250 Seniors to Say Goodbye to Campus At Commencement

Every College But Mines, Chemistry and Pharmacy Represented

LARS BOE WILL SPEAK
Special Insignia to Be Worn By Members Attaining Honors

More than 250 seniors will attend their last University function as undergraduates Thursday when they receive their degrees for graduation from the University at the fall quarter commencement exercises.

The students will be graduated from all colleges in the University with the exception of the School of Mines and Metallurgy, the College of Pharmacy and the School of Chemistry.

Lars Boe, president of St. Olaf college, Northfield, will speak to the class on "The Graduate's Opportunity." The exercises will take place in Northrop auditorium at 11 a. m. Thursday.

Rehearsal Thursday Planned
Insignia denoting special honors and special distinctions will be worn by many of the graduates. The plan of awarding special honors to worthy students was inaugurated at commencement exercises last June.

The decorative insignia will consist of gold and silver braided rope which hangs over the right shoulder of the wearer. The term "honor" applies to students completing work in the College of Science, Literature and the Arts, and "distinction" to those who are ending their studies in the Graduate school.

Rehearsal for the exercises will take place Thursday at 9:30 a. m. on the stage of Northrop auditorium.

At 10:45 a. m. candidates for degrees will assemble in cap and gown on the stage of the Auditorium and will march from there to their places in the main hall of the building.

Union to Fete Graduates
A dinner will be conducted in honor of the graduating seniors in the Minnesota Union by the Union board of governors.

Admission to the reserved seats will be by ticket, except in the case of students who are to receive degrees. Each candidate may secure tickets and invitations at the general information window in the registrar's office, Administration building.

The University of Minnesota probably is the only college in the country that holds a commencement ceremony at the end of the fall quarter. E. B. Pierce, chairman of the committee on all-University functions, said yesterday.

Students to Desert Campus Thursday

Library Will Remain Open During Vacation

A respite of two and a half weeks for Christmas vacation is offered students and faculty when the holidays begin at the end of the ninth hour Thursday. Students will troop back to the University for the winter quarter on January 5.

Today's publication of The Minnesota Daily is the last issue of the fall quarter, and the staff will not put out another edition until Tuesday, January 6.

The entire library will remain open every day with the exception of Christmas and New Year's day from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and on Saturdays until noon to give students an opportunity to begin advance work for the winter quarter. The Arthur Upson room also will be open.

9 New Members Pledged By Advertising Fraternity

Nine men interested in advertising as a vocation were pledged into Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising fraternity, at a luncheon held yesterday during the noon hour. The men are: George Doyle, Walter Franz, Chas. Oehler, Donald Larson, Gardner English, Carl Linse, Stuart Moore, Fred Moran and Edwin Melberg. Officers for the coming year, who were elected at the meeting, include William Crowe, president; Dreng Bjornar, vice-president; and William Madden, secretary-treasurer.

'MISS SANTA' Appears on Campus and GOES TO CLASS

Sophisticated University students may not believe in Santa Claus, but his daughter, Miss Santa Claus, dressed in her red and white uniform, has been attending classes on the campus since her arrival from the North Pole a week ago.

Alfrida Hagen, a senior in the department of music, became St. Nick's daughter when the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association recently selected her to play the part in their annual campaign to give Minneapolis the brightest Christmas in the Northwest.

Singing and speaking over four Twin City radio stations and appearing before various clubs in the two cities has not interfered with her classes, as she attends school in her uniform, and then rushes off to make her appearances.

On Christmas Eve she will officially return to the North Pole.

Sorority Plans Laid For Formal Rushing Starting January 5

Frosh Coeds With Coveted 'C' Average Eligible For Pledging

Freshman coeds who have made their "C" average during the fall quarter will call for invitations in the ballroom of Shevlin hall for the first rushing tea during formal rushing on January 5 from 10:30 a. m. to 1 p. m.

