SOPHS PLAN VAUDEVILLE.

Academics Select Representative for All-College Committee.

The Sophomore Academic class at a meeting Thursday noon discussed the question of a vaudeville performance, plans for a candy sale and the class finances. Carl W. Painter was elected to represent the academic class at a general conference of the presidents and treasurers of the various other sophomore colleges, on the question of the vaudeville performance. It was also decided to hold a candy sale in all the buildings. A committee appointed by the president will determine the date of the sale and will have charge of the advertising. The treasurer reported that there was enough money on hand to pay their share of the all-sophomore debt.

THREE PRESIDENTS BILLED FOR QUARTERLY CENTENNIAL

Folwell, Northrop and Vincent Are On the Program for "Aggie" Celebration.

Twin City Men Will Speak Since Wilson and Bryan Are Unable To Attend.

Three presidents of the University of Minnesota will be among the speakers on the program for the quarter centennial celebration of the founding of the College of Agriculture at the university farm, which commences March 23 and lasts one week, providing Dr. William Watts Folwell, first president of the institution, is able to return from his winter home at Leonardtown, Md., early enough for the celebration. Dr. Folwell has written Superintendent D. D. Mayne of the farm school that he will be here if possible, although illness in the family kept him from attending the general alumni association's celebration of his eightieth birthday, February 14. President Emeritus Cyrus Northrop and President George E. Vincent will complete the list of presidents.

An effort was made to secure president elect Wilson, ex-president Roosevelt, and William Jennings Bryan as speakers, but these men were so engrossed in public affairs that they could not find the time to come to Minnesota. Superintendent Mayne

CONSIDER NEW MEDIC DEAN

Board of Regents Will Select Dean For School Of Medicine In April.

According to a report from President Vincent's office, a new dean will not be appointed to fill the vacancy created by Dean Westbrook's resignation until sometime in April. Several men, however, are being considered by the Board of Regents. Dean Westbrook's contract with the medical school does not expire until next August, and he will act as the head of that department until that time. The Dean's resignation comes as a result of his having accepted the presidency of Vancouver University, an institution which is in the course of construction at the present time.

SENIORS TO WEAR UNIFORM GARB IN ANNUAL PARADE

Professional Schools Will Be Distinguished by Colored Tassels On Caps.

Cap and Gown Day Set For April Third—Informal in The Evening.

For the first time in many years the seniors of all colleges will wear caps and gowns on Cap and Gown Day. In previous years the professional schools have been poorly represented in the annual parade but this year the colleges will all be distinguished by having different colored tassels on the caps of students from the different colleges. The Academic college is the only one that will wear the conventional black.

Cap and Gown Day has been set for April third.

The seniors of all colleges will gather at some convenient place and will then march to chapel for the customary exercises. In the evening the seniors will hold their second get-together. Complete arrangements will not be made until a later time.

There are only two days left in which to be measured for caps and gowns. All measurements must be taken at the Co-op. before March first. The gowns may be either bought or rented.

"AGGIES" WANT SECRETARY

Start Campaign To Raise $1500.00 for Permanent Y. M. C. A. Leader.

Over half of the $1500, necessary to procure a permanent Y. M. C. A. secretary for the Agriculture School and College, has already been raised. The campaign, which began with a mass meeting held in the auditorium of the Main Agricultural Building on Wednesday noon, has been very successful.

In the past a student secretary has been elected yearly to fill this position, but the duties have become so great that it was determined to obtain a man who could give all of his time to the work at the Agricultural College.

The fund was divided into two parts $1,000 of which was to be subscribed by the students and the remaining $500 by the faculty. President Vincent, Dr. Powell, Principal Mayne and representatives from the school and college spoke at the mass meeting.

A committee composed of seventy four students is now actively engaged securing subscriptions. Each member of the committee has been allotted ten students from whom he is expected to secure subscriptions. President Vincent and Dean Woods have each subscribed $100 and it is expected that the fifteen hundred dollar mark will soon be reached.

The choice of a man for the position has of course, not been definitely determined, but it is rumored that the present Y. M. C. A. secretary of Pierre, South Dakota, Lou Markham has been seriously considered as the man best fit for this position.

Fourth Informal Military Hop Proves Successful.

The fourth of the series of Cadet hops was given by the Cadet Corps yesterday afternoon at the University armory. An unusually large crowd was in attendance. The Cadet Hops which have successfully provided popular entertainment at the University are becoming increasingly popular since the Athletic Board of Control voted to discontinue the informal dances after basketball games. The University Band furnished music for the dancing. The hop was preceded by a company drill and the execution of Butt's Manual by one company.

CADET OFFICERS ARRANGE FOR ANNUAL MILITARY BALL

Military Organizations, Crack Squad, Scabbard and Blade, etc., To Be Represented.

Committee promises Novel Features Date Set For Friday April 18.

At a meeting of the officers of the University Cadet Corps yesterday, the date of the annual Military Ball was set for Friday, April 18th. The Military Ball will be held this year in the University armory as usual.

