Duluth --- Dr. Richard O. Sielaff, chairman of the Division of Social Sciences at UMD, has been appointed Vice-Chancellor of the Northern Region of Pi Gamma Mu, national Social Science Honor Society.

The appointment was announced today by Joseph B. James, national president, Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia.

Pi Gamma Mu seeks to improve scholarship in the social studies, inspire social service to humanity and support existing social science organizations. UMD is one of 130 U.S. colleges with Pi Gamma Mu chapters.

Dr. Sielaff will work with region Chancellor Dr. Scott D. Johnston of Hamline University, St. Paul in chapter visits and in support of the society's program.