The invitations to other rushing affairs during the week will be given out every day.

Bids will be handled through a lawyer's office following the same plan worked out last year, the first season of deferred rushing for sororities on the campus.

Sororities, following the formal dinner January 10, will send their bids to the office to be selected by the Pan Hellenic committee on rushing. Freshmen will receive their invitations to join a sorority from that office and will return their acceptance there.

Rushing rules made by the council for winter quarter rushing are:
No coed without a "C" average may go through rushing. Ten hours of work is the minimum amount required.
There shall be no telephoning or calling on a rushee during rushing week.
No rushing with men, secretly or otherwise.
No sorority member may discuss another sorority with a rushee, or give information concerning it.
No sorority shall escort a rushee to or take a coed home from a party.
No party shall last more than two hours.

Round table discussion groups have been sponsored by the Pan Hellenic council to educate freshman coeds about rushing this fall.

Lewis Hits U. S. in Noble Prize Talk

Football Heroes, Professors Draw Novelist's Ire

Stockholm, Sweden, Dec. 12.—(UP)—Sinclair Lewis formally accepted the 1930 Nobel prize for literature today and at the same time delivered a pungent condemnation of the state of civilization in the United States.

His derogatory statement concerning education in the United States included the following quotations:
"The American academy of Arts and Letters has no relationship with American life and aspirations."
"American students are ardent about avoiding the disadvantage of becoming learned."

"A capable football player nearly ranks with our greatest and most admired heroes—even with Ford, Hoover and Lindbergh."

'Male' Actor in 'Kempy' Bared; 'His' Name Found to Be 'Nellie'

False Colors Lifted From Troublesome Canine—Players Will Present Second Performance Tonight

Four feminine parts and four masculine roles were portrayed in the campus premiere of "Kempy," Theater Workshop roadshow presented last night, but one actor was sailing under false colors.
"Jimmy," canine actor with a regular trouper's temperament, was revealed by its owner not to be "Jimmy" after all, but one-year-old "Nellie."
The pup, upon her presentation to the Theater Workshop early this week, immediately had been nicknamed Jimmy by its fellow actors for want of a better name. But it was all a mistake, and now the trouper is trying to learn to call their youngest member by her real name.

But now, the false colors lifted, she will go on the board again tonight, when the performance of "Kempy" will be repeated at 8:30 p. m. in the Music auditorium.

Nellie is only one of five players who are making their debut in campus dramatics with the home presentation of "Kempy." For Wayne Plank, Carl Burkland, Madelyne Dillmann and Lillian Smith last night was a first appearance before student playgoers.

Council Considers Appeal Protesting Parking Situation

Group Will Act on Problem At First Meeting of Winter Quarter

REMEDIES SUGGESTED
Members Challenge Right of U. to Discriminate Against Students

An appeal requesting the buildings and grounds department to take action to better the campus parking situation will be presented the first week of next quarter, it was intimated yesterday when individual all-University council members expressed their opposition to the present condition.

"If the University officials object to parade ground parking because of the expense, why not charge students a small sum for the parking privilege," asked one council member.

Ban on Cars Feared
W. T. Middlebrook, comptroller, contends that the cost of clearing the field and hiring an attendant makes the plan impossible. Since the University clears the field for symphony concerts, students interested in the matter have been unable to grasp the force of this argument.

Another council member asserted his belief that the attitude of the officials indicates that the University is working toward a ban on cars on the campus. He declared that the University is gradually closing available spots for student drivers.

"I can't understand where the administration gets its right to discriminate against students on the matter of parking," a third council member stated. "If the University permits outsiders to come on the campus and park on the parade grounds, it is logical that students, who should receive first consideration, should be permitted to park there at any time," he contended in support of his statement.

Students Denied Rent Spaces
One council representative who attempted to obtain a parking space in the Auditorium garage could not rent a space because all room had been leased to members of the symphony orchestra. It was pointed out that students are not allowed to rent reserved parking spaces on the campus.

