

U Enrollments Top '44 Spring Quarter Mark

Chasins to Play Own Pieces Today

University enrollment is 14 per cent larger this quarter than it was at the beginning of spring quarter last year. According to figures released yesterday by True E. Pettingill, acting director of admissions and records, 7,724 students are now enrolled as compared with 6,754 at this time last year.

Gains have been made in most of the larger divisions of the University with the Arts college showing a 20 per cent gain, enrollment rising from 2,269 to 2,734.

Law school, which had an enrollment of 43 has had a 51 per cent rise with 65 students now enrolled. A 75 per cent gain was shown in General college where the enrollment figure was 266 a year ago and now is 468.

Losses in enrollment are in the Institute of Technology, down one per cent and Medical school and School of Dentistry. These went down 14 and 28 per cent respectively, because of graduations during the school year.

All candidates must prepare 12 copies of their statements of qualifications and 12 copies of the proposed policies and plans. They will appear before the Board of Publications at a meeting on April 12.

Abram Chasins, noted American composer and pianist, will open the spring quarter Convocation series with a program of piano music at 11:30 a.m. today in Northrop auditorium.

Mr. Chasins is described as one of the few American composers to achieve international recognition and is the first American to have his works performed by an orchestra under Toscanini.

He was born of a poor family and his early training in music came because his parents gave up all their resources to his musical education.

His father refused an offer for the young pianist to play the piano as a child prodigy in a vaudeville show at $100 a week.

Later Mr. Chasins took a job teaching music in a settlement house two days a week for $2 a lesson. Soon after, he was awarded the scholarship to Julliard and he started on his rise to fame.

When Mr. Chasins presents the Convocation program today, he will play the Brahms Rhapsody in E Flat, and the Impromptu in F Sharp Major, the Etudes, Opus 25, No. 1 and Opus 10, No. 5, the Nocturne in D Flat and the Scherzo in C Sharp Minor.

Concluding the program he will play his own "Three Chinese Pieces," "A Shanghai Tragedy," "Flirtation in a Chinese Garden," and "Rush Hour in Hongkong," and the Schvanda Fantasy. Mr. Chasins will conduct master classes tomorrow and Saturday for all piano students in the music department and music teachers who have registered for the class.

He will speak on Bach style at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the music library using as his demonstration piece the Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue. At 2 p.m. Saturday he will speak on "Analysis in Relation to Teaching and Interpretation" using as his demonstration piece the Mozart Piano Concerto in A Major, Koechel 488.

New House Bills May Lower Vet Fees, Up Stipend

By Dick Kaplan

University veterans under the GI bill may receive tuition reductions in accord with three bills now before the state house of representatives, according to Joseph W. Finley, chairman of the legal committee, department of Minnesota, American Legion.

The first suggests elimination of tuition for veterans at the University now receiving benefits under the GI bill. The second advocates charging resident veterans under the GI bill resident fees instead of the non-resident tuition now charged them.

Aim for Freedom

Indians Discuss Native Problems

Aspects of social, religious and political problems which India faces today were discussed by three speakers from India at a meeting yesterday of the Inter-cultural Education commission.

Guest speakers were Ralla Ram, general secretary of the Student Christian Movement of India, Burma and Ceylon; Zillah Soule, of India, a teacher who is now working for her master's degree at Columbia; and Khazan Singh, a member of the administrative committee of the United Church of Northern India.

Mr. Ram expressed the idea that the Christian church in India is intensely interested in the nationalist movement. He said that student groups in India are politically minded and that complete political freedom is their goal.

Progressive Candidates Will Explain Platforms

Candidates of the Progressive party will be introduced and explain their platforms at a rally at 7:30 p.m. today in the Great hall of the YMCA.

Hubert H. Humphrey, Minneapolis mayorality candidate, who was scheduled to speak will not be able to attend the rally. He will speak at a meeting next week.

