GOVERNOR NAMES SMITH FOR BOARD OF REGENTS

Prominent Lumberman Appointed to Succeed Late D. R. Noyes—Will Take Up Duties Immediately.

Governor Johnson has appointed C. A. Smith, the Minneapolis lumberman to fill the late David Noyes' place on the Board of Regents.

Mr. Smith is a striking example of American enterprise and progressiveness.

As a boy he was helped along by Governor Pillsbury, who noted the ability of the young Scandinavian and made him a partner in his business. Since then Mr. Smith's advancement has been rapid and today he is recognized as one of the country's leading lumber manufacturers, and one of Minnesota's prominent men and a leader among his countrymen.

The new regent is president of the C. A. Smith Lumber Co., the C. A. Smith Timber Co., the Northwestern Compo-Board Co., a director of the Swedish-American Bank, director and treasurer of the Northern Pine Manufacturers Association. He was delegate to the Reciprocity Convention in 1901, a McKinley elector in 1906 and he is a member of the Minneapolis and Odin Clubs. He has always liberally supported educational institutions.

PREXY SAYS THINGS

In Chapel Talk Dr. Northrop Advises Delinquent Daily Subscribers to Loosen Up.

Pres. Northrop has recently returned from Washington where he has just been in attendance at the Congress for the Preservation of National Resources. He was in chapel yesterday morning and spoke on a very pertinent subject—Daily subscriptions.

"Remember the Daily is not run for charity," he said. "Neither is it supported by the church or in the interest of missions. It is disreputable to leave college at the end of the year with your bills unpaid, and something will be done this year to stop it."

IMPORTANT CASE PENDING.

Theodore Roosevelt vs. William Jennings Bryan is the title of an important case now pending before Judge Hickman of the College District Court. Fulton and Davenport attorneys for the defence decided to strike all republicans found on the jury panel. Champine and Eenkema then decided to eliminate all democrats, and as a prohibition jury could not be found the case was tied without one.

LAWS HAD GAY TIME.

Dean and Mrs. Pattee's reception to the senior Laws Saturday evening proved to be one of the social events of the season about the campus. The company was entertained by a number of original stunts, and the dean's hospitality was something beyond the ordinary.

Prof. Willis of Central high school appeared in some clever impersonations, and K. A. Machetanz did things with coins which are seldom seen off the professional stage.

GOPHERS DROP A CLOSE GAME TO BADGER TEAM

Tired After Contest with Luther Wilmot's Men Lose by One Tally.

One thousand people saw Wisconsin defeat Minnesota on Randall Field Saturday afternoon by the score of 3 to 2. The game was fast from start to finish but the Gophers, tired out from the 15-inning contest with Luther college the day before were finally overcome.

Dretchko was in the box for Minnesota and the Badgers found him for 8 safe ones while their pitcher allowed but 2 hits. Minnesota played an errorless game but inability to hit at critical periods caused their defeat.

The team returned Sunday morning. They leave again Wednesday night for Champaign, where they play Illinois on Thursday. On Saturday comes the last game of the trip, that with Chicago.

WOMAN'S MAG A WINNER.

Proceeds from Sale of Copies Leave Heavy Surplus in Co-Eds' Coffers.

Twenty-one cents was netted by the Woman's Magazine this year. The 1907 board did not sell as many copies as about a hundred, but the profit amounted to twenty dollars because of a large amount of advertising. The 1908 Magazine cost considerably more to print than last year's, and the difference in the financial success is due to this cause.

The use to which the surplus of 21 cents is to be put has been the source of much discussion among members of the board. The business manager and her assistant anticipate taking a trip to St. Paul, and that will leave one cent for a dutch treat after which they will be obliged to walk back.

"AS YOU LIKE IT" MAY 29.

Friday, May 29, will be a gala day at Minnesota. Two performances of "As You Like It" will be given, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening.

The phenomenal success of "Twelfth Night" given last year by the Dramatic Club was an incentive for the coming production of "As You Like It."

At present four rehearsals are being held weekly. Mr. Holt is greatly pleased with the earnestness and enthusiasm with which the players are taking hold of the work. This in itself assures a good production.

FRESHMEN GREEKS STUNG.

