

Immediate Release

UMD NEWS SERVICE
724-8801 Ex 210
Oct. 15, 1964

Duluth --- Seven UMD English department faculty members will conduct poetry readings during fall quarter.

All the sessions are open to the public and will be held 3:30 p.m. in Room 403 Humanities building.

Fred E. H. Schroeder, instructor, will read selected poems by Emily Dickinson, Thomas Gray, T. S. Eliot and others on Oct. 22.

Dr. Wendell P. Glick, professor, will present poems by Edward Taylor on Oct. 29.

Dr. Joseph E. Duncan, associate professor, will present poems of the Restoration Period on Nov. 5.

Dr. Lewis D. Levang, associate professor, will read translated poems of Rainer Maria Rilke on Nov. 12.

Donald J. Weiss, instructor, will present poetry by A. E. Housman on Nov. 19.

Miss R. Joanne Fields, lecturer, will present alliterative poems on Dec. 3.

And Dr. Albert Tezla, professor, will read "Lyrics and Story of a Child's Christmas in Wales" by Dylan Thomas on Dec. 10.