WLB Will Change Call Letters to KUOM

Authority has been granted to the University to change the call letters of WLB to KUOM. The UOM will stand for "University of Minnesota."

These bills probably will have a hard time passing, and they would not be very effective if they did pass, Mr. Finley said, because the Board of Regents fixes tuition rates charged by the University. The state legislature only can suggest rates and changes.

The third bill may go through and would help student veterans in the Schools of Medicine and Dentistry by supplementing with a total of $250 a man the $500 a year now given veterans by the federal government. Medical and dental students have had difficulty in meeting their expenses with the allotment they now receive.

Money now used by the veteran trainees for educational expenses will come out of future bonuses under the existing GI bill. Legislation now in the state legislature would prohibit this section and would order remuneration to veterans who had already had such expenses withdrawn from bonuses.

The Veterans Memorial bill, which recently won the approval of the senate committee on civil administration, is now on house general orders, said Rep. Larry Haig of Minneapolis, and well down on the list. There are less than three weeks left in the session and most of that time will be spent on bills which are on special orders.

To get onto special orders, a motion must be made for the bill, and the motion must then receive a two-thirds vote of the house or 88 votes. As the Memorial bill has received strong opposition, there is some doubt as to its chances of being allowed onto special orders, in which case it would be a dead pigeon for this session. It would have to be started from scratch next session if its proponents want to have it passed, Haig said.

4,100 Teen-agers Buy Tickets for 'Shrew' Showings

By Ardis Rufsvold

"The Taming of the Shrew," which opens at the University Theater Monday, will be witnessed by no less than 4,100 Minneapolis high school students.

Ticket sales to the schools reached an all-time high yesterday when the last tickets for seven special performances were sold.

"We managed to arrange seven performances for Minneapolis high schools but we had enough orders to fill 10," Minnie Brill, publicity director, said yesterday.

According to Mrs. Brill, any doubt of Shakespeare's ability to appeal to student audiences should have been dispelled last April when thousands of teen-agers saw the University Theater's production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

Performances of "The Taming of the Shrew" open to the general public begin at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday and continue through April 15, when a special twilight performance will be given at 4 p.m.

All performances are in the Music hall.

Young Hits Opposers Of 'Woods' Proposals

Persons who are opposed to the Bretton Woods proposals are not convinced that it is to our national interest to promote foreign trade.

That was the belief expressed last night by Forrest Young, professor of economics at Macalester college, when he spoke before the second ward Democratic-Farmer-Labor club on the Bretton Woods proposals at the Wesley foundation.

"Bankers," said Mr. Young, "object to the making of short term loans by an international monetary fund set up by the agreements. They feel that such loans could be made by the banks, or that the credit rating of countries applying for loans should be passed on by a committee."

It is the opinion of Britain, however, he said, that it isn't necessary for a committee to pass on the credit rating of a country.

"Science is making us more dependent," said Mr. Young. "Because of it, we need raw materials from the ends of the earth. We must cater to the world's market and not hamper foreign trade in such a manner," he said.

Let's raid the icebox... Have a Coca-Cola

... a way to make a party an added success Have a Coke are words that make the kitchen the center of attraction for the teen-age set. For Coca-Cola never loses the freshness of its appeal, nor its unflinching refreshment. No wonder Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes from Maine to California,—has become a symbol of happy, refreshing times together everywhere.

Gopher Balance Sheet: Weak Line Debit; Backfield Asset

A veteran-studded backfield running behind an extraordinarily weak line, the first the asset and the second the debit, faces Gopher football Coach Bernie Bierman today as he continues to run candidates for next fall through their spring quarter scrimmages.

Most of the familiar names on the list of those out for practice now are remembered as holding down key backfield spots on last fall's squad.

On the line, Bierman is not quite so lucky, having only a small part of his regular forward wall of last season out for the present drills.

Particularly perplexing is the question of filling center, tackle and end positions. There is only one returning veteran in each of these spots, so line coach Dr. George Hauser is looking toward the incoming V-12 units and the fall freshman class for replenishment.

