Sporting Expert Ridicules Eastern Critics.

Frank Force in Sunday's Tribune rather takes the effect awe from Camp's and Whitney's All- nerican teams, by the following:

I have never seen an eastern eleven play football, and about the only eastern university football men of any note I ever met were Pudge Heffelfinger and Tom Shevlin. The Tribune had no man in the east delegated to follow the playing of the different teams, nor have I been able in any way to gain any first hand information about the class of football in that section. One or two papers came to me during the year containing accounts of games down beyond the Alleghenies, but they differed so in their reports on the abilities of the various men that I could neither make head nor tail as to which eleven really played the best football.

Therefore I feel competent at this time to pick an All-American team, as I surely cannot be accused of anything but fairness at this distance from the field of action.

First of all I would choose Tom Shevlin as end. I know Tom and would give him the position whether he ever played or not, as he gave me a ride in his automobile once when I was many miles from home. If I thought Tom would rather play center than end I would give him the job, but he knows how to play the former position, and might be put to a little extra trouble in getting onto the hang of passing a high ball.

Tom is a pretty good fellw and ought to have the place, for it is a long ways from Minneapolis to Yale and he surely has something coming to him after traveling that distance.

The old judge smoothed his massive brow,
And gazed upon his only Frow,
The tears were running down her cheeks
And the Judge himself had been sore for weeks.
"Well, Maud," quoth he, "if it makes you sad to cook for two,
To make you glad what can I do?"
Maud's face lit up as quick as could be,
"We'll go to 'The Austin' every day" said she.

He is just as nifty as the rest of the "fellers" down east, too, and I guess if our Tom isn't good enough for an All-American then there hadn't ought to be any.

Second I would make Tom Shevlin captain of the team, for I am well acquainted with Tom and he ought to have the place. He has been in the captain business as long as any of them and I don't know about any of the rest of them, so Tom gets the place in a canter.

At the other end I would put Borg of Nebraska. Borg does not look much like Tom, but if he did he would be a fine looking end, so there really does not seem to be another available candidate. Borg is nearly as big as Frank Gotch and may challenge Jeffries some day, so in him we have an ideal man for the other position.

When we come to the tackles we are confronted with a large field of fine men. Eckersall is a good punter and can run well in a broken field, while Sig Harris is built low to the ground and any offensive play would find difficulty in getting under him. Hazelwood of Illinois is very fast, while if I thought Tom Shevlin wanted the position I would prefer the Yale man.

The guards are easy. Johnson of Northwestern and Johnson of Nebraska get the places, and if this don't strike a popular chord in Minneapolis then I have not read the directory. One is an Indian and the other is a negro, and if anything got away from that pair, it would be so fast that the easteners could not see it.

There is but one man for center and this is Bill Kearney of the Tombstone, Ariz., Theological Seminary. Bill is a sure man with the ball and on several occasions has lost his voice yelling "I pass."

Piekarski is one halfback. A man with a Russian name can surely run in any direction. Camp picked this fellow as one of his guards, so I ought to be pretty near right in my selection anyway.

No other athletes of the different elevens are eligible for places, so in 1904 we find the deplorable condition of not being able to name enough candidates for the All-American eleven. Many good men appeared on the different teams, but their summer records are besmirched with professional checker and croquet playing and we are unable to find even one clean amateur for any of the remaining backfield positions.

If it were possible to name some other capable men for end we might place Tom Shevlin at one of the backfield positions. So the selection of a fullback at least will be postponed until I can hear from Tom, and if he wants the place he can have it.
