NUMBER I

COLLEGE OPENS; REGISTRATION SEPT. 6

Six New Members Added to State College Faculty

Two Have Doctor's Degrees; Remaining Four Master's Degrees.

Six new members have been added to the faculty here. Two of this number have Ph. D. degrees and have had several year's experience in leading universities and colleges.

Dr. L. N. Vernon, who is a graduate of Northwestern University and of the University of Iowa, will be the head of the music department; he will be assisted by Miss Dorothea Doig. Miss Doig is a graduate of the University of Rochester.

Dr. Charles N. Saltus will instruct in the English department. He will also act as faculty adviser for the Fortnightly Chronicle. Dr. Saltus is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Jeanette Bruce is the newly appointed assistant for the third grade of the training school. She is a graduate of the University of Iowa.

Miss Marie H. Williams is to act as assistant to the librarian. She received her masters degree at the University of Minnesota.

Dr. George S. Crofield of Clark University will substitute for George H. Primmer, who is on a year's leave of absence.

Class Groups Plan To Meet Soon After Registration

Three class organizations of last year plan to meet as soon as possible after registration is completed. The fourth year class meeting has been called by its president, Roy Teppen, for Thursday noon, September 8. They will meet in room 301.

James Minogue will preside at the third year class meeting scheduled for Wednesday noon, September 7, in the auditorium.

The second year class will meet in the auditorium Thursday noon, September 8, to nominate their candidates for the offices of class president, secretary, and member-at-large. Walter Mattson will preside.

A meeting of students enrolled for first year work will be called by the student council. A definite date will be posted as soon as possible.

The program of courses included in this issue is at present tentative. Any changes will be posted on the bulletin board and announced in assembly.

NEW PUBLICATION IS FIRST OFFICIAL ISSUE

Handbook Material Included To Aid New Students.

This issue of the Fortnightly Chronicle marks the beginning of a student newspaper here. Last year during the spring quarter a mimeographed "News Sheet" was issued every two weeks and was received by over two hundred subscribers. Prior to this, the college published a quarterly of news items. Two of the numbers of this publication comprised the annual college catalog and the summer session announcements.

The Fortnightly Chronicle will be issued bi-weekly during the school year and distributed free to the students. The subscription price is included in the fee paid at the time of registration.

This issue includes a part of the material that is being prepared for the students' handbook which will appear during the school year.

Dr. Charles N. Saltus has been appointed faculty adviser for this publication. Student staff members will undoubtedly be appointed before the next issue.

Last Year's Council Calls Extra Session

The student council composed of class officers of last year met Thursday, September 1, to discuss plans for registration day. The old council headed by Roy Teppen, and composed of Helen Stewart, Leonard Gagnon, Mae Peterson, Harriet Dart, Lee Bergsman, James Minogue, Lloyd Burley, Walter Mattson, Mildred Omtvedt, and Gordon Miniclier will continue to function until new class officers are elected. As soon as the four classes are organized and have chosen their officers, counselors, and delegates-at-large, the new student governing body will be installed.

Members of the council represent their classes, and plan the social calendar for the school year.

Registration Today Will Undoubtedly Show Big Increase

Courses Now Offer Majors And Minors In Many Special Fields.

Enrollment today is expected to reach the highest mark in the history of the college. Three years ago 344 students including three men were registered. Last fall the total registration jumped to 521 with a male enrollment of 109. The student body has grown approximately 100 students per year since 1929. The adoption of the four-year curriculum and the revision of the law for the certification of teachers has resulted in an increased enrollment here.

As a further result of the revision of the certification law, a number of new courses are now offered in special fields. It is possible for a student in the four-year course to major or minor in the fields of fine arts, industrial arts, music and physical education.

Two new courses have been added in the English Department. Dr. Saltus will teach English 405 (Browning-Tennyson), and English 206 (Survey of English Literature.)

Dr. Vernon will teach Philosophy 301, and conduct an acapella choir during the fourth hour. Both are new courses here.

President's Message

It has been desirable to have the first number of this publication ready for distribution on the opening day of the thirty-first annual session. The accomplishment of this purpose has made it impossible to arrange for an organization to carry the responsibility for the coming year, as well as the present number. For that reason I make use of the opportunity to acknowledge full responsibility for the somewhat informal character of the advent of the Fortnightly Chronicle, Volume One, Number One. At the same time I bespeak for it a cordial welcome.

E. W. BOHANNON.

A WORD OF WELCOME

Taciturnity may sometimes be called a virtue, but at a time like this it is hard to keep from shouting, "Welcome!"

There are many to welcome into our midst. Six new members on the teaching staff, and many times that number of new students.

