Mixed Blood Theatre Presents 'According to Coyote' in Kiehle Auditorium on Monday, October 24, 2011, at 7 p.m. at the University of Minnesota Crookston

By Itollefs on Friday, October 21, 2011

Mixed Blood Theater of Minneapolis, Minn., will present the play "According to Coyote," an energetic collection of lightning-paced legends, on Monday evening, October 24, 2011, at the University of Minnesota, Crookston. The performance begins at 7 p.m. in Kiehle Auditorium and is free and open to the public.

This collection of legends gives life to Coyote, the trickster, teacher, magician, and hero in American Indian traditions. Playwright John Kauffman employs age-old techniques of music, dance, magic and narrative to bring to life this character in all his guises: Coyote the Creator, the namer of animals and bringer of fire; Coyote the Trickster, conniving for an advantage that usually backfires on him; and Coyote the Teacher, from whom lessons of humility, wisdom, and humanity are learned.

The event is sponsored by the Office of Diversity and Multicultural Programs. Learn more at <http://www.mixedblood.com/regional-tour>.