The Adelpian Club beat the Tau Shonka men in their baseball game Saturday by the score of 1 to 0.

The game was hotly contested, no runs being scored until the sixth inning, when the Adelpians slipped one over on the younger Greeks. Both Nuessle for the Tau Shonkas and Scharf for the Adelpians pitched good ball, but an error and two hits in succession spelled downfall for the men with the "big stick."

Battery for the Adelpians, Scharf and Seabury; for the Tau Shonkas, Nuessle and Johnson.

DOCTOR OF ALCANTARA TO BE GREAT SOCIETY EVENT

Big Musical Comedy at Orpheum Theater is Excuse for Many Box Parties.

Like Pinafore last year the "Doctor of Alcantara" will attract sorority and fraternity patronage very extensively. A section on the ground floor has been reserved for this purpose and blocks of fourteen 75c seats (a full row in the middle section) are sold for $8.40 as a party rate. Six fraternities have already made reservations.—Chi Psi, Alpha Deltas, Phi Gams, Theta Deltas, Delta Taus, and A. T. O.'s.

The operetta is already very nearly in finished form. The rehearsals held every day in the Armory under Miss Ethel Malcolm's supervision, are developing a chorus of professional quality. The college girl assumes the chorus lady manner with incredible ease, as the Pinafore experiment of last season showed plainly.

INSPECTION ON WEDNESDAY.

University Cadet Corps to Be Put Thru Its Paces By Capt. M. J. Lennihan.

Wednesday has been set as the day for the annual government inspection of the cadet corps. Capt. M. J. Lennihan, General Staff, U. S. A., will conduct the inspection, assisted by Capt. Sigerfoos. The first call will be sounded at 9:10 and all cadets must be there at 9:20. The program will be published tomorrow.

The Engineers' Society will hold their annual banquet at the East Side Commercial Club rooms at 7:30 Friday evening, May 22nd. Among those who will respond to toasts are: Dean Jones, Professors Shepardson, Flather and Cutler, and Messrs. Williams, Furber, Estep and Zimmerman.

FACULTY DINING CLUB TO ENTERTAIN LADIES.

The annual ladies' night and the last meeting of the Faculty Dining Club for the present year will be held at Donaldson's Tea Rooms on Friday evening, May 22, at 6:15 p. m.

Married faculty members have been requested to bring their wives. President Northrop, Ex-governor Lind, and other members of the Board of Regents will speak.

TWILIGHT CONCERT POSTPONED.

The Y. W. C. A. twilight concert, scheduled for tomorrow, has been indefinitely postponed.

The regular mid-week meeting of the association will be held Thursday noon this week. Elizabeth Bruchholz will lead.

The University of Iowa held an invitation track meet Saturday, in which forty of the high schools of the state participated.

SHEPARDSON REVIEWS THE ENGINEERS' YEAR BOOK

Present Edition Superior to Former Numbers and up to Date in Every Particular.

By Prof. Geo. D. Shepardson.

The Yearbook of the Engineers' Society, which appears today, sets a new mark, being unquestionably the best one yet issued. Both in content and in mechanical make-up, it is a credit to the University. This volume is the first to be copyrighted. The book contains sixteen articles of high order, contributed for the most part by alumni members of the society. It is strictly up-to-date, from the frontispiece showing the Panama Canal in February, 1908, to Dean Jones' discussion of the new five-year engineering courses and to the proposal of the editors to change the Yearbook to a Quarterly.

The articles cover a wide range of topics, which are treated in such a way as to be of interest to the general reader as well as to the engineer. E. P. Burch, '02, contributes a meaty paper on "Characteristics of Steam Locomotives," summarizing an immense amount of work in gathering and analyzing data from many actual tests. In an interesting account of personal observation of industrial conditions in labor's Utopia, New

PSYCHOLOGICAL EXHIBITION.

The equipment of the psychological laboratory, rooms 317 and 318 Folwell Hall, is now practically complete and arrangements have been made to exhibit it this week to all interested in the subject. The laboratory will be open to visitors every day except Saturday during the third, fourth, fifth and sixth hours and members of the department will be on hand to explain the uses of the apparatus.

YEAR BOOK REVIEWED.