The campus parking problem will be taken up at the first winter quarter meeting of the council, it was decided at the final meeting Wednesday night. Students have made numerous appeals to the council, asking that the group find some satisfactory solution of the difficulty.

After the council has considered the situation it is believed that a committee will be selected to discuss parking with members of the buildings and grounds department.

Education Would Reduce Crime Costs, Prexy Says

Society now pays for crime and poverty what it would spend on luxury if high standards of education were maintained, President Lotus D. Coffman recently told the Calhoun Parent-Teachers association. The dependence education was discussed at the meeting by Carroll R. Reed, superintendent of economic prosperity upon efficient of schools in Minnesota.

Photo Appointment Booths Remain Open Until Noon
Today is the deadline for making senior picture appointments for the 1931 Gopher in the post office booth before the winter quarter, according to Robert Bruce, business manager. The booth will be open from 8:30 a. m. until 12:30 p. m. Appointments may be made throughout Christmas vacation by calling Miller's Studio directly. The booth will be reopened for the first two weeks of the winter quarter.

Amateur U. Station Will Broadcast Yule Greetings
Christmas greetings are to be radioed from W9YC, amateur radio station at the University, located in room 310, Electrical Engineering building.

Students who will be unable to go home for the holidays and live in distant cities, may send Christmas messages to their parents free of charge from the station.

Physics Head Will Spend Holiday Season in Florida
Dr. Henry D. Erickson, head of the department of physics, will leave the early part of next week for Florida, where he will spend the holiday season, returning for the winter quarter's work.

Goffe Benson Selected All-Freshman President

Officers of the frosh commission composed of the presidents of each of the freshman classes in the University, were announced yesterday. Goffe Benson, student in the College of Science, Literature and the Arts, was named all-freshman president. Vice-president is John Wentling, of the College of Agriculture, Forestry and Home Economics; and Max Moulton, School of Chemistry, is secretary. Terence Smith, School of Mines and Metallurgy, is treasurer.

'Eight Houses in One' to Be Found In First of New Dormitory Units

Don't Be Piggish! Or How Not to Overeat on Christmas Day

Advice to the lovers has been an old custom. Advice to the lame and halt has been more recent. And now comes advice to students who are planning on eating a big Christmas dinner.

"Don't make pigs out of yourselves," Dr. H. B. Lees, assistant director of the University Health Service, warned yesterday. Prevention is the only cure for overeating, he declared. If students eat moderately of turkey and the "fixins," they will have nothing to fear, he admonished.

Intercollegiate Ball At Nicollet Dec. 27 To Enliven Vacation

Brockmeyer, Eberhardt Will Represent Minnesota As Ushers

Students from colleges throughout the state and undergraduates from other universities in the United States who live in the Twin Cities will attend the eighth annual Intercollegiate Ball in the Nicollet hotel December 27.

Dan S. Fiedt, chairman of the 1930 Homecoming celebration, is chairman of general arrangements for the ball.

Win Brockmeyer, captain of the 1930 football team, and Harold Eberhardt, all-senior president, will be ushers at the ball, representing the University.

Students from other colleges also will serve as ushers, including John Priest, all-senior president of the class of 1929, who is representing Harvard university.

Other ushers include: Charles Bell, Yale; Atherton Bean, Carleton; Edgar Nash, Williams; Charles Ircy, Dartmouth; Dane Johnson, St. Thomas; and Gordon Friedeman, Cornell.

Campus musicians and campus performers will unite in providing entertainment for the affair. Art Goldberg and his band will augment the music of Arthur Kassel and his orchestra in playing for the dancing.

Students Will Carol At Two Yule Sings

Fetes Planned for Sunday, Tuesday Evenings

The first of two Christmas sings for students and faculty will be given when the College of Education conducts its annual Yule carollings Sunday at 7 p. m. in the lounge room of the Minnesota Union. The second program, under the sponsorship of the University Singers, will take place at 7:15 p. m. Tuesday in the Northrop auditorium.

