NOTICE

All fourth hour classes will be dismissed this morning to enable students to attend the Convocation exercises in the Armory at 11:30.

NOTICE TO THE DEANS

The next meeting of the Board of Regents will occur on Wednesday, July 21. All items of business must be in the office of the President by Friday, July 16, at 5:00 o'clock or they cannot be included on the docket.

THE CLINICAL PATHOLOGICAL CONFERENCE will be held tomorrow, July 16, at 4:30 p.m. in Room 104, Institute of Anatomy. All physicians and medical students invited.

H. E. Robertson

MINNEAPOLIS TEACHERS who have received transferred scholarships may have them accepted at Window 10, Registrar's office, any time between now and July 17.

E. B. Pierce, Registrar

NOTICE

Students are cautioned against the loss of their fee receipts. Fee receipts are necessary for purposes of identification before refunds of deposit fees can be written.

ALL-UNIVERSITY MIXER

Tomorrow evening, July 16, will be the occasion for an "All University Mixer" to take place in the University Armory. The program will consist of dancing from 8:30 to 12:00. There will be no charge.

President and Mrs. Coffman will lead the Grand March.

The affair will be quite informal and it is hoped that the Summer School students will take advantage of this opportunity to meet the President and Mrs. Coffman.

HOME ECONOMICS ROUNDTABLE

The fourth of a series of Roundtables for those interested in Home Economic problems will be held in Room 204, Home Economics Building tomorrow at 4:30. Books and bulletins will be on exhibit after 1 o'clock.

The following topics will be discussed:

"Problems Relating to the Teaching of Foods and Management in the Schools"

(a) Meal Planning and Preparation—Maude Miller, Assistant Professor of Home Economics

(b) Home Management—Frances Kelly, Home Economics Supervisor of Minneapolis Public Schools

Come with questions. A special invitation is given to superintendents and principals.

SUMMER SESSION MEN

The Y.M.C.A. office in the Minnesota Union will be kept open the entire summer and one secretary will be at your service from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. daily except Saturday when the hours will be 9:00 to 12:00 noon. He will be glad to assist you with the adjustment of your War Risk Insurance, Bonus applications, Victory Medal applications, give information when possible, supply stationery, stamps and render any service possible. You are invited to use the piano in the reading room.

Cyrus P. Barnum,
Executive Secretary

NOTICE!

If there are a sufficient number of students interested in entering a pool and billiard tournament to end the last week of the Summer Session, the Board of Governors of Minnesota Union will be glad to organize such a tournament and will award suitable prizes to the winners. Those interested will please leave their names with the attendant in the pool room.
