DULUTH--UMD Industrial Education students will stage their 14th annual Woodchopper's Ball following the UMD-University of Minnesota hockey game Saturday, January 20.

Dancing is from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in Kirby Student Center.

Casual attire will be in vogue for the evening's activities which include a log-sawing contest with escorts pitted against their dates. Each couple will get two guesses at the number of nails in a jar for the grand prize.

Tickets at $2.00 per couple are being sold in advance by members of Sigma Iota Epsilon fraternity, dance sponsor, or may be purchased at the door.

Martin Mattson, Duluth, is chairman of the event.