Informal singing, under the leadership of Archie Jones of the music department, will feature the program Sunday night, after which refreshments will be served.

The program Tuesday night will be led by the University Singers, conducted by Earle Killen, professor of music. Agnes Rast, Snyder, contralto and instructor in the music department, will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Katherine Hoffman.

The University Symphony orchestra, directed by Aho Peppinsky, conductor, will play.

Janitors Feast Tomorrow at Old-Time Yule Dinner; Bosses Are Honor Guests

Campus Caretakers Will Load Banquet Tables With Real Scandinavian Dishes

Tomorrow may be just another Sunday to most of the campus community, but to a little group of University employees, it will be a bright and shining spot in the dull, drab pattern of the year.

While townfolk are sitting down at their Sunday dinners and while students are cramming desperately for final examinations, the members of the Janitors club will be gathering in the Minnesota Union for an old-fashioned Christmas dinner of old-fashioned Scandinavian dishes.

All the tasty tidbits that they know in "the old country" they have planned for their banquet—ludicrous and sauerkraut, fatemom and conaker, gamme-lust and tatabur—and true to the Scandinavian fashion, several varieties of cakes and pastries will be served.

For many years these holiday dinners have been an annual affair with the University janitors, who plan by this means to promote camaraderie and good fellowship between the members of their club.

Neither are the janitors forgetting their supervisors on their gala banquet day, for as guests of honor they have invited W. F. Holman, head of the buildings and grounds department, and Wallace Bloomquist, his assistant.

Planning the affair is John Swanson, janitor in the School of Business Administration, assisted by Oscar Backstrom, janitor in the Minnesota Union, and Edwin Berg, Pillsbury hall caretaker.

Janitors from University farm will attend the banquet as well as their brethren from the main campus. The feast will begin at 1 p. m.

Each Division Built to Take Care of 34 Men Students

DOORS OPEN NEXT FALL
Board, Laundry to Be Included in Services to Be Offered

Eight houses in one are being built in the construction of the new men's dormitory, which will be ready for occupancy by the opening of the fall quarter next year. The dormitory, which will house over 250 students, in reality consists of eight separate "houses," which are entirely unconnected. The only exits from the houses lead outdoors. Each of the divisions will house approximately 32 students.

The dormitory, which faces the river on the south, is being constructed in the block bounded by Fulton, Harvard, Walnut and Morgan streets. It is four stories high with a basement extending under two thirds of it.

Lounge Room Provided
A large dining hall in the west wing will be two stories high, occupying the basement and first floor. Provision will be made to allow students to have parties in this room, which can be cleared for dancing. Adjoining the dining room in the basement is the kitchen.

A lounge room will be situated on the left side of the front entrance on the main floor. Individual post office boxes for the men will be provided in the lobby at the main entrance.

Three types of rooms will be available in the dormitory when completed.

The majority of the rooms have been designed in three room suites which will accommodate two students. They consist of two individual bed rooms and a study room in common. The rates for these suites will be $55 a quarter per student, according to present plans.

U. Will Furnish Linen
A single room which will serve as sleeping quarters and study for one person will be charged for at the rate of $50 a quarter.

Two persons will occupy a single room on the fourth floor. This style was necessitated by the sloping roof. The rent for these rooms will be $45 a quarter per occupant.

Linen and its laundry is furnished by the University, and the beds will be taken care of for the students. The rooming rates were determined after the study of an extensive survey of nearby rooming houses.

Board in the dormitory will be charged for at $90 a quarter. Breakfast and luncheon will be served in cafeteria style.

Tailor Shop Provided
"This system will allow for different hours of rising at breakfast," J. C. Poucher, director of service enterprises and a member of the dormitory committee, says. "At noon it will do away with several different serving hours, such as is now used in Sanford hall, due to noon classes."