Zealand, Professor Flather throws new light on the practical working of the attempts of the government to prevent friction between labor and capital. Mr. A. S. Cutler, '05, outlines the methods and worth of the work of the Minnesota Railroad and Ware-Commission in valuing railway prop-house Commission in valuing railway property. Mr. A. D. Williams tells of the opportunities in technical journalism, and incidentally argues for the new five-year course. W. C. Weeks, '05, B. E. Smith, '06, and R. S. Carter, '08, discuss the opportunities for technical men in various sections of the country.

E. J. Cheney, '04, tells how the graduate schools conducted by the large manufacturing companies are of mutual value to the companies and to the men, illustrating how the standard of excellence for an annual output of $60,000,000 by one company is attained and maintained by technical men.

The descriptive articles are of considerable interest, including an account of actual present work at the Panama Canal by O. G. Tubby, '07, hydro-electric developments for the electrical transmission of energy in Colorado and in northern Minnesota, described by L. E. Ashbaugh, '00, and by A. C. Ringsred, '06; a cement factory, by R. H. Rawson, '07; the use of concrete piles, by S. G. Collins, '04; recent developments in gas engines, by H. D. Frary, '08.

The Yearbook fittingly closes with a directory showing where and how the engineer graduates are making good.

UNION PICKS GOVERNORS

Candidates' Petitions Must Be Filed Today—Academics Will Choose Their Governors Thursday.

Elections to the Board of Governors of the Minnesota Union will be held within a week.

A list of department candidates nominated by the committee has already been published and all petitions proposing the candidacy of others than the men nominated by the Organizing Council must be turned in to Chairman A. A. Pickler by noon today.

Hal Deering, chairman of the academic election committee, has arranged for a mass meeting of all men in the academic division Thursday to elect the three members to the Board of Governors. The agricultural department will vote by themselves. Notice of further elections will follow.

PALACE MEDAL GOES TO FARM SCHOOL.

EXPERIMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY.

In order that a satisfactory distribution of students between the laboratory periods may be arranged, all those who are expecting to take work in experimental psychology next year are requested to arrange for their laboratory periods this week with Dr. Miner, room 317 Folwell Hall. Each laboratory section will be limited in size and no student can register for the laboratory course without first consulting with the instructor.

AMUSEMENTS METROPOLITAN.

In "Du Barry," at the Metropolitan, Mrs. Leslie Carter is seen at her best. The many vicissitudes in this French woman's life are accentuated in the play, and during the action Mrs. Carter is forced to run the whole gamut of human emotions. It is not a great play, but rather an impressive spectacle. The production is magnificent; the scenery and costumes are gorgeous; the court of Louis the XV, in all its splendor and wickedness, is vividly presented; the stage is often crowded with people, but there is no appeal to the intellect. If you wish to feast your senses, enjoy some powerful emotional acting, be entertained but not improved "Du Barry" is your play. Wednesday afternoon and evening "Zaza" will be presented.

BIJOU.

The perennial, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," is at the Bijou this week. The longevity of this play is unaccountable; it has no merit of which we are aware; the purpose for which the book was written has been accomplished long since, yet the play continues to draw packed houses year in and year out, and is likely to do the same this week.

LYCEUM

"Macbeth" is an ambitious offering even for a road company, and seldom does a stock company attempt it. The fact that the Jessaline Rodger's company open their engagement at the Lyceum this week in the Shakespearean play is noteworthy because it speaks volumes for the courage and enterprise of the new management.

ORPHEUM.

This is the last week of the season at the Orpheum. The Fadettes continue as headliners and they are well worth a second hearing. Bert Levy scores second honors.

FRATERNITY BASEBALL

Few Games Remain in Fraternity League—Delta Tau's Beat Dekes

One more postponed game in the interfraternity baseball league has been played off. Delta Tau Delta beat Delta Kappa Epsilon by the score of 4 to 0.

The finals will start as soon as these games are played.

Because we use the best Kangaroo leather for the tops.

Because we use the best White Oak leather for the soles.

Because they are made in our own factory, by men who have been in our employ for many years, and, from their knowledge and experience, know just what is required.

In addition to this, we use light weight leather, specially tanned, to give it the additional strength so necessary in an athletic shoe.
