DULUTH -- The UMD Orchestra under director Dr. Robert W. House, professor and head of music, will present its winter quarter concert at 8:15 p.m. Thursday, March 10, in Kirby Student Center ballroom.

The program will feature violinists Judith Askeland and Ron Kari of Duluth and Gretta Sandberg of Two Harbors in Dvorak's "Violin Concerto" and mezzo soprano Celeste Nelson of Duluth in Mahler's "Songs of a Wayfarer."

Other selections include Ravel's "Mother Goose Suite" and Guonod's "Ballet Music from Faust."

The program is open to the public at no charge.