Bertha C. Barley, present director of the Shevlin hall cafeteria, will have charge of the dining hall.

A trunk storage and a "tailor shop" will be in the basement for the convenience of the students. In the trunk storage, students will have individual (Continued on Page 3)

Quarterly Sells Out Three Fall Editions

700 Magazines Printed to Set Record

Second and third editions of The Minnesota Quarterly have been sold, making the sales the largest in the publication's history, it was reported yesterday by Eleanor Barthelmy, editor.

The original edition of 500 was augmented by two extra editions of 100 making a total of 700 magazines.

Contributors to the magazine include Austin Parry, Minnesota candidate for the Rhodes scholarship, and Justus Schiffer, who last year won the Quarterly prize prize.

Fesler to Address Society For Children in Oklahoma

Paul H. Fesler, superintendent of the University hospital, will be the main speaker at the meeting of the Oklahoma Society for Crippled Children at Oklahoma city, December 23. Mr. Fesler is one of the founders of the society.

Weather Maintains Gloomy Motif as Finals Hit Campus

Descriptive of the feelings of students facing final examinations, cloudy and chilly weather is expected to prevail today.

Atmospheric conditions yesterday served as practice for today, with clouds obscuring the heavens all day long. Temperatures remained below the freezing point, with a maximum of 31 degrees above zero. The low mark for the day was 26 above.

Today's forecast is the last one that students will read in The Minnesota Daily this year. The feature will be continued next quarter, after the Christmas holidays.

Gopher Basketeers, Fresh From Victory, Tackle Second Foe

Grinnell, Iowa, Quint Will Face Same Five That Beat Jackrabbits

TWO SOPHS AT GUARD
Two Games Scheduled for Vacation by Coach MacMillan

Dave MacMillan's cagers will receive their second test of the season tonight, when they tackle a fighting Grinnell team in the Field House. The game begins at 8:15 p. m.

The Gopher squad will likely begin tonight's game with the same lineup that started the South Dakota State contest last week. This will mean that Bondy again will be at center, with the two veterans, Captains Harry Schoening and Earl Loose, at the forward posts, and the two sophomore flashes, Virgil Light and Mike Cielusak, at the guard positions.

Bondy Will Start
Although Bondy will start at center, it is expected that both Brad Robinson and Glenn Bethel will see considerable service at that position during the tilt. MacMillan has used Robinson a great deal during the past week's scrimmages, and the husky sophomore has shown signs of developing into a first rate center.

Bethel also has shown up well during the past week, and will undoubtedly receive an opportunity to display his talents tonight. The lanky Bethel had developed an under-the-basket shot that has made him one of the most consistent scorers on the squad.

Cielusak and Light, the two sophomores who made such an auspicious introduction into Minnesota basketball against the South Dakota State five, last week, again will be at the guard positions.

Grinnell Team Is Green
As usual, the two veteran forwards, Loose and Schoening, will be at their customary posts. Cliff Sommer, the racy forward, will in all probability see some action against the pioneers.

The Iowa school will bring a comparatively green team to the Field House, with only two veterans being listed on their roster. The two are Scott and McCreary, who are scheduled to start at the forward positions tonight.

Tonight's game will be the final game this quarter, although two games are scheduled for the vacation period. One tilt is with Heloit one week from tonight, and the second with Carleton January 3. A final practice game after the tilt with the Northfield squad will be played against Iowa State January 5. Following the Iowa State game the Gophers will begin their Big Ten campaign in a contest at Iowa City with the Hawks.

The Big Ten schedule will run through until March 9, with the Gopher quintet taking part in 12 tilts.

Journalism Offices Looted, Cash Taken

Faculty Discounts Theory Thieves Sought Exams

Thieves who gained entrance into the offices of the journalism department early yesterday morning escaped with slightly over one dollar in change and a fountain pen taken from the desk of the secretary.

