

DULUTH--Nineteen new faculty members began teaching at UMD this fall, according to Provost Raymond W. Darland.

Dr. Kenneth N. DeYoung, assistant professor of psychology, taught at Augsburg College the past two years. A native of Michigan, he received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Michigan State University and his Ph.D. from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis.

Elizabeth Strachan, an instructor in the Laboratory School, is an exchange instructor from New Zealand. Jean-Marie Sword, a Duluthian, has assumed Miss Strachan's position in Wellington, New Zealand.

Mrs. Linda L. Holmstrand, instructor of biology, graduated with a B.S. degree from UMD. She is a native of Northeastern Minnesota.

Kennes C. Huntley, instructor of business and economics, was a graduate assistant at Mankato State College during the past year. An Iowa native, Huntley secured his B.S. and M.S. degree from Mankato.

Lewis J. Oakland, instructor of physics, formerly was a physicist with Remington Rand Univac. A native of Duluth, he earned his B.A. degree at UMD.

Craig E. Peterson, instructor of physical education, will be in charge of the department's intramural program. He graduated from UMD last spring with his B.S. degree.

Frank C. Polite, instructor of English, received his B.A. degree from Youngstown University and his M.A. from the State University of Iowa. He is a native of Ohio.

Marcia C. Power, instructor of languages, was a graduate assistant at the University of Arizona the past two years. Miss Power is a native of Indiana and received her B.A. degree from Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana, and M.A. from the University of Arizona.

Richard L. Syverson, instructor of mathematics, is a Minnesotan with a B.A. degree from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, where he served as a graduate assistant for three years.

J. Desmond Toomey, instructor of English, completed his M.A. requirement at the University of Notre Dame after receiving his B.A. degree from UMD. He is a native Duluthian.

Donald J. Weiss, instructor of English, taught at DePaul University the past two years. A native of Massachusetts, Weiss earned his B.A. degree at Amherst College and his M.A. degree at Indiana University.

Nicholas F. Whelihan, instructor of physical education, will coach varsity track and swimming. He graduated from UMD last spring with a B.S. degree. Whelihan is a native of Wisconsin.

Frank P. Amedeo, instructor of psychology, formerly served as clinical psychologist at Fergus Falls State Hospital. A native of Massachusetts, Amedeo received his B.A. degree from the University of Vermont and his M.A. from the University of New Mexico.

Eleanor M. Collins, instructor of home economics, was a home economist at St. Mary's Hospital in Duluth for one year. A Duluthian, Mrs. Collins received her B.S. degree from UMD.

Margaret Thorbeck, lecturer in English, was a graduate assistant during the past year at Bemidji State College. Mrs. Thorbeck earned her B.S. degree from the State University of Iowa.

-3-

Beverly A. Krall, teaching assistant in music, taught in Silver Bay for past four years. She is a native Duluthian and completed her B.S. degree requirements at UMD.

Robert C. Panian, teaching assistant in business and economics, is enrolled in Graduate School at UMD. A native of Northeastern Minnesota, Panian received his B.S. degree from UMD.

- 1 -