Regal's Rundown with Derrick Redd, Jr.: Chancellor Fred Wood

In the 10th installment of "Regal's Rundown", UMC athletic video correspondent Derrick Redd, Jr. sits down for a special segment with Chancellor Fred Wood, who is in his fourth year heading up the University of Minnesota Crookston after making the move from University of California, Davis. The two discuss some of the most important things that have happened during Dr. Wood's time at UMC, including adding new majors, employees, buildings. They touch more specifically on the six additions of majors like elementary education, english, medical laboratory science, ag education, entrepreneurship and exercise science and wellness. They also discuss the addition of the new 36,000 square-foot Wellness Center currently being built on the UMC campus, which will open prior to the Fall Semester of 2016 and will be a huge addition for all of UMC's students with work-out space, a walking and jogging track, along with multi-purpose court space and general student locker rooms. Wood also discusses the recent successes of several athletic programs and the growth several other programs have had during his time at UMC.

"Regal's Rundown" is a weekly show that will profile UMC athletics by talking to UMC coaches, staff and athletes about the happenings of Golden Eagle athletics. It is in the third season of existence as several UMC student-athletes have hosted the show, bringing unique perspectives on UMC athletics while also talking to fellow athletes and coaches.
