

DULUTH. . . Three top athletic award winners at UMD were honored at the annual Duluth Kiwanis luncheon today at Hotel Duluth.

Winner of the graduate M Club "outstanding athlete award" was Wallace "Skip" Fontaine, a senior quarterback from Proctor, Minn. Fontaine was co-captain of the championship 1960-61 team.

Winner of the Glen Johnson "outstanding lineman" award was Pat Delaney, a guard from Edina.

Presented the Ed Ciebiera "outstanding track man" award was Dave Johnson, Duluth, who ran the half mile, mile, two mile and won honors in the broad jump.

UMD Athletic Director Lloyd W. Peterson introduced the UMD coaches who, in turn, introduced letter winners from their squads.

Jackets, letters and other awards will be presented to UMD athletes at the Athletic Awards convocation at 1:30 p.m. May 31 in Kirby Student Center Ballroom.

Billy Bye, former Minnesota Gopher star and now business manager for the Minnesota Vikings, will speak. UMD, MClub and Alumni Association officials also will take part in convocation ceremonies.