Nothing else in the office had apparently been disturbed, members of the journalism faculty said. They were inclined to discount the theory entrance may have been forced by students seeking final examination questions.

The managers took the precautions of pulling down all shades on the windows, and apparently made a leisurely search, it was indicated. All the doors to the various offices were open when the faculty members arrived in the morning.

Fesler to Address Society For Children in Oklahoma

Paul H. Fesler, superintendent of the University hospital, will be the main speaker at the meeting of the Oklahoma Society for Crippled Children at Oklahoma city, December 23. Mr. Fesler is one of the founders of the society.

Arthur N. Wilcox, member of the National Collegiate Players, is directing the production. The play which is produced every year by the Egerhard society of London has been given only once before in the Twin Cities.

Campus dramatic organizations will be represented in the cast, but a provision of the contract that the play will be patronized always for the sake of the play itself, prohibits the announcement of the persons taking part. One Masquers member and five Punchinellos players will be among the 12 who have a part in the play.

Wesley Dramatists Sponsor Yule Play

Farm School Unit to Give 'Egerhard' Sunday

The University farm unit of the Wesley Foundation will present "Egerhard," a Christmas miracle play, at 8 p. m. Sunday in the St. Anthony Park Methodist church, Como avenue at Langford, when the foundation will act as host to the Minneapolis campus unit.

Arthur N. Wilcox, member of the National Collegiate Players, is directing the production. The play which is produced every year by the Egerhard society of London has been given only once before in the Twin Cities.

Phoenix

IT IS WITH interest and a sense of satisfaction that we note the advent of a second Junior honor society. Such an organization made its appearance on the campus recently and was officially recognized by members of the University administration.

To expect that a single society in the Junior class could ever honor all deserving men, even if it wished to do so, was rather difficult with the continued increase of the University's enrollment.

A point to be emphasized is that each of these societies is, fundamentally, established to serve the various needs of the University in all ways possible. Members of the new organization will do well to bear this in mind constantly.

For this reason Phoenix is welcomed, and wished success to a large degree in its enterprises.

Rushing Season Violations

WITH THE opening of the new quarter will be introduced the formal rushing season, of one short week, into which will be condensed much activity. It seems only natural, judging from the practices of former years, to expect a certain amount of "dirty" or illegal rushing.

Pre-season rushing, rushing in the Post Office, the extending of more than the allotted number of invitations in the attempt to obtain a much-desired pledge—these and others are among practices outside the realm of the acceptable.

Most of the responsibility rests with the sorority and with the fraternity. Although fraternity rushing rules have been published in this paper, and although women students, as a result of attending Pan Hellenic teas, are better informed this year than they have ever been before of the legal and the illegal in sorority rushing, the rushee is to be blamed less for accepting than the organization is to be blamed for extending the invitation and for otherwise disregarding rushing rules.

Some colleges are agitating the creation of Departments of Leisure in which the student will be properly instructed in proper methods of relaxation. In all probability the classes will be conducted in Rest rooms.

GOPHER WILL PROVIDE Free Ink 'Filling Station' in Library FOR FOUNTAIN PENS

An oasis for thirsty fountain pens, long felt need on the campus since the W. S. G. A. "filling station" was brought to its untimely end two years ago, is going to be supplied by the staff of the 1931 Gopher.

Robert Spear, assistant business manager, announced yesterday that a free ink booth will be placed in the Library Monday where all students can come to replenish their Volstead-inclined fountain pens.

"In that the Gopher is a cooperative publication aiming to serve the student body, it is proud to be able to open this service station for pens," Spear said. The telephone-booth-like innovation will have three holes placed in a waist-high board through which the ink will flow "freely" into thirsty pens.

The "free" part of the idea only applies to students, however, as the total expenditures to keep the booth running for the year, dispensing about 230 pints of ink, will amount to more than $100.