Colonel Robert Wilson, chairman of the committee, who has general charge of the Ball promises many new and novel features for this year's affair. The military organization of the University, the Crack Squad, Scabbard and Blade, etc. will have tents erected in the gymnasium and will participate in the entertainment. The ball will be carried out in true military fashion. The bugle will announce the opening of the dance, mess call, and the close of the dance, while the movements of parade, salute to the colors, and retreat will be executed on a small scale. The popular University Crack Squad will give an exhibition drill as a part of the entertainment. With the new floor for dancing in the armory, this year's Ball promises to be more popular than ever.

The number of tickets to the Military Ball will be limited to 100 this year and the price of tickets will be three dollars. The members of the Cadet Corps will be given the first opportunity to purchase tickets and then the remaining tickets will be offered to the public.

CADETS PLAN TOURNAMENT.

Lieut. Woolnough Arranges Inter-Company Games.

Commandant Woolnough is planning to arouse interest among the cadets by starting a movement towards a series of military tournaments, which will take place in the spring. As yet the plans are not definitely decided upon, but it is thought that there will be contests between the companies both in maneuvering and in athletic ability. These contests will no doubt arouse most of the cadets from their usual lethargy, and will give them an added interest in their drill. No definite date for these contests has been decided upon, but it is thought that they will take place sometime in May.

COOKE HOPEFUL OF GOPHER VICTORY TOMORROW NIGHT

Strong Team Developed From Reserves is Expected to Win Over Maroons.

"Rube" Johnson May Not Play. Lawler Shows Up Well. No Raise In Prices.

Minnesota will meet the Chicago university basketball quintet on the armory floor, Saturday night in a return game. Though Rube Johnson may not be back in the game, Doctor L. J. Cooke is hopeful of wresting victory away from the Maroons. Chicago has lost to Wisconsin twice, to Ohio, and to Purdue college, which was recently defeated by the Gophers. "If the boys play as they did in the Badger game, we will give them a mighty close rub," said Dr. Cooke yesterday.

Reserves Show Up Strong.

The team has been practicing regularly; Chauncey Smith, Jourgenson and Sawyer, among other reserves are showing up well. Indeed, a strong team has been developed from the second choice men. Lawler and McKeon are both in the best of shape and playing faster ball than ever. It has not been definitely decided yet how the line up will be, but it is probable there will be some shifts that will augur well for the success of the Gopher five on Saturday night.

Provide Substitute For Dancing.

The athletic management, in order to provide additional attraction for Saturday evening has put on a preliminary game between the fast freshman team, and the Varsity all stars. "Bill" Clarke, Robilliard, Rosenwald, Hawke, Frank Lawler, and the Giltinen brothers have promised to be there to play a game of truly all-star basketball. The Freshmen line-up will be chosen from the following list: Pynn, Lewis, Hall, Sylvester, and young Bierman, with Rosenwald as center, Lawler and Robilliard as forwards, and the places at guard filled by other former stars, the all-star team hopes to play a game that will rival the later conference game

No Raise In Prices.

The price of tickets for the events Saturday night has not been raised as rumored around the campus. The management seeks to replenish its treasury rather by drawing a larger crowd than by raising the price of admission. The regular rule of 75c. for reserved seats and 50c. general admission holds for the big Chicago game. The band and Rooter King Johnson will be there as usual.

The line up for Saturday night will perhaps be as follows:

Minnesota	Chicago
Chauncey Smith	R. F. Norgren
McKeon	L. F. Yruink
Wipperman	Center Des Jardien
Jourgenson	R. G. Molander
"Bee" Lawler	L. G. Bell
Minnesota reserves:	Hasby and Sawyer.
Chicago reserves:	Stevenson, Kennedy and Baumgartner.

Senior vs. Sophomore Girls.

The girls' inter-class basketball game between the seniors and sophomores, will be held in the armory, at 5 P. M., today. No admission will be charged and all girls are cordially invited to attend.

We publish today a reply to an editorial appearing in this column yesterday, from a member of the University Glee Club, aggrieved because the Daily with its unfortunate want of a critical sense of technique in music, expressed the humble opinion that the club was not as good as it might be, together with the hint that perhaps healthy competition, stimulated by the appearance of fifty or sixty candidates for the club would improve matters. Far be it from the Daily to gainsay the musical critics of its country contemporaries,—we have written such criticisms ourselves in emergencies—or the modest assertion, (or is it an admission?) of an unsigned member of the organization that our glee club is fully equal in every respect to those of Harvard, Yale, or Oberlin. We are delighted to learn that Rochester considered the glee concert as comparing so favorably with that given by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, but, when right here at home a member of the senior class exclaims, "I didn't know we had a glee club," we rise to inquire, Why is it?

Communications

To the Editor of the Daily:—
Perhaps, before the editor of this illustrious sheet passes judgment upon an organization such as the University Glee Club, it would be wise for him to get a little reputation as a musical critic. Of course real and just criticism of any organization is a strong and effective agent in producing results but such criticism as was passed upon the Glee Club in the editorial column of Thursday's Daily showed not only lamentable ignorance of real facts regarding the personnel of the club but also a lack of knowledge in regard to last summer's "University Week."

