Duluth--- The world famous Slovenian Octet from Yugoslavia will present a concert at UMD at 8 p.m. Tuesday (May 24) in Kirby Student Center ballroom.

The Octet, now on an American tour, will present a program of madrigals and motets of the Renaissance, Yugoslavian music, and folk songs of many nations.

The concert, which is open to the public, is sponsored by the UMD Convocations committee. Tickets may be purchased in advance at the Kirby Information Desk or at the door on Tuesday night.

The Octet was founded in 1951 and has appeared in festivals and special concerts in most European and Scandinavian countries.