Good and Great Paderewski

By MARTIN C. POWERS A REMARK made in class yesterday by Prof. O. W. Firkins concerning musicians who are both "good and great" brought to mind the criticism of Ignace Jan Paderewski some years ago by a man in the east who loved epigrams.

But such a Paderewski was not for long at his piano. Another emerged in the second and last movements of the work. There we encounter in the second movement such as only a creative interpreter could dream of; there was the lovely lyricism of the beautiful passage near the end.

ARMY, NAVY AWAIT BATTLE

Cadets and Sailors Rest; Charity Grid Ducats Nearly Sold

Both Teams Boast Complete Strength for Final Struggle

New York, Dec. 12.—(UP)—Less than 24 hours from now the Army and Navy will be busy resuming athletic relations for the benefit of the unemployed on the grass of Yankee stadium—and blase New York is excited about it.

To be sure, the relation is only temporary and probably will leave the two academies further apart than a hawk could fly in a week. But the 70,000 persons who will watch the game Saturday afternoon are not interested in next year's schedule.

The ticket sale, which started slowly, was booming today. Only some ten or twelve thousand pastebards remained unsold and they were going fast. If they are sold, the game will be watched by a capacity crowd of 80,000.

Navy, 60 strong, including coaches, trainers, officers and Bill the goat, arrived late yesterday. The Midshipmen will hold their final practice this afternoon in the stadium in order to become accustomed to the field and the winds that make catching and kicking a football something of an art.

Army also broke camp yesterday but came no closer to New York than Briarcliff Lodge in Westchester. The cadets, familiar with the stadium, will not come to town until just before game time. They will run through a short practice on the lodge grounds.

Both teams are near top condition. Every man on the Navy squad is fit to play, but Joe Tschirgi and Lou Kira, the two best running backs, are not in perfect shape. An old ankle injury still bothers Joe, and Lou has a bruised nose.

Outside of halfback Sebastian, who will not be able to play, Army is in great shape. It was announced today that Carlmark, regular end who was injured in the Yale game and who has played little since, will start against the Navy.

Carlmark's return gives the Army a tremendous edge in the line. Carlmark and Messinger, ends, and Price and Suarez, tackles, are men whom Navy cannot hope to match.

The boys who are banking on Navy's spirit to pull them through seemed to have forgotten that the game means just as much to the Cadets and that they are just as bloodthirsty as the sailors.

Navy should put up a grand fight but that powerful Army line—one of three or four best in the country—is likely to prove too much for the Midshipmen to handle. They may run wild and tear it apart, but that is highly improbable.

Coach Brain Bills Five Tennis Meets

Conference Schedule Starts May 16

Five conference matches have been arranged for this year's tennis team according to an announcement made by Coach Phil Brain today. Two other dates are being considered with outside teams. The outdoor season will probably begin on May 9 against some non-conference team. Another engagement is being made for a match on May 11.

The conference schedule includes matches with Northwestern and Chicago here on May 16 and May 18. The team then takes the road to oppose the Badgers, May 21, the Wolverines, May 23, and the Hawkeyes, May 25.

Last year Minnesota's tennis team placed very high in all its conference matches. Only two members of last year's squad are in school this year, but these two, Hank Yutz and Douglas Johnston, will be aided by James Young and J. Armstrong, Gopher net stars of other years.

Basketball and Hockey Will Headline Schedule for Next Quarter—Six Other Events Billed

Anticipating a throng of entrants, the intramural department, under the direction of W. R. Smith, has outlined a complete schedule of winter athletics for next quarter that will satisfy the most rabid of cold weather sports' enthusiasts.

Hockey Stars End Practice Sessions Until After Finals

Initial Gopher Opponent Has Not Been Chosen—May Be Hibbing

After practicing this afternoon, varsity pucksters will lay aside their equipment until after examinations when they will begin their preparations for the opening game of the season.

It has not been announced yet who will be the Gophers' first opponents. The coaches would like to see the University of Manitoba sextet here for the opening joust, but are not sure that satisfactory arrangements can be made.

