

For release on receipt

UMD News Service
April 24, 1959

DULUTH--Campus day at UMD Thursday, May 7, will offer a variety of activity and interest for participating students from northeastern Minnesota communities.

Sponsored by student groups of the division of education and psychology, the annual event will include an orientation program at 9:30 a.m., observation of UMD Laboratory school classes at 10:15 a.m. and tours until 1 p.m.

At 1 p.m. men's and women's physical education demonstrations will be presented. At 2 p.m. girls will attend a Home Economics club style show in Kirby Student center ballroom and boys will attend a science program in the science building.

Invitations are being sent area schools by a committee headed by Diane Smith, Duluth. Assisting are Ramona Johnson, Ironton, and Nancy Peterson, Annie Pechecek, Sandra Knutson, Connie Nelson and Charlene Samuelson, all of Duluth. Miss Ann Small, instructor, women's physical education, is adviser.

Other committees are:

Luncheon--Mildred Anich, Eveleth, chairman. Mrs. Joyce Staudohar, Laboratory school instructor, is luncheon committee adviser.

Program--Mary Ann Quayle, Keewatin, chairman; Carol Olsson, Hibbing. Miss Jeane-Marie Sword, Laboratory school instructor and Kindergarten-Primary club adviser, is committee adviser.

Transportation--Larry Johnson, Duluth, chairman, Ray Leland, Milton Hill, both of Duluth. Frank Kovach, associate professor, industrial education, is committee adviser.

Registration--Robert O'Connor, Duluth, chairman, Lino Fauzi, Eveleth; Donald Jacobson, Hibbing; Grant Stanbrook, Winnipeg; John Raukar, Virginia; Ronald Nemenic, Aurora. Lewis J. Rickert, associate professor, men's physical education, is committee adviser.

Publicity--Virginia Strukel, Ely, chairman; Thea Croteau, Biwabik. Harry C. Johnson, professor and head of elementary education, is committee adviser.