We are all so glad that you have come that we put aside our reserve and heartily welcome you by saying, "Hello."

TURNING A CORNER

Following a summer of many pleasant experiences, the average college student welcomes the opportunity that registration day begins for him. By some strange trick the college welcomes him too. Another year of college for anyone with an appetite for work as healthy as a bear's hunger will repeatedly challenge the young man or woman who would extend his vacation by attendance.

Each fall many high school graduates choose the teachers college as the avenue to a profession which will allow them the expression of their best. In this group, too, and we say it in a tone of sadness, are to be found some who would extend their high school days or prolong their vacation. They are at a loss when afforded new privileges and liberties. They long for the characteristic high school supervision which arbitrarily guided them in the past. They find it not.

Vacation and high school days are over. We must bear the responsibilities which an advance in years and an increase in liberties and privileges gives us. We must sink—or swim.

HOW ABOUT IT?

"Success consists not so much in sitting up nights as being awake in the daytime." This is an old "timer" but, oh, what a wealth of good sense it contains! Whether you believe it or not matters little, for whether you do or not, you'll have to abide by it. Even if you are "free white, and twenty-one" and with the world on your shoulders, you can't get away with it to use a slang expression.

Being awake in the daytime brings to one's mind not only being mentally alert but being there when you should be. Most of your errors in exams, if you are at least an average student, are due to the fact that on some certain day when the "prof" stressed a particular point, you had had a pleasant evening the night before, consequently were a little in need of sleep, and decided to recuperate by taking the day off. Now weren't you? You have heard many a student say, "He must have taken that up when I was absent. I guess I'll try to be there more; we always miss something important when we're out." That always seems to be the general statement after a quiz.

It is difficult to make some students realize the importance of attending classes regularly. It is important; it is necessary; it is to your advantage that you do things regularly; experience of others has taught some of us that. We just thought we would pass it along to you. Won't you accept a bit of our experience?

PLAN YOUR COURSE

How impossible of success would have been Col. Lindbergh's epoch making flight had he not considered proper plans to the smallest detail! Only Chance would have crowned such an undertaking—and Chance lays very few crowns indeed. The pages of history, however, are crowded with illustrations of rich rewards for thoughtful planning and faithful execution.

At the beginning of another school year, it does not seem improper to be reminded that we should look ahead to see the desired end of our striving. Many of us are here for the first time. Experience will teach such students much, but why leave it all to experience when a little planning NOW will assure a greater success in the future?

If your question is which course—the two-year or the four-year, one of the program committee will gladly help you come to a satisfactory decision by answering any question you do not find answered in the college catalog. The sub-committee, composed of older students, was created to help new students. They, too, will be glad to be of any possible assistance.

The State Teachers College of our city has graduated an increasingly large number each succeeding year. If you expect to be among the graduates at the end of this school year, you will do well to plan a program that will bring you in for a thrilling finish on the last lap of your college course.

Of course, PLAN YOUR COURSE.

Those who have worked on this first issue of the Fortnightly Chronicle during the summer months have labored with considerable humility. Any suggestions you may offer for the improvement of our publication will help them and benefit you. Communications in the form of letters to the editor are welcome. Leave them in the News Office.

Information for Students

The material below is a part of the Handbook to be published soon.

Credits. The unit of credit is the quarter which requires twelve class room periods of fifty minutes or twelve laboratory periods of one hundred minutes. Each course, therefore, leads to four quarter hours of credit.

Grading Plan. Five grades are given for work of various degrees of merit: A—excellent, B—very good, C—average, D—passing and E—failure. Each credit with the grade of A carries three honor points per quarter hour; the grade of B, two honor points; the grade of C, one honor point; the grade of D, no honor points and the grade of E, minus one honor point per quarter hour. The minus one penalty may be removed by repeating the course when it is counted at its higher level only. A maximum of four courses may be repeated to raise grades. Any course not finished at the end of a term or quarter is marked incomplete. If the incomplete is not removed within the next quarter of attendance the grade is recorded as E. Whenever numerical values are ascribed to the letters, A is 93; B, 87; C, 82 and D, 77.

No student can begin student teaching or be recommended for graduation in either the two or four year curriculum unless he has an average of one honor point per quarter hour of credit. Students whose standings fall below this average are not eligible for transfer to another of the Minnesota State Teachers Colleges. This standard will be applied in considering the applications for admission of students from all other institutions of collegiate rank.

A student who in any quarter makes only half or less than half as many honor points as quarter hours of credit is placed on probation. Any such student on probation who at the end of the next quarter of residence does not receive more than half as many honor points as quarter hours of credit automatically discontinues and can not re-enter except on approval of the administration.