If the editor of the Daily will make a comparison of the receipts of the different entertainments offered on the University Week's programme, he will find, with the possible exception of the Dramatic Club's performance, that the Glee Club concert receipts greatly exceeded those of any of the other offerings. Also, if he will look at the criticisms given the club by the local newspapers he may discover that the Glee Club was not such a disappointment to the various communities as his editorial would lead the readers of the Daily to believe.

For example, the Rochester paper says, "no other musical organization, with the exception of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra that has ever been in Rochester could favorably compare with the University Glee Club, whose concert was one of the most enjoyable events of the University Week." In fact, if the editor can find any adverse criticism of the club's work last summer, I for one, would be glad to read it. The writer of this communication has been on the Glee Club for four years and in my judgment no Glee club performance in the past three years could equal in finish and completeness the concerts given by the Glee Club last summer. I have heard other glee clubs of the country including those of Yale, Harvard and Oberlin, all of which came high in glee club work and I can frankly and truthfully state that I would only be too glad of the chance to give our concert, such as was given last summer, to the same audience as the other three clubs and leave the ranking of the four clubs to an impartial judge.

Also, the personnel of the club is not large enough to suit the editor's taste. If he can find any more singers with voices to equal those in the present club and who are also clear of any scholastic difficulties the Glee Club would be greatly obliged to receive information as to where these individuals can be found.

If our critical editor would devote his energy in obtaining some sort of

A Senior.

To the Editor of the Daily:

The Cap and Gown committee after considering the terms of various companies decided to award the contract for caps and gowns to the E. R. Moore Co. of Chicago and the Co-op. was appointed as agents to handle both the sale and rental gowns.

Under these conditions we do not wish to be responsible either for service or quality of gowns which are being offered by other companies and it is not only fair to the committee that the seniors abide by the contract made by them as representatives of their class?

POWELL SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

Issues List of Books Which May Serve As Bibliography of Social Progress.

"The supreme thing which constitutes the organic character of the social body is the law of mutual relationship and dependence among its members, the law of solidarity," said Rev. Powell in a lecture on "The Social Law" in chapel yesterday.

"Every kind of activity" said Dr. Powell "is to be judged by the contribution it makes to the lives of men. As the state is not an end but a means, so the chief purpose of human life is the development and self-realization of men and women."

"Not getting but giving is the true law of life. The law of service governs individuals for we must minister to others in order to attain the highest happiness and well-being."

While Rev. Powell has only sought to out-line the various factors in Social Progress in his series of lectures to students, he recommends the following classified books to those wishing to delve deeper into the problem:

Of the earlier works, "Social Aspects of Christianity"—R. T. Ely; "Social Evolution"—Benj. Kidd; "The New Era"—Josiah Strong; and "Christianity and Social Problems"—Lyman Abbott.

More recent books can be classified according to authors as follows:

1. By ministers—"The New Crusade"—C. E. Jefferson; "The Church and Modern Life," "Some Forces of Christianity and Socialism"—J. Strong; "Christianity's Storm Center"—Chas. Stelzle; "The Ethics of Jesus"—H. King; "The Ethics of Jesus"—J. Stalkes.

2. By Theological Professors, "The Church and the Changing Order," S. Matthews; "Jesus Christ and the Social Question," "The Approach to the Social Question," F. G. Peabody; "Christianity and the Social Crisis," W. Rauschenbusch.

3. By Social Workers, "The Spirit of Youth and the City Streets," "Twenty Years in Hull House," "A New Conscience and an Ancient Evil," Jane Addams; "Spiritual Significance of Socialism," J. Spargot.

4. By College Professors: "Sin and Society," "Social Control", E. A. Ross; "Social Basis of Religion", S. Patten; "Misery and its Causes," E. Devine

PLAN NOVEL WATER CONTEST FOR SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Fancy Diving, Distance, Plunge and Speed Swimming among Events On Program.

Fraternalities Will Send Teams To Compete For Cup In a Relay Race.

Water contests of every description will be held in the swimming pool in the armory tomorrow at 2:45 P. M. This is a departure from the usual contests and is somewhat of an innovation. Any student who desires may enter the events.

The name of the winner of any one of these events will be put upon a plaque, which will adorn the wall of the natorium, and later in the prospective University trophy room.

At the end of the interscholastic meet there will be an interfraternity relay cup-race. Each competing fraternity will have a team of four men. The distance for each man being two lengths of the pool. This cup is very similar to the inter-fraternity basketball trophy, and will be subject to the same conditions, i.e. the cup will go to the winners for one year, and the first team which succeeds in securing it a second time will be privileged to keep it.

The events in order are scheduled as follows:

40 yard dash, 40 yard back stroke, plunge for distance, 60 yard breast stroke, fancy diving, 80 yard dash one-quarter mile swim, inter-fraternity relay.

This meet is exciting much interest, and owing to the smallness of the natorium, visitors are advised to come early. Ten cents admission will be charged.
