

"Art in Our Lives" is the theme of the December exhibition in the new Tweed gallery opening with a public reception at 1 p.m. Sunday (Nov. 30). The multi-faceted exhibition will embrace art as it affects religious, recreational, fashion and purely esthetic aspects of living.

George Goundie and Howard Schroedter, two Wisconsin ex-servicemen who have dedicated post-World War II efforts to contemporary art and the recreational welfare of children, will display unique play structures as well as their paintings and sculptures.

Other features of the exhibition:

A collection of 32 full-size color reproductions from the Pierpont Morgan library's collection of Central European religious manuscript illustrations.

Original leaves from religious manuscripts dating from the 12th through the 15th century and obtained from the Minneapolis campus library.

Paintings by Richard Wold, Duluth, UMD art graduate and prize-winning local artist.

New fashions presented under sponsorship of the Junior League in two showings at 2 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. ~~30~~ 4

Small fry will have a special opportunity to enjoy the exhibition, Orazio Funagalli, gallery curator, noted.

Columbia university Teachers' college and the M. F. A. degree in sculpture from the University of Iowa, Iowa City. Prior to Milwaukee, he ~~taught~~ taught at West Reading, Pa., high school and the University of Southern ~~States~~ ~~States~~ California.

He has exhibited extensively in Iowa, Colorado, Pennsylvania, Illinois and ~~Wisconsin~~ Wisconsin. His ~~work~~ work is included in a number of private collections in Milwaukee and Chicago and in the Milwaukee Art Institute.