GLEE CLUB CONCERT FOR LOCAL BUSINESS COLLEGES

Given Under Auspices Of The Minneapolis Y. M. C. A.—Sane Stunts On Easter Trip.

Several new stunts will be a feature of the entertainment to be given by the Glee and Mandolin clubs at Minneapolis Y. M. C. A. Auditorium, tonight, which will be given under the auspices of the association, for the benefit of the business colleges of the city. Doerman and Goodman will present a comic sketch, which is designated as "The Lore Scene from Faust." Ralph Knight will impersonate "Miles Standish" and "Barbara Fritchie." A quartet composed of Miles McNally, Frank Goodman, Harry Martin, and J. A. Nesse, will present several costume numbers, and the performance will close with a typical college section in which all the members of both clubs will participate.

The music to be used tonight is entirely new, and of a different nature than any, heretofore attempted by the club.

COVER DESIGN CONTEST FOR SENIOR SONG BOOK

Two Copies of Book Will Be Given To The Winner—Contest Will End April 3.

Copies of the new Minnesota song book will be given to the winners in a cover design contest to be held by the senior class, for the purpose of securing a characteristic cover for the new book. The contest is open only to university artists. All designs submitted must be 8 1/2 by 11 inches, and drawn in black and white. The drawings should be plain, but must have Minnesota atmosphere, and must be left in Box 383 before April 3.

The song book will be bound in maroon cloth with gold lettering and will contain sixty-five songs. Forty per cent of them will be Minnesota songs including the Prof. and Princess music, the Rouser and the famous, "Senior Engineer."

Over six hundred copies of the book have been subscribed for, many of them coming from interested alumni. All the manuscript has been sent to the publisher, and the volume will be out about the first of May.

VINCENT POPULAR IN STATE

Many Requests Received From Different Parts Of State Asking President-Elect to Speak.

That Dr. Vincent is to prove popular with the people of Minnesota is shown by the many requests he has received from various parts of the state, asking for his services on the lecture platform.

Dr. Vincent's first out of town address, as president of the university, will probably be on "The Duty of the School," before the annual convention of the Northern Minnesota Educational association, which will be given April 6, at St. Cloud.

WORLD-RENOWNED SCIENTIST WILL SPEAK AT MINNESOTA

Dr. Arhennius Discoverer Of The Electrical Dissociation Theory Will Address Students May 5.

University students and faculty members will have the opportunity of hearing one of the greatest scientists of the present day, early in May, when Dr. Svant Arhennius of Stockholm, Sweden will visit here. Dr. Arhennius is the foremost chemist in the world today, and has written authoritative treatises on physical and astronomical subjects. He is also the discoverer of "The Theory of Electrical Dissociation," which is one of the fundamental principles of chemistry.

Prof. Stomberg, of the Scandinavian department received a letter from Dr. Arhennius, who is now in New York, saying that he will go from there to Boston, but will reach here about May 5.

While here he will be entertained by the Chemistry society and the Minneapolis Odin club.

TRIPS FOR HOME ECONOMISTS

Farm School Association Plans University Trips For Prospective Students—Dining Room Planned

The Home Economics association is making out a list of towns from which it will take prospective students about the University Farm and the main university. The purpose of these trips is to acquaint all the girls unfamiliar with these places with one existing conditions and the opportunities in store for them. Professors and others will act as guides, and distributors of information.

The association is planning also to convert the ladies hall of the Agricultural School into a rest hall or common gathering place. Light lunches will be served here free to members of the Home Economics association. All others will be charged a small fee. This plan is received much commendation and will correct a much suffered deficiency.

RIVAL TEAMS WILL SELL Y. M. C. A. BANQUET TICKETS.

Competitive ticket sale for the annual Y. M. C. A. banquet is now going on. Two teams of twenty members each are hustling to sell tickets for the banquet. This year's banquet will be the largest of its kind ever given here. The idea is to make it an All-University affair and not a Y. M. C. A. banquet as in former years.

The committee realizing that they will have a large number, are going to set aside blocks of seats so that members of any organization can sit together if they wish to.

MRS. HOLT WILL READ AT NEXT TWILIGHT CONCERT.

Mrs. Holt of the Minneapolis School of Music and Oratory will give the program at the next Y. W. C. A. Twilight Concert, on April twenty-fifth. Many of the readings will be from the works of Anbur Upson, and will, on this account, be doubly appreciated by a Minnesota audience.

Representatives from every organization in the university and faculty members, will participate in a spread in Shevlin, March 30, at 6 p. m., for the purpose of choosing a final executive committee to take charge of the May Fete, and carry out the plans already made. Sub-committees will also be selected, and a definite task assigned to each organization at the meeting. The report of the temporary committee will be presented, and any new ideas, which may be presented, will be discussed.

A petition for a holiday on the occasion of the Fete is now in the hands of the social committee, and will be presented to the students council next week. The petition will go for a final vote before the faculty council. The decision will be announced in about two weeks.

Next week will be Prexy's last week as official head of the University. For the last few times he will preside over the chapel exercises and Prexy meet the students every morning. Why not have a large Chapel attendance greet him every day.

Attending chapel is only a habit easily formed and more easily broken. It would not be a very hard task for every student to attend chapel every morning next week, if possible. And then, the habit might grow. It would be characteristic of Prexy if he should say, "I do not want anybody to attend chapel just on account of me," but he certainly would not depreciate the forming of a good habit. Let the start be made next week.

"The compensation of the Managing Editor shall be Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per month for the nine (9) months of the University year; provided, however, that whenever the net profits shall so warrant, the Board of Publishers may in their discretion increase said compensation."

FORBES-ROBERTSON IN "THE PASSING OF THE THIRD FLOOR BACK."

Play goes in this city are having a great treat instore this week, as Forbes-Robertson is visiting the Shubert Theatre, Minneapolis, for the week commencing Monday, March 20, with Wednesday and Saturday Matinees, in that great play of modern life "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." The story of the play can be told in a few words. A passerby, symbolic presumably of the dormat good in each man or woman's soul, enters a lodging-place which houses a company of the poorer middle class, and by the simple expedient of believing good of them all, elevates and reforms them. The play is divided into prologue, play and epilogue. The first discloses the sordid lodgers in full exercise of their vices. The second, by a curious dramatic construction, in which character after character revolves about the central figure of Forbes-Robertson as the "Passer-By" makes known the steps in the moral progress of the lodgers. The third reveals the surpassing peace and happiness of a bettered household. Forbes-Robertson's art is a magic that can defy the absence of speech or action. His voice has a touch not found in other voices, his modulations and inflections being the supreme refinement of speech, while his dignity and grace of bearing enrol him amongst the wor srg'dltseact rol him amongst the world's greatest actors. Mr. Robertson will appear at the St. Paul Shubert all next week with the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees. He will appear the last time in Minneapolis this afternoon and evening.

AGGIE BALLPLAYERS OUT

Nine Games Scheduled With State Preparatory Schools—Squad Severely Handicapped.

The Agricultural College baseball schedule, although not quite complete, consists of nine games as follows:

April 27—Carleton at St. Anthony Park.

May 2—Carleton at Northfield.

May 6—St. Olaf at Northfield.

May 11—St. Olaf at St. Anthony Park.

May 13—Hamline at Hamline.

May 20—Hamline at St. Anthony Park.

A squad of twenty-five men is out working hard every day under the tutelage of a successful team last year. No positions have been assigned as yet.
