OFFICIAL DAILY BULLETIN

VOL. V

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1922

NO. 8

NOTICE TO DEPARTMENTS

Salary checks on the regular payroll will be ready for distribution this morning.

ATTENTION, EVERYBODY!

Students and Faculty

An open football exhibition-practice will be held today at 3:30 o'clock on Northrop Field. The entire University personnel is cordially invited. The University Band will be present, and a special effort will be made to instruct the new students in the songs and yells. Everybody out! Freshmen especially are requested to be present.

Bud Bohnen, Rooter King

NOTICE TO DEPARTMENTS

In a recent ruling from the State Auditor's office, it is required that receipts for bus fares outside the Twin Cities be attached to traveling expense bills.

Hotel expense, where the charge includes room and meals at so much per day, the receipt must show this clearly. Whether American or European plan, room and meals must be itemized upon the voucher submitted.

Albert J. Lobb

UNIVERSITY POST OFFICE

There will be three complete daily collections and deliveries of campus mail.

The first delivery will include the Daily Bulletin and reaches all offices before 8:30 a.m. There will be a collection and delivery of the entire campus between 10:30 and 11:30 a.m. and between 2:30 and 3:30 p.m.

All mail at the end of the day's business should be dropped into the local collection boxes so it can be collected between 5:30 and 7:00 p.m. and delivered before 8:30 a.m. the following morning.

Offices having several packages or one large package are requested to call the Storehouse truck for delivery, as the collection of these packages by the messenger delays the collection and delivery of regular mail.

The delivery of all mail will be greatly facilitated if it is correctly addressed, giving name, building, and room number.

University Post Office

THE COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

of the University of Minnesota will give a Welcome Party to all the foreign students on the campus, Sunday, October 1, in the Minnesota Union Parlors, from 3 to 6 o'clock. Every foreign student on the campus is most cordially invited. Dean Guy Stanton Ford, of the Graduate School, will speak.

LIBRARY NOTICE

Room 206, General Library (the Current Periodicals room), will be used for the class in Library Methods from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. and from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., Mondays and Wednesdays. It will not be available for readers at those hours.

Frank K. Walter, Librarian

* * * * *

The Library is open every weekday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. The attention of new students is called to the fact that all books taken from "Reserves" for over-night use must be returned at 8:30 a.m. the following day. Otherwise a fine is incurred.

Library handbooks giving information and regulations pertaining to the Library may be obtained in the upper reading-room.

Frank K. Walter, Librarian

NOTICE TO ALL STUDENTS

Cards calling for information for the University Address Book have been placed in every post office box.

A prompt and accurate publication can be obtained only if each student cooperates by filling out the card legibly, promptly, and completely, and in accordance with the directions on the card.

If you fail to receive a card, additional forms may be obtained from the post office window or at the Registrar's Office (either campus).

No change or addition can be made after copy is submitted to the printer. The files for the student section close on Thursday, October 5. You are requested to fill out and drop your card in the boxes provided in the post office lobbies as soon as possible.

R. M. West, Registrar