Classification. Forty eight quarter hours of credit is the maximum that can be earned in one year. Students who have an honor point ration of one are classified in the following way: those having a minimum of forty quarter hours of credit are second year students; those having a minimum of eighty-eight quarter hours are third year students and those with a minimum of one hundred thirty six quarter hours of credit are fourth year students.

Student Load. The maximum number of quarter hours of credit which can be earned in one term is sixteen. Students whose records fall below C grade quality will have their program reduced to twelve quarter hours.

No student earning all or the greater part of the cost of support while in attendance will be allowed more than twelve quarter hours the first term unless his record shows him to have belonged definitely to the upper twenty-five per cent of his class in high school. Any such student not earning less than twelve quarter hours with an honor point ratio of two will be permitted to carry sixteen quarter hours the next ensuing term. Such permission will be given by the Registrar.

Attendance, Absence and Tardiness. Students are expected to attend all classes and assemblies. Tardiness is to be accounted for to the teachers; absence is to be reported to the Registrar in advance of the return to the class or classes from which a student was absent. Whenever, in the opinion of the Registrar or the teacher concerned, the absences are of such character or number as to interfere with the quality of the student's work they will be referred to the Committee on Programs. This committee will determine whether the student shall be allowed to continue with a full program or to take the final examinations in all of the courses at the beginning of the term.

Changes in a student's program can be made only by the Program Committee. Students who fail to comply with this regulation will be excluded from further attendance in the College.

If a student, after the first half of any quarter, be allowed to drop a subject in which he is then failing, the grade will be recorded as failure.

Students who wish to withdraw from the College must notify the Registrar's office.

Student Activities Fee. The receipt for the student's activities fee, amounting to $3.50, is used as a ticket of admission to all school activities and athletic events and should be kept for that purpose.

It should be understood by the students that the money derived from the activities fee is used to cover cost of admission to entertainments, athletic events, student gatherings and the publication of the Chronicle, both the annual and bi-weekly issues.

Living Accomodations. Any student whose home is not in the city is to understand that every arrangement for a place to live must be made with the knowledge and approval of the school. The young women are to report to the Dean of Women and the young men to the Registrar's office.

If the Glee Club and Chapel Choir members of last year will present their Record Books to the Registrar, she will record their credit at once.

To spare the Administration embarrassment, we are reminded that we have a gentlemen's agreement to refrain from smoking while on the campus.

Seven Games Included In Football Schedule

First Game With Mankato To Be Played There On October 1.

With a tough football schedule before the team, every able-bodied man in school should report for practice this fall if a creditable eleven is to be developed. Some veteran material from last year remains, which will furnish the backbone of the new team, but new material is urgently needed, stated Coach Peterson today.

The team's first trip of the year, to Mankato State Teachers College, will be its longest. The complete football schedule is as follows:

- Oct. 1. Mankato at Mankato.
- Oct. 8. Moorhead at Duluth.
- Oct. 15. Virginia at Virginia.
- Oct. 22. Eveleth at Eveleth.
- Oct. 29. Duluth Junior College at Stadium.
- Nov. 4. Superior at Superior.
- Nov. 11. Bemidji at Duluth.

Alumni News

We hope we'll be seeing you at the State M.E.A. Convention in St. Paul. Plans are being completed for our annual meeting and banquet to be held at the St. Paul Hotel, Friday, October 28, at 6 p. m.

The Women's Club of Duluth was the scene of an attractive bridge party sponsored by the Alumni for the summer students at the college. Other activities are being planned along similar lines for the fall.

The representatives appointed by the president of the Alumni are requested to attend a meeting and tea at the home of Mrs. Mayme Brockway, 1614 East Third Street, on September 22, at 4 o'clock.

Miss Rose Buckley is chairman of the nominating committee preparing a slate of officers to be elected at the meeting at St. Paul Hotel, October 28.

May we be permitted to be among the first to doff our hats to the enterprise of the Teachers College students in starting this paper. It's a glorious feeling to have a paper of our own.

W. A. A. PLANS

Girls' athletics for the fall term will be centered around a program of soccer football. Teams representing the first, second, third, and fourth year classes will be organized under the direction of Miss Harrison to compete against each other later in the season.

Also included in the fall activities are an athletic assembly program for girls, and a return play day with Junior college, both of which are under the direction of the Women's Athletic Association.

It takes great quantities of flowers to make a small amount of perfume.

"Of the many evils of the hour, the greatest of all in many respects is indifference. We can fight the enemy who will fight: we can overcome obstacles and tunnel through difficulties, but the atmosphere of indifference kills and withers all movements and plans of life."