Hibbing Game Likely

The Hibbing City team would like to schedule the Minnesota team for some games in the first week in January. Pond is not certain that the team will make the trip, but if they do not, he hopes to have the Hibbing team play the Gophers here.

Marquette, who annually tour the Iron Range, and Wisconsin have already completed arrangements for their tours. Hibbing, performer in the Arrowhead league, a strong amateur organization, usually can be depended upon to have a strong team.

The "B" squad completed its hockey practice for the year yesterday and will not meet again until the winter quarter gets underway. Only members of the varsity will practice during the vacation.

The practice took on the nature of a scoring bee yesterday morning with a line of varsity forwards, Bucky Johnson.

Wrestlers May Have Initial Meet With Iowa Teachers

Minnesota wrestlers will probably have their first practice meet of the season with a pickled squad from Iowa Teachers' college, according to Coach Blaine McKusick. A tentative agreement with the Iowans has already been made, but as yet no definite date has been set for the meet. They are considered to have a mat squad as good as any team the Gophers will meet during the regular season with Big Ten opponents.

Alpha Chi Sigs Cop All-U. V-Ball Title

Avenge Last Year's Defeat by Theta Chi

Avenge a defeat administered last year under the same conditions, the Alpha Chi Sigma volleyball team took the Theta Chi six into camp Thursday night by successive scores of 1-13 and 15-12, and thereby copped the all-U. volleyball crown.

This is the second time within the last two years that these two teams have battled for the right to call themselves the all-U. champions. Consequently, the games this season were hard-fought and with lots of spirit. The close score is indicative of the tenaciousness of the game.

The lineup of the winning team was: Robert Miller, Herbert Bosko, Winfield Foster, Edwin Hammer, Alken Gortner, Clinton MacMullen, Erison Welsh, Poseen, Wolf, McCoy Hammond and Doane played for the losers.

From the viewpoint of the spectators the match was a thrilling one with the ball remaining in the air for as many as five crossings of the net.

Piper Postpones Further Gym Drill Until January

All practice sessions for Coach Ralph Piper's gym squad were temporarily halted yesterday until after the holiday vacation when the Maroon and Gold squad will prepare for its opening meet with St. Olaf and Carleton. The meet probably will be held sometime in the latter part of January, although no tentative date has been set. The opening of the Big Ten schedule is set for February 14.

Fred Sington, Alabama tackle, has only one outstanding weakness. He plays a saxophone.

Amusements

SHUBERT—

"The Ghost Train," that spectacular mystery melodrama that thrilled staid old London for a year and enjoyed a successful run on Broadway, will be presented at the Shubert theater by the Bainbridge Players beginning Sunday, December 14.

Written by Arnold Ridley the tale is woven about an old legend of a phantom locomotive that comes sweeping through the night-quiet of New England, leaving death in its wake. The story opens in the tiny station at Rockland, Me., where a group of railroad passengers are marooned because their train has stalled on an incline.

For he exposes a band of ruff and narcotic ransoms who have taken advantage of the villagers' awe to use the superstition in their business.

MINNESOTA

A picture that undoubtedly will cause considerable discussion among all who see it is Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's adaptation of the best selling novel, "War Nurse," which is now playing at the Minnesota, and published anonymously earlier this year. For "War Nurse" is a straightforward, outspoken, daring picture of a novel that came right out and spoke its mind without mincing words or situations. And Metro, following the precedent it set with "The Big House," has brought "War Nurse" to the audible screen as a faithful, vivid and highly dramatic transcript of the original novel. "War Nurse" tells the story of a group of young girls who, with America's entry into the World war, enlist as nurses. The picture's action then sweeps to a hospital behind the front line trenches where the girls, enduring hardships and undreamed of danger, sacrifice youth and ideals in the courageous effort to bring peace, happiness and even love to the heartick, battered men in the trenches.
