UMC Women's Basketball Adds Wisconsin Point Guard Michaelis to Signing Class

CROOKSTON, Minn. – The University of Minnesota Crookston basketball program announced the signing of Caitlin Michaelis (G, 5-8, Marshfield, Wis./Marshfield H.S.) to a National Letter of Intent to begin playing for the Golden Eagles during the 2015-16 season. Michaelis joins Lindsey Weber (F, 5-11, Delafield, Wis./Kettle Moraine H.S.) as signees with the Golden Eagles.

"Caitlin is a player that will bring a lot of talent to our back court," said UMC Head Coach Mike Roysland. "She has the ability to stretch the court with her shooting ability and does a great job as a point guard of seeing the floor and getting the ball to everyone. She also does a nice job of accelerating off the bounce. We are excited to have Caitlin join the UMC women's basketball team."
