

Easter Vacation

The University will be closed Good Friday, April 3. No classes will meet and all offices will be closed. Classes will resume on Monday, April 6.

Metropolitan Opera

The Metropolitan Opera Association will return to Minneapolis on May 15, 16 and 17, for their ninth annual Spring Festival. This most celebrated company will present four of its finest operas in Northrop Memorial Auditorium. The operas to be presented are:

May 15, 8:00 p. m.	"Der Rosenkavalier" by Richard Strauss	Sung in German
May 16, 2:00 p. m.	"La Boheme" by Giacomo Puccini	Sung in English
May 16, 8:00 p. m.	"Samson Et Dalila" by Chas. Saint-Saens	Sung in French
May 17, 2:00 p. m.	"Don Giovanni" by Wolfgang Mozart	Sung in Italian

Further information and ticket prices are available from Mrs. Elizabeth Haley in Room 109, Washburn Hall. A priority mailing list will be mailed to Minneapolis on March 31 but individual orders may be mailed later.

Summer Tours

Information regarding several educational tours to foreign countries during the summer of 1953 is now available in the Office of the Academic Dean. (R. W. Darland)

Regents' Scholarships Awarded

Regents' Scholarships for the Spring Quarter, 1953, have been awarded to Martha Marilyn Eaton, Clerk-Typist in the Art Department, and Carol Ann Thomas, Clerk-Stenographer in the Office of Student Personnel Services.

Faculty Front

Robert E. Wood is an exhibiting artist at the Los Angeles Art Association exhibition "Paintings of Mexico" by Southern California artists. This exhibition, which will continue through April 8, is being held in conjunction with the Fourth Annual Conference on Mexican-American Relations under a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation at Occidental College.

An exhibition of watercolor paintings by Robert E. Wood is now in the Gallery of the Norshor Theatre in Duluth. This exhibition, which began March 16, will continue for three weeks.

Julius F. Wolff, Jr. spoke on "Communism as a World Religion" on March 11 before the Lutheran Men's Brotherhood of Cloquet. Dr. Wolff also was one of the speakers at a Testimonial Dinner being held by the Remer Public Schools at Remer, Minnesota, on Saturday, March 14.

Ellen Frogner gave a talk at the Homecroft School PTA meeting on "Suggestions for Books in Building up the Library in the New School," on March 11.

Gerhard von Glahn attended the "Conference on Preparing College Men and Women for Politics" sponsored by the University of Minnesota and the Citizenship Clearing House, at the Lowell Inn, Stillwater, Minnesota, March 13 and 14.

Guy A. Renzaglia spoke before the faculty and PTA at Virginia, Minnesota, on March 25, on "Some Aspects of Fundamentals in Interpersonal and Teaching Situations."

Major Donald Rhodes has been assigned temporary duty to attend an educational workshop on a new AFROTC curriculum from April 6-18, at the Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Alabama. This study will be in preparation for conducting an area workshop for representatives of AFROTC from Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin, at UMD in August of this year.

John E. King is making the commencement address today at the West Central School of Agriculture of the University at Morris, Minnesota. His topic is "Faith in 1953."