Megan Marie Marshall is a senior at the University of Minnesota Duluth. She will be graduating with a Bachelor of Music Degree this spring. She has been playing the horn since 7th grade and hasn't put it down since. She started early with honor bands, participating every year since 8th grade at various schools throughout the area, including University of Minnesota Duluth, University of Wisconsin Superior, and St. Olaf. She was also lucky enough to participate in the Minnesota All-State program her junior and senior years of high school. She participated in solo competitions every year and received superior ratings each year. Because of her early connection with UMD, starting in her junior year of high school, she was also able to play in the pit orchestra at the Duluth Playhouse throughout her junior and senior years in the musicals Peter Pan and Once Upon a Mattress. Her musical endeavors have not slowed down one bit since starting at UMD in the fall of 2007. Throughout the last four years, Megan has subbed in the Ashland Symphony, and Duluth-Superior Symphony Orchestra. She has also performed with the Festival Orchestra three of the last four years for the Nutcracker. In the summer of 2008, she played in the Sir Duluth Opera Festival. She has also been very active in various ensembles at UMD, including the Symphony Orchestra, Symphonic Wind Ensemble, quintets, Chamber Orchestra, Vocal Jazz and Concert Chorale. She plans to further her musical education next year by starting on her Master's Degree at the University of Texas, Austin under Pat Hughes.