Dick Van Dusen, regular pivot-man last season is the only experienced center in sight at present, a condition which is the same at end and tackle with only Tom Reinhardt and Bill Marcotte returning to these posts.

Van Dusen will be able to play only a part of this fall's season, since he receives his ensign's commission in NROTC some time in early October.

Only a small proportion of the men on last fall's squad who are eligible for spring practice have reported so far. Bierman has 26 men working out regularly, of whom only 10 are repeaters from last year's varsity.

Seven lettermen halfbacks from last year's squad will be back eventually, with only two working out regularly at present. Bob Kasper and Bud Gullickson have been in regular attendance at the practices since the beginning of the quarter.

Besides these, Johnny Lundquist, Phil McManus and Tom Cates probably will be out within a week or two. Red Williams and Mutzy Nolan both will be tied up with their baseball duties during spring quarter and will not be out until fall.

Merlin Kispert, rugged V-12 who quarterbacked through most of last season, has reported regularly, with Dale Rappana, his understudy last year, expected out soon to share his berth.

In the tailback spot, two men are also eligible, Vic Kulbitski and Hockey Mealey. Neither has appeared for the spring practice as yet. Mealey will be on the baseball squad this quarter.

Kulbitski carried most of the fullback load after his mid-season return last year, but was ably upheld by powerful Mealey.

Kulbitski is in school this quarter, but is busy with his studies, while Mealey will probably hold down the regular catcher's berth on the 1945 diamond squad.

Another bright spot in the Gopher backfield future is occasioned by the return of Earl Bruhn, brother of Milt Bruhn, who played guard on Minnesota's undefeated national championship team of 1934.

Both Bob Jensen and John Kutscheid, stellar letterman guards from last season, are on the regular practice list. This position will be quite strong, with both Davy Day and Bob Graiziger expected out for the fall season.

65 File for Election

Sixty-five candidates were approved for election by the All-University council last night. Filing closed yesterday. A proposed constitutional amendment making the president of the Union board a member of the President's cabinet will be voted on by the student body in the April 13 general election.

20 Racquetters Report To Open Tennis Season

Prospects for a promising Gopher tennis team during the coming season looked a little brighter than Coach Phil Brain expected after yesterday's first meeting of candidates in Cooke hall at which 20 names were registered.

Previous to yesterday's meeting Brain hadn't viewed the year with a great deal of optimism, but after seeing what he will have to work with during 1945, his pessimism changed to the point where he forecast "at least a better-than-average season."

John Adams, last year's ace, did not report for the meeting, but is figured on heavily this year.

Bernard Herman, another of last season's lettermen, was on hand and is expected to supply the team with some additional power.

Among the brightest prospects who reported for the first time yesterday were two V-12 boys, L. P. Wines and Charles Kitchen. Both have played in fast competition with service teams in Oregon and California.

Several others registered for the squad should add more talent to the team. All boast experience with high school or college teams.

Jack Burnstein, from Southwest high, played tennis there and also in the state meet last year.

N. W. Julian, who played on the freshman team in 1942, reported back after three years' absence. Also, Francis Nordeen, Dave Huber and Charles Lambert, all who have had college experience, will be on deck.

From the 20 men signed up today, Coach Brain believes he will be able to draw an abundance of experienced players, enough to go through the season with a good record—near to the undefeated class.

Speaking of Operations!

An invasion fleet of several hundred warships uses some 48,000 telephones—from 1,500 on a battleship to 10 on a motor torpedo boat. That's as many as are used by most cities of 160,000!

Our fighting men are using telephones, wire, switchboards, and other communications equipment in huge quantities. And Western Electric workers, peacetime suppliers to the Bell System, are busy meeting those needs.

That is why there are not enough home telephones right now. But we are looking forward to the day when the Bell System can again provide telephone service to anyone, anywhere, at any time.
