HELLER GOES TO WASHINGTON Provost Robert L. Heller served as chairperson at the fall meeting of the Council of Scientific Society Presidents in Washington, D.C. last week. The organization is made up of the presidents of 30 of the nation's leading scientific and mathematics professional societies. Topics covered included national laboratories and regulation of genetic engineering.

PROFESSIONAL STAFF COUNCIL MEETS Members of the Professional Staff Council have forwarded to Provost Heller a third draft of the campus constitution and bylaws for reaction from Heller and Assistant Vice President Al Linck. Representatives of the council met with students, UEA representatives and administration members last summer as part of an ad hoc committee charged with writing a new governance document for consideration by all parties. The council includes John Skelton, Betty Hoch, Tom Barnstorf, Nancy Carrier, Bob Stephens, Assistant Provost Dennis Nelson, and Julian Hoshal, chairperson.

REC. SPORTS NOW OFFERS TENNIS, RACQUETBALL AT THE INDOOR RACQUETBALL CLUB That's right, now faculty, staff and students at UMD can play racquetball and tennis at the Duluth Racquet Courts, Ltd., on the Rice Lake Road just off the Arrowhead Road in Duluth. Just think, no more watching for joggers while you're playing a base line shot. No more lack of concentration due to blaring music. Anyway, hours are from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Not prime time, right? However, the price is prime. Costs are $3 an hour (per court) from 10 p.m. to midnight and only $1 an hour (per court) from midnight to 2 a.m. So, get your tennis or racquetball racquets and call Rec. Sports at 7128.

REAL ESTATE WORKSHOP "Important Considerations in the Purchase of Real Estate for Investment" is a workshop to be held from 6 p.m. to 9:45 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 15, in Room 16 of UMD's School of Business and Economics. Course fee is $30. For information, call 7946.

CHRISTMAS CONCERTS OFFERED

The Sounds of Christmas -- That's the title of UMD's Freshman Chorus and University Singers' Christmas concert to be held at 8 p.m. Sunday (Dec. 12) in the Marshall Performing Arts Center. The concert is free and open to the public.

UMD Community Oratorio Society -- That group will present a Christmas concert at 8 p.m. Tuesday (Dec. 14) in the Marshall Performing Arts Center. The concert is free and open to the public.

OPEN HOUSES The Lake Superior Basin Studies Center will hold its second holiday open house on Tuesday (Dec. 14) from 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Offices and laboratories will be open to the public on UMD's lower campus, in the Research Laboratory Building, 2205 E. 5th St. Refreshments will be available on the second floor and the public is invited to attend.

And, the Health Service will offer an open house on Wednesday (Dec. 15) from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. All students, staff and faculty members are welcome.

GOD'S RIVER "God's River, Manitoba" will be the topic of a slide/lecture presentation at 7 p.m. Tuesday (Dec. 14) in Life Science 175. Sponsored by the Environmental Education Program of the Lake Superior Basin Studies Center, the program is free and open to the public. Speaker will be Mark Rosen, canoeist and naturalist.

CAMPUS CLUB OFFICERS New Campus Club officers are: Marge Austin, president; Jonathan Conant, vice president; Tom Duff, secretary; and Mary Nash, treasurer.

CORRECTION ON CAMPUS DIRECTORY In the academic calendar in the new campus directory, the date of the President's Day Holiday is incorrectly listed. It should be Friday, February 18. Also, the spring commencement date is incorrect. This year's commencement will be held on Saturday, May 21.

ALL UNIVERSITY FOOD SHELF DRIVE In support of local emergency food shelf drives, UMD is sponsoring its own Emergency Food Shelf Drive. Faculty, staff and students are being asked to contribute one item of food or $1 per person to the fund. Items needed include: canned meat, fish, fruit, juices, soup, crackers, and peanut butter, in addition to cash donations. The drive is being coordinated by Capt. Rick McKee of UMD's AFROTC program with volunteer help from UMD's AFROTC cadets. A drop off point will be set up in Kirby Student Center beginning Friday, Dec. 10, and continuing through Friday, Dec. 17. You may drop off your items between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. during those dates.

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE REMINDER The UMD Newsletter wants your announcements of special interest. However, we would like them by Tuesdays at noon. For information, call 7110.
