NOTICE TO DEPARTMENTS

The 1929-30 budget eliminates the Roman numeral section number and the distinguishing department letter, leaving only the departmental number. This number indicates the place of the department in the University organization. For example, the Department of Journalism has the number 2013. The first digit number, 2, indicates instruction and research, 0 indicates the College of Science, Literature, and the Arts, and 13 is the number which identifies Journalism in the College.

After July 1, 1929, all forms, such as Request for Transfer of Funds, Appointment blanks, etc., calling for section numbers and departmental letters should show only the departmental number in the spaces previously used for departmental letters.

NON PARKING ZONES

All streets having curbs painted yellow are non parking zones. City ordinances apply on 15th Avenue and 17th Avenue. The Minneapolis Police patrol these streets. Students are cautioned to observe all non parking zones.

W. T. Middlebrook, Comptroller

DRAMATIC RECITAL TODAY

"Wings Over Europe," by Nichols and Browne, is the play that has caused both favorable and questioning comment in dramatic circles. Today at 4:30 in the Music Auditorium, Maud Scheerer will read and give impressions and interesting facts from "Wings Over Europe."

Today's recital is the third of the series which presents a resume of the year's outstanding dramatic events. These recitals are intended to acquaint the members of the Summer Quarter with what is "going on" in the current theater, and to furnish some form of presentation of plays not easily available. Comments and questions concerning the various phases of the drama, if sent to the Summer Session Office, 236 Administration Building, will be referred to Miss Scheerer and taken up at some of the later recitals.

CONVOCATION THURSDAY

Professor Carl Russell Fish, widely known historian, will deliver the second convocation address of the quarter at the University Armory on Thursday at 10 a.m. The theme of his lecture will be "The Study and Reading of Biography."

Professor Fish comes from the University of Wisconsin where he has been professor of American history since 1900. He offers a course there on American biography and is recognized as an authority on this subject.

Biographies Popular

With the recent rise in popularity and importance of the biography as a form of literature, Professor Fish's lecture will be of timely interest to many.

Professor Fish is the author of numerous works. Among them are, "The Civil Service and the Patronage," published in 1904; a Syllabus of Lectures on American History, 1783-1909, "American Diplomacy" and "History of America."

NOTICE TO ALL STUDENTS

Lockers in Library, Old Library, and Folwell Hall will be assigned on Thursday, June 27, at Window 23 of the Registrar's Office.

R. M. West, Registrar

NOTICE TO ALL SUMMER SCHOOL STUDENTS

Condition examinations for all students who received conditions for last summer will be given on Saturday, June 29. All students intending to take condition examinations must report to Information Window, Registrar's Office, by Thursday, June 27.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

Students formally enrolled for shop and drafting courses at the William Hood Dunwoody Industrial Institute on Mondays only are hereby informed that additional time may be put upon this work during certain afternoons. These arrangements may be made at the Institute but will not affect the amount of credit specified at the time of enrollment. Some may desire, through this means, to lessen the number of days contact with Dunwoody—the hours remaining as specified. These classes are now in progress. The undersigned will be pleased to answer specific questions for those enrolled or to make special arrangements for others who may have found program changes necessary.

All persons, whether or not enrolled in departmental courses at this time, who consider themselves to be majoring in Industrial Education should come to Room 222, Old Library, and fill information blanks. These forms will be distributed in the special classes of the department (Messrs. Craigo, Sturtevant, and Smith) but students working this summer wholly outside the department are expected to appear at this office and fill the blanks during the present week.

Homer J. Smith, Adviser

LIBRARY RULES

Each student should become familiar with the following rules. Unnecessary trouble and expense will be avoided by observing them.

Library cards.—Library cards are issued to students on application at the circulation desk in the Library or at the loan desk of the college libraries. Books will not at any time be issued to students until their cards are presented. Students should apply for their cards immediately after registration. A card issued in the Main Library or in any of the college libraries will be honored in all library departments open to students.

Cards are issued for personal use only and are not to be lent to others. The person to whom a card is issued will be held responsible for the safe and prompt return of all books issued on the card and for fines due on them.

If cards are lost new ones will not be issued until forty-eight hours after application for a new one has been made. Twenty-five cents will be charged for the new card.

Registration grants all specified privileges.

Books must be returned to the loan desk, not left on desks or tables or passed on to other students. Students to whom books have been issued are personally liable until the books have been returned to the loan desk.

Books not in demand for class assignments may be borrowed for a period of two weeks, subject to recall at any time. A fine of five cents per day will be charged for two-week books kept overtime. This fine will be charged to owner of the card on which the books are charged.

Not more than three books may be charged to one undergraduate student at the same time.

Reference Books, U. S. Government documents, and periodicals must not be taken from the reading rooms.

Reserves.—Books for assigned reading may be taken out for one night at such an hour as the head of the Circulation Department may determine.

All overnight books taken from the "Reserves" must be returned at the beginning of the first hour of the following morning. If not returned at that hour a fine of 25 cents will be imposed, and an additional 10 cents will be charged for every hour or fraction of an hour thereafter the book is retained.

Books issued during the day for reading room use must be returned within two hours. If not returned promptly a fine of 25 cents for the first hour and 10 cents additional for every hour or fraction of an hour thereafter that the book is overdue, will be charged.

The person signing the card will be held responsible for the payment of the fine and the amount will be deducted from his deposit fund.

No one is permitted to draw books in his own name to be lent to other people. Borrowers who mark, mutilate, or lose books belonging to the library will be required to pay for the full replacement value of the book in addition to any fines which may have been incurred.

Conversation in reading rooms is forbidden.

University credit will be withheld until all Library accounts are clear.

The rules regarding fines and injuries to books are general university rules and any violation of them may subject the offender to general university discipline.

Frank K. Walter, University Librarian

NOTICE TO TEACHERS

Attention of the Summer Session students is directed to the programs of the Conference on Problems of the Small Town. These programs are of particular significance to different groups. Teachers will be interested in the Friday afternoon program at which time Professor George A. Selke, President of the State Teachers College of St. Cloud and Professor A. V. Storm of the University of Minnesota will outline an educational program for the small town. This meeting will be held at 2:00 p.m. in Room 110, Minnesota Union